Santa Finds Village At Performance Of Christmas On Ice

Santa Claus will come to Marin on skates after looking throughout the United States for his village when the "Christmas on Ice" show is presented by the Raydine School of Ice Skating in San Anselmo and sponsored by the Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary.

The ice show will have five performances, Friday, at 8 p.m.; Saturday at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Tickets are on sale at the Raydine School, 70 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo.

Proceeds from the show will benefit the children at the Sunny Hills Home in San Anselmo.

Ray and Nadine Schramm, owners of the school and former Ice Follies stars, are training more than 100 children who will participate in Santa's search all the way from New York to California before finding his village. The ice skating rink has been remodeled and enlarged this year and the seats will be elevated. Tickets may be purchased for either reserved or non-reserved seats.

Mrs. William L. Cuneo and Mrs. Marston Thall have designed and created the spectacular costumes and Mrs. Ralston Hodgson will act as the music coordinator. Choreography and production is under the direction of Nadine and Ray Schramm.

Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary chairman is Mrs. Robert Franchini who will be assisted by Mesdames William Carewe, tickets; James McLaughlin, props; Warren Perry, seating; D. H. Ballinger, ushers and Dean Solinsky, leaflets.

White House Parlors Being Refurnished With Antique Style

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The refurnishing in antique style of two of the White House famous perlors—the Red Room in empire period and the Green Room in classical American—will be completed soon.

FROM DONORS

The Green Room is on view, though, with all newly acquired furnishings from many donors who responded to First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy's plea to provide historic antiques for the President's home. This room now shows off the works of American craftsmen who followed the style of Sheraton, Chippendale and Hepplewhite.

TEDDY ERA

According to the master plan, the huge state dining room and famed east ballroom will be representative of the period of 1902—when the White House was remodeled and refurnished in dignified 18th century style under the direction of the occupant of that time, President Theodore Roosevelt.

The Red Room, now empire, is largely furnished with the gifts of Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Douglas Dillon.

The Blue Room, still incomplete, will represent the period of President James Monroe.

Northbridge Installation Wednesday

The Northbridge Guild of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum will hold an installation luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Gene Carver.

Hostesses at the luncheon will be the retiring board of directors, Mesdames Vincent deNevers, Noel Mc Carthy, Louis Przetak and Terrence Rooney.

McGRAW-HILL TO HOST AUTHORS AT BUFFET ON THURSDAY EVE

More than 350 guests are expected for the cocktail party and buffet to be hosted on Thursday from 5 to 7:30 p.m. by McGraw-Hill Book Co., at its offices in Corte Madera.

Honored guests will be more than 150 authors of the San Francisco Bay Area. They will include writers from the colleges and universities as well as authors of industrial, high school and medical textbooks, and those from technical institutes.

Among those attending will be Mark Schorer, author of the recently-published biography, "Sinclair Lewis," and Eugene Burdick, author of the "The Ugly American" and "The Blue of Capricorn."

Greeting guests and their wives will be Edward Booher of New York, president of the book company; Harry Graves of Kent Woodlands, vice president for its Western District; Kenneth Zeigler of San Rafael, editorial director, and Carl Lorentzen of Larkspur, district manager for the Western Division.

Mrs. Robert Huber Will Head Tennis Club Women's Events

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. Robert D. Huber, wife of Mill Valley's mayor, has been chosen to succeed Mrs. Richard Clarke as chairman of women's activities for the Mill Valley Tennis Club.

Mill Valley's "first lady" says her dominant interest is in her husband, an attorney, and their five children—Ann, 13; David, 11; Jane, 8; Timothy, 6, and Mary, 2—and her new home on Tamalpais Avenue. But she finds time to be a leader in a number of activities.

Through the chairmanship of women's activities is the first office she has held in the tennis club, she has been active in the club for seven of the 11½ years the family has lived in Marin County.

A native of Napa, Jean Huber is the daughter of Dr. D. H. Murray, a former president of the American Medical Assn., and Mrs. Murray, who still live in Napa, where the Hubers visit them often on holidays.

Jean was graduated from the Sarah Dix Hamlin School in San Francisco and the University of Oregon with a degree in psychology and sociology. She worked after her marriage as a medical secretary at the University of Michigan while her husband was working for a degree in law.

Known as a vivacious hostess, Jean Huber is an enthusiastic tennis player and afficient organizer of whatever she undertakes.

MRS. ROBERT HUBER

She was one of the charter members of the new Southern Marin Republican Women. She was last year's president of the Lawyers' Wives of Marin, vice president before that and a member since it was founded.

Other organizations she belongs to are the Outdoor Art Club, the Mount Carmel Women's Club, the Mount Carmel Parent-Teacher group and the St. Dismas Club, a social group composed of women of Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish who meet at members' homes for luncheons.

Mrs. Huber has appointed to her executive board Mesdames William Everts, co-chairman of women's activities; Robert Fair, treasurer; Lloyd Postel, secretary; Robert Seymour, social chairman; James McManus, publicity chairman; James Reeves, tennis chairman; Melvin Klyce, hospitality chairman; Jack Creighton, teen-age activities chairman; Richard Clarke, pre-teen-age activities; Richard Jessup, swimming; and John Hemingway and Robert Randolph, reservations chairmen.

Meadow Club Golfers Plan Luncheon To Honor Captain

The Meadow Club Women Golfers will hold their annual fun luncheon honoring captain Mrs. Eugene Ostaggi on Dec. 14 at the club.

Entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. Lewis Kerlin, will be a skit emphasing the idiosyncracies of the woman golfer.

In the cast will be the Mesdames Carl Boegershausen, T. N. Brown, John Cann, Arnold Nutting, Norris Seastrom, Harry Transue, Jack Wilsey and Gordon Wood.

Attendance is limited to members only.

VAULTING OVER HUMP IN BRIDGE

An automobile vaults over the hump in the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. The hump is a steel ramp covering a bridge section being rebuilt. The car flew through the air for 70 feet, was wrecked, but the driver got out unhurt. Bon Mohr, of the Oakland Tribune, spent three nights on the bridge just to catch such a photo. Highway Accident Fatal To Marin Deputy Sheriff

11 Others Injured In Weekend Wrecks

A Marin County deputy sheriff, father of four, was crushed to death as his car overturned yesterday on the Greenbrae Bridge.

Charles Anthony Braam, 27, of 20 Victor Court, Novàto, died about 3:45 a.m. as he was being wheeled into the operating room of Marin General Hospital. He was the 17th person killed on Marin streets and highways this year. At this time last year, there had been 24 traffic fatalities in the county.

Eleven other victims of Marin automobile accidents were treated at hospitals between noon Saturday and noon today.

HE SAW CAR

A witness to the Braam tragedy, John J. Hanley, 25, of 67 Martens Boulevard in San Rafael, told California Highway Patrolmen that Braam's southbound car passed him north of the bridge at about 65 miles an hour. Hanley said he "saw sparks fly" as Braam's car hit the west curb and guard rail of the bridge. It then rolled over, stopping on the divider strip.

Highway Patrolmen V. C. Weimer and T. Allen Gregg said Braam's body was found face down across the divider about 20 yards from the automobile.

MUTTERED

Braam did not regain consciousness before he died. John A. Raggio, owner of the Marin Ambulance Service which took Braam to the hospital, said he muttered during the trip, but was unable to speak. It was apparent the car rolled over his body, which was thrown out when the car went out of control, officers said.

Braam was assistant chief of the Sheriff's Civil Department. He headed the department during the time Floyd Middagh was undersheriff under former Sheriff David Menary.

"He was one of the best workers in the department," Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said. "His death is a great loss to us."

VACATION START

Only hours before his death, Braam had left his wife, and four children at Boyes Hot Springs where he had taken them for a brief vacation, returning to Marin County to report for work today.

Four persons were injured when Keith Jacobsen, 36, of Eureka attempted a U-turn in his car on Puerto Suello Hill and it was struck by a car driven by Bernard Kahage, 39, of San Francisco, a bakery employee.

Jacobsen suffered fractures of two bones of the lower right leg and was in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital. His passenger, Fred Laudman, 60, of 107 Antoinette Street, San Rafael, was in only "fair" condition, under treatment for cuts and broken bones in the face.

Kahage was treated for multiple abrasions, and his wife, Catherine, 39, for a fracture of the right arm, then transferred to St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco. Their infant daughter apparently escaped unhurt.

Jacobsen was cited by the highway patrol for making an unsafe turn.

Another child, 3-year-old Kyren Elizabeth Deck, and her father, James Henan Deck, 36, airman first class at Hamilton Air Force Base, were treated for minor injuries at the base hospital after Deck's car struck a parked car in the 500 block of Miller Avenue in Mill Valley about 6:15 p.m. yesterday.

Mill Valley police said, Deck turned to check on his daughter, who was riding in the back seat, and crashed into a parked car belonging to James M. Arpi of Santa Marie.

Two persons went to Marin General Hospital shortly after

Tomorrow Is South Marin's Voting Day

Voters of South Marin's Third Supervisorial District go to the polls tomorrow in a recall election without precedent in this county.

It is directed against Supervisor J. Walter Blair of Mill Valley, who assumed office only last Jan. 1. If the recall is successful, it will result in the election of Peter Behr to serve the remaining three years of Blair's term. Behr, Mill Valley attorney, is Blair's sole opponent.

33 PLACES

Polls will be open at 33 polling places. Durng the hours of voting, no bar may be open or liquor sold within the district which includes Mill Valley, Sausalito, Belvedere, Tiburon, Stinson Beach, Bolinas and Alto-Strawberry cities or areas.

Cost of the election will be about $5,000 according to recent estimate of County Clerk George S. Jones, who expressed doubt that more than 50 per cent of the district's 19,285 registered voters will turn out.

OFFICE STAFFED

With 116 absentee ballots out, the county clerk's office was specially staffed Saturday to receive any ballots which might arrive up to 5 p.m., the limit under new law. But the absentee ballot might be used up to and including election day, according to Deputy Clerk Agnes Nathanson, in cases where a physician's certificate showed that the condition of a qualified voter was such as to require removal to a hospital.

Supporters of both Blair and Behr have declared that their respective men would benefit by a big turnout of voters. That seems one of the few points of agreement in a situation replete with confused issues and debated facts.

A SECRET?

Blair backers insist that the recall movement started secretly even before he took office, originating among disgruntled supporters of Mrs. Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, whom he displaced by election in June of 1960.

They also have said that the recall should apply only where misconduct in office is charged.

They have urged that Blair, an engineer and operator of a number of Marin County laundries, has not yet been given time for a fair trial since he

2ND SUCH JUMP

Youth Leaps Off Gate Span, Lives

A 20-year-old Oakland man yesterday became the second known person to survive a plunge from the Golden Gate Bridge.

A scant four hours after his miraculous leap from the span, a raincoat, wallet and notebook belonging to another youth, found beside the bridge railing, offered mute evidence that a second jumper had succeeded in taking his life.

Francis Patrick Kennedy was alive but in critical condition today after plunging 200 feet from the Marin side of the bridge into a patch of soft sand a few yards from jagged boulders at the edge of the bay.

He vaulted the rail, literally slipping from the grasp of a California Highway Patrolman, and fell to what appeared to be certain death at 4:30 a.m. yesterday.

The only other person known to have survived a leap from the bridge was Cornielia Van Ierland (now Mrs. Henry Blencke) who, in 1941 when she was 22 years old, jumped 220 feet into the water from mid span. She was hospitalized for two months with fractured vertebrae and arms and internal injuries.

Records show that 215 persons are known to have leaped to their deaths. Authorities estimate about 150 attempts have been prevented, while 80 supposed deaths have been unconfirmed.

Dr. Edward C. Miller of San Rafael, one of a team of four specialists who performed surgery on Kennedy at Marin General Hospital for more than seven hours, said he suffered a broken elbow, dislocated arm, broken pelvis, and injuries to his lungs and kidneys. He was terribly bruised, Miller

Woman Who Jumped Lives In San Rafael

A happy but not yet fully normal life is being led in San Rafael by the first person to jump from the Golden Gate Bridge and survive.

Now Mrs. Henry Blencke, the former Cornelia Van Ierland is married to a girlhood sweetheart who was away as a soldier on the afternoon of Sept. 3, 1941, when in an overwrought nervous condition she suddenly yielded to a mysterious impulse and jumped from the bridge rail.

Her survival and her battle back to health and a new life assumed new importance yesterday when a second person, this time a man, jumped and lived.

Francis Kennedy of Oakland, who was hospitalized with severe injuries after a 150-foot fall to a rain-soft dirt road, is 20. When Mrs. Blencke jumped to water 235 feet down, she was 22.

At the time the young woman leaped she was an athlete, practicing professional ice skating and overwrought by the strain of combining this with clerical duties for the state.

She is an athlete again today. Though her back, arms and legs were broken and she was four months in hospital before going to New Mexico to wed her soldier-fiance, she now skates again, water skis, usually swims twice daily in the open pool of her apartment building.

But there are scars.

The Blenckes have no phone. When the door-bell rings, Mrs. Blencke does not answer.

Robust and of fine appearance, she has nonetheless a great wish for seclusion. She is afraid to meet people.

Friends believe her survival was at least in part due to the fact that she was wearing a big coat when she jumped. The coat ballooned out and served as a parachute in some degree.

Red Hungary Would Talk Of Cardinal

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI) — Communist Hungary is ready to negotiate the problem of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty with the United States, Deputy Premier Gyula Kallai said today.

He told foreign newsmen that one condition for talks on the cardinal's future was a review of U.S.-Hungarian relations.

Kallai said Hungary had made several suggestions to Washington for improving the weak relations between the two countries, but none was specifically connected with the cardinal.

Cardinal Mindszenty has been in the U.S. Legation in Budapest since the unsuccessful Hungarian uprising, when he took refuge from the Communist regime.

The cardinal had been serving a Comunist-imposed jail term on charges of black marketing and currency smuggling when he was released from detention by the insurgents. He went into the U.S. Legation when the revolt failed.

Kallai said Mindszenty sought asylum after taking "active steps against the government." He did not suggest that charges against Mindszenty would be dropped.

Kallai gave no details of the Hungarian proposals.

High Court Will Rule On Prayers In School

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to rule whether prayers in public schools are constitutional.

It accepted for argument and ultimate decision a case involving a prayer said in the schools of New Hyde Park, N. Y. Parents of children in four schools objected to the saying of the prayer after the morning Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

The court also agreed to consider a dispute which would decide whether U. S. labor law applies to foreign-owned ships which operate regularly out of American ports.

The court also denied a hearing to Darryl Thomas Kemp, who is under death sentence in California on conviction of murder of Marjorie Hipperson, a Los Angeles nurse.

Miss Hipperson was strangled and raped in her apartment in the early morning of June 30, 1957. A jury convicted Kemp on the murder charge and also convicted him of raping two other women in 1959. The death penalty was fixed by the jury on the murder conviction.

Kemp is at the state prison facility at Vacaville.

Youth Escapes Juvenile Hall; Captured Three Hours Later

Glen Witten, 17, of Marinwood, recommitted to the California Youth Authority Friday on a car theft charge, escaped from Marin Juvenile Hall Saturday night but was recaptured about three hours later by Sheriff's Officer Carl Mead about four miles away.

Probation Officer Walter H. Busher said Witten escaped from the building through a door with a defective lock and then got over a 14-foot fence. He fell from the fence and was treated early yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital for rib injuries.

Mead, searching for him after an all-points bulletin was sent out, spotted Witten on San Pedro Road in Santa Venetia.

Busher said Witten was on parole from the CYA when he was arrested in San Francisco three weeks ago on a charge of stealing a car in San Rafael. He appeared before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin Municipal Court, who recommitted him Friday. He was returned to the hall from the hospital to await transfer to a CYA facility.

Still Damp After Week's Rain Ends

Fogs were forecast for early and late tomorrow with fair skies during the middle of the day.

Mrs. William Wapp of 9 Doris Drive, Novato, reported that a two-foot ditch now runs the full length of the Wapp property where a house was built two years ago. Rains softened soil over a sewer line, causing the collapse.

Larkspur reported among the heavier weekend rainfalls with 1.69 inches for the 48 hours to 8 a.m. today.

In contrast, San Rafael had a two-day total of only .16 inch, bringing the seasonal total to 10.26 inches in contrast with last year's 4.88 at this time and a seasonal average of 6.78.

The Marin County Fire Department of Woodacre reported .59 inch for the weekend with a total for this year of 9.09. San Anselmo's Fire Department has recorded a total of 8.11 inches with .71 inch over the weekend.

Novato rainfall was negligible over the past 24 hours but the previous 24 totaled .60 of an inch.

Tamalpais Valley reported one-tenth of an inch rainfall within five minutes Saturday morning but the 24 hours to 8 o'clock last night showed only .25 inch. Sausalito reported a weekend total of .24 of an inch.

Booklet On Reds Now Circulated By Schools Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Under what is termed the most aggressive pressure in history, the California Assn. of School Administrators today circulated a booklet called "Teaching about Communism: An aid to The Defense of Freedom" as a statement of its policy for public schools.

"When children understand Communism as a way of life, they will have a better appreciation of the American Way of life," Theron L. McCuen, association president, told a news conference at the opening of the group's four-day conference here.

Ban On Cuba Sugar Is Extended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy today extended the U. S. ban on Cuban sugar shipments for another six months in a new crackdown that will cost Fidel Castro's avowed Communist regime nearly 80 million dollars.

The presidential action came as the council of the 21-nation Organization of American States neared a showdown on a U. S.-backed proposal aimed at eventual economic sanctions against Cuba.

Kennedy extended through next June 30 the ban on U. S. imports of Cuban sugar which had been scheduled to expire Dec. 31. His order, issued in the national interest, meant that Castro again would have to sell elsewhere the big Cuban crop, second largest in Cuba's history.

Auxiliary's Work To Highlight Social Service's Yuletide Tea

"The Color of Christmas"—the traditional reds and greens, the shimmery golds and silvers and iridescent jewelings—will theme the annual Christmas tea of the Social Service Auxiliary of Marin, to be given Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. at Fanjeaux on the Dominican campus.

For many months, auxiliary members have been working to provide Christmas joys for the families being helped by Catholic Social Service in Marin.

Thus Fanjeaux will be decked with all the Christmas enchantments (from Santa to kissing rings, golden sconces and angel mobiles, from starry trees to ribboned bells, from copper wreaths to whimsied deer with twinkling diamond hoofs) and with reminders that the real Christmas spirit is the doing for others.

Hung with hand-made jeweled ornaments will be the 16-foot Monterey pine, this year's "Tree of Charity," near which will be Santa (Robert Huber of Mill Valley), his sleigh and an array of toys.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Space will limit the displays, but there will be token representation of the toys which are renovated by the truckload each year since 1947 by San Quentin.

Supervisor of prison education, Dr. H. J. Hastings and J. D. Powell, vocational instructor in the general shop, who work closely with the program, agree with Warden Dickson that the work provides an opportunity to develop skills in their trade preparatory classes. Mrs. Aloysius Nather is the Auxiliary's toy chairman.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mert Hipsley, about 50 new dolls have been dressed by members for the children of Catholic Social Service families. In addition, a group of women working with Mrs. Robert Sterling is providing a collection of used dolls which they have renovated and dressed. The traditional award doll has been outfitted by Mrs. George Geramoni.

Sister Martina, executive secretary of Catholic Social Service, supplied to members of the sewing committee descriptions and measurements of boys and girls of the agency families and 30 dresses, boys' shirts and pajamas have been made for them by members working under the chairmanship of Mrs. Eugene Lombardi.

Modeling at the tea such garments made by their mothers will be Jeff Dal Pogetto, 3; Elizabeth Wilhelm, 4, and Geraldine De Matei, 10, as well as Marin Catholic High School students Lauren Mullane, Mary Egan and Marilyn Lombardi.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

The Madrigal Singers, directed by Winifred Baker, will depart from their customary repertoire of 16th century madrigals to an A capella Christmas program, wearing ski clothes instead of their formals.

GREETING GUESTS

Ready with a holiday welcome will be Rev. John O'Hare, priest-director of Catholic Service Social Service; Sister Martina, Mrs. Harold J. Truett, tea chairman; Mrs. Fred Neiderholzer, president, and Mrs. Fred Adams, social activities chairman.

Each member is invited to bring a guest. Reservations are taken with Mrs. O. E. Dehnert of Greenbrae.

Mrs. G. David Callahan, decorations chairman, and Mrs. P. J. Roland, her co-designer and their committees have worked many weeks on wreaths, cone, pod and teasel table trees, and other tea decorations.

Chairmen of committees include Mesdames Roger Yore and Louis Pometta, food; Fred Acciari, mailing; John La Boyteaux, music; Lee Ceccotti, awards; Cletus Fitzharris, publicity; Howard Leif, properties; William Murray, aftermath and Kenneth Larkins, liáison.

Pouring will be past presidents Mesdames Thomas Mellon, Francis McGrath, A. Barlow Ferguson, Fitzharris, Arthur Fay, Frank Duhme Jr. and Geramoni.

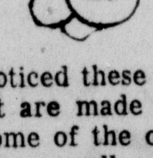
Lint Problems Are Solved With Use Of Clothes Dryer

By EUNICE FARMER

This week's tailor trix winner is Mrs. Rosemary Sciales, St. Louis, Mo.

"This suggestion sounds too 'crazy' to be true, but it works wonders for me and I would like to share it with all your readers. Most of us consider dark dresses and suits a 'must' in our wardrobe, but practically wear them out by continuously brushing off the lint that sticks like glue. Now your problems are over.

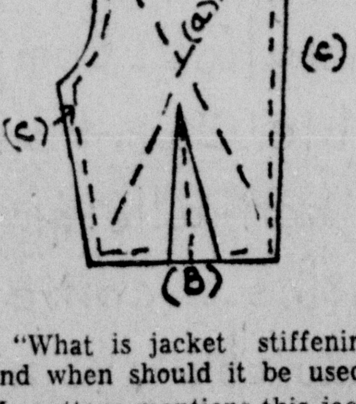
"Take a regular size Turkish towel and sprinkle it with a little water, just about the same amount you would use if you were dampening something for ironing. Now place this slightly dampened towel and your dark dress, suit or coat in the clothes dryer. Turn your dryer on for no longer than 5 minutes, remove your garment immediately and it will look pressed and have absolutely no lint on it. We've tried it and it works, hope you'll try it, too."



"I have noticed these corded buttons that are made of self fabric on some of the oriental type blouses as well as many very dressy suits. Can I learn to make these myself or must one have them professionally made?" Mrs. M. E. G.

Dear Mrs. M. E. G.:

These buttons are called "Chinese Ball Buttons" and aren't too difficult to make. The size of the finished button depends on the thickness of the cording you cover with your bias strip of fabric. They can be made into a ball or shaped flatter depending on the effect you desire. The instructions for making them are included in my leaflet 4 which also includes instructions for spaghetti straps and rope belts. This leaflet may be obtained by sending a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents to Eunice Farmer, in care of this newspaper.



"What is jacket stiffening and when should it be used? My pattern mentions this jacket stiffening and also says "optional." If I use this stiffening do I also use a separate interfacing? Your columns are very useful and enjoyable to all the women who like to sew."

Mrs. H. W. B.

Dear Mrs. H. W. B.:

The jacket stiffening the pattern refers to is the same as under-lining. In other words, the garment fabric and your under-lining are treated as one piece. Different weights of under-lining are used, depending on the effect you wish to achieve. A boxy coat or jacket of loosely woven fabric, would require a heavier type than a soft light weight fabric. Often silk organza is used for suits, or you may use various weights of woven type interfacing. If you use anything but organza, it would also be necessary to use a heavier type interfacing fabric for the collars and facings of your garment.

The trick of using under-lining is getting both of the layers of fabric exactly the same size, otherwise you will have a puffy look to your garment. If you will follow these instructions in the order I have given them, you won't have any trouble.

1. Cut you under-lining the same as your garment, you will not need to under-line the facings.

2. Lay your under-lining on a flat surface and then lay your garment right side up over the under-lining.

(a) Hand baste the two layers of fabric together by basting diagonally. This will keep them even.

(b) Baste through the center of all darts. In this way, you will not take more fabric out of the under-lining than you will out of your garment fabric when stitching darts.

(c) Last, baste around all the outer edges of each piece. Hand basting will keep the two layers from pulling out of shape.

From this point on, you will proceed as if you only had one layer of fabric.

Prevent Warp

If metal cooking utensils warp and wobble when set on a flat surface, chances are they've been mistreated. Keep them flat and steady by letting them cool a few minutes before soaking. When hot pans are dunked or filled with cool water, they may warp from the rapid change in temperature.

Father-To-Be Had Better Make Sure House Is Ready

"My friends think I should be worried," writes a father-to-be, "because we'll have our first baby soon. Why should I worry? My wife is intelligent, strong and healthy. We have a good doctor. Our baby is due in two weeks. I expect life to go on without much change after it arrives. The baby doesn't upset me. Am I wrong?"

Yes, you are wrong. Your courage exceeds your judgment. A baby will make a great difference in your life. Birth still is dangerous. Probably it will be the most wracking ordeal your wife will ever undergo. The odds are greatly in her favor. But it won't be easy. You'll understand when the time comes.

Are things ready at home? Do you have your bassinet? Also a bathinet? Do you have dozens of diapers? Many little shirts? Soft, comfy blankets? And bottles and nipples, and cotton pads, and all the rest? Is the baby's room properly heated and ventilated? Finish your preparations quickly. The baby might come at any time.

When it does arrive, help care for it. Do your share of diaper changing, weighing, holding and cuddling. Do more than your share of your housework. Your wife will be tired. She'll be overworked. It may take months for her to recover her strength. If you love her, help her. She'll be eternally grateful.

As you help with your baby your paternal instincts will come to life. You have such instincts, you know. Suddenly you'll realize that you have a wonderful new reason for living. You'll feel your baby is the greatest baby ever born. You'll be happier than you think possible.

East German Workers Strengthen Berlin Wall

BERLIN (AP) — Working through the night under floodlights, 2,500 East German workers narrowed the seven crossing points between West and East Berlin today and strengthened the adjacent sections of the Berlin wall with more concrete.

The U. S. command rushed up a platoon of 30 battle-dressed infantrymen as a show of force at the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint in the American sector, the crossing designated by the Communists for Allied personnel and other foreigners.

With a bazooka and two machine guns set up behind sandbags, the American soldiers faced several hundred men of the East German people's army, also in battle dress with machine guns. The British incresed their patrol on their short stretch of border near the Brandenburg Gate, and French officers were reported observing the activity along the border of their sector.

The formidable new walls were about seven feet high and five feet thick. Tank barriers of steel hedgehogs were cemented into the ground.

Only small passages for traffic, about eight feet wide for vehicles and two to three feet for pedestrians, were left open.

The East Germans said they were strengthening the wall to protect East Berlin from any ill-advised Western action. The Interior Ministry added that it was East Germany's reply to U. S. troop movements on the 100-mile autobahn linking West Berlin with the free world.

Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, the U. S. commandant in West Berlin, rushed a written protest to his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev.

Watson called the new East German action an illegal violation of the four-power occupation agreements on Berlin and demanded Soviet assurances that there would be no interference with Allied and civilian traffic between the U. S. sector and East Berlin.

Walker Says He'll Go It Alone

"I will not be affiliated with anyone in particular," he declared yesterday when asked whether he would carry out his programs through such organizations as the John Birch Society.

"I intend to be myself and stay unassociated with any organization or any individual except the necessary personal staff to carry on my correspondence and my assistance in my program and objective. I am not going to be a principal spokesman for anyone but Edwin A. Walker."

Walker quit the Army last month following removal from his command of the 24th Division in Germany last May. It came after an investigation of complaints about an information program he sponsored among his troops.

An Army investigation cleared Walker of accusations that his troop training course was patterned on literature of the John Birch Society. The report said, however, that Walker was a society member.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Laos Accord Concluded In Geneva

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers and the Soviet Bloc concluded a far-reaching agreement today on how to maintain the peace and neutrality of Laos.

The six-point agreement was adopted at a closed session of the 14-nation Laos peace conference. It will become operative when the neutrality treaty now being drafted by the conference is completed.

STEP FORWARD

Some important obstacles remain to be overcome, particularly the integration of the hostile Laotian military forces. But today's agreement marked the most substantial step forward yet taken by the conference and was hailed by Western and Communist delegates alike.

The agreement names Britain and the Soviet Union as joint, permanent guardians of Laotian neutrality.

The British and Soviet delegates are the co-chairmen of the 6½-month-old conference. Under the new agreement, their governments are to consult each other and decide what action to take whenever the peace or neutrality of Laos is threatened.

VETO POWER

The agreement also gives the Soviet bloc a veto over all major decisions of the three-nation control commission for Laos. The commission, made up of Canada, India and Poland, is to supervise observance of the cease-fire and Laotian neutrality.

The agreement stipulates that formal recommendations of the commission can only be made by unanimous vote, but situation reports and other minor decisions can be approved by majority votes.

Kennedy Idea On Autobahn Ripped

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia says President John F. Kennedy's suggestion that the autobahn linking Berlin and West Germany be placed under international control seems to be a "big stick" policy. It told him to forget the idea because it is "doomed to failure."

The Kremlin organ chided the president for what it called a "cock and bull" charge that the Soviet Union is out to communize the world.

Commenting on the interview Kennedy gave Izvestia editor Alexei Adzhubei, the paper said the president put forward "quite a few reasonable ideas"—but these were not among them.

Izvestia upheld the "sacred right" of the East German Communist regime to regulate ground, river and air traffic within its territory and declared: "No state which prizes its sovereignty has ever allowed the establishment of international control over its roads."

The newspaper's 4,000-word commentary yesterday charged Kennedy's plan was an attempt to help West German "revenge seekers" to get control of East Germany's communications.

The autobahn—a superhighway cutting across 110 miles of Communist territory—is the only road route the Western Allies have to Berlin and they have insisted on their right.

Soviet guards man checkpoints on the road under the four-power occupation agreement.

Republicans Ready To Tear Into Brown

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SANTA MARIA (AP)—Preview of the 1962 California election campaign:

Republicans, swept out of most offices in 1958, are going to hit hard at Gov. Edmund G. Brown's spending and tax policies, the rising cost of social welfare, crime and Brown's stand on capital punishment.

Democrats will tell you that state government is soundly managed, the business climate is good and no new taxes will be required.

Richard M. Nixon set the tone in a speech Saturday night highlighting a three-day meeting of California Republican Assembly directors. He played on the theme of "bungling bureaucracy" in charting his campaign for governor.

"California," he said, "faces fiscal chaos."

The CPA board followed up with resolutions which, among other things, called for "a prompt return to conservative, constitutional Republican state government."

"The Brown administration," said leaders of the 12,000-member GOP organization, "has driven California down the road to the destination of a welfare state."

A spokesman for the Democratic governor pooh-poohed Nixon's "fiscal chaos" warning as "the phony come-on spiel of a veteran political pitchman."

Hale Champion, Brown's finance director, said in a statement:

"Mr. Nixon's ignorance of the California fiscal situation is shocking if true and appalling if pretended."

There was no reply to Nixon's challenge to Brown for a debate on what he termed the sorry record of the Democratic administration.

The former vice president listed California as "'first in crime, first in high taxes, and first in bungling bureaucracy." He called for a drastic overhaul of the state government.

"We need first-rate government for what will soon be the first state in the union," he said. "The second-raters, from Governor Brown down, must be retired from jobs which are too big for them to handle."

Nixon charged that Browns's tax policies are driving new business away from California. He scoffed at the governor's reorganization program, saying "nothing is trimmed, nothing is saved" and it "piles chaos on top of confusion."

Nixon blamed Brown and Democratic Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk for what he called a skyrocketing of crime in California. He reiterated his support of capital punishment. Brown favors repeal of the death penalty.

Dominican Unity Talks Bog Down

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Government and opposition representatives reopened negotiations yesterday on a unity government to end the island nation's political crisis but an opposition leader said the talks "have not advanced at all."

A general strike backing demands of the National Civic Union—the largest opposition group—that President Joaquin Balaguer quit in favor of a provisional junta government entered its seventh day.

Viriato A. Fiallo, head of the civic union, cabled the Organization of American States in Washington asking the "urgent presence" of an OAS observation team because of the "extremely grave" political situation.

"A vacuum in the civil power threatens the installation of supreme military power with liquidation of all vestiges of democracy," Fiallo said.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Vote In Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (UPI)—Nearly final results showed today that conservative pro-Western candidates won a heavy majority in the first national elections here since Syria broke away from the United Arab Republic two months ago.

Elected conservatives outnumbered leftwing socialists more than 3-1. There were 1,876 candidates contesting 172 seats in the unicameral national assembly.

The official results on the balloting for a simple, eight-clause provisional constitution have not been announced, but local newspapers said only 1 per cent opposed it. Ratification, in effect, would legalize Syria's break from the UAR.

Tshombe Warning

PARIS (UPI)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe today described as an "intolerable provocation" the new call of U.N. Secretary-general Thant for restoration of order in Katanga.

Tshombe, who arrived from Brazzaville last night, issued the statement to newsmen this morning.

He also announced he would go on to Rio De Janeiro for a moral re-armament meeting.

Tshombe said the Katanga people considered themselves a free nation and would fight back and the "heavy responsibilities" of the conflict would rest with the U.N. secretary-general.

Threat In Katanga

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (UPI)—The Katanga government today threatened to shoot down any United Nations aircraft flying over its territory, the UN reported.

A few hours earlier, Katanga gendarmes killed one Swede of the U.N. force, wounded two others and seized three prisoners in Elisabethville's worst day of violence since the widespread fighting in September.

George Ivan Smith, top U.N. official here, said Katangese Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba issued the threat to the planes shortly after midnight.

Smith said he told Kimba he took a "most serious view" of the matter and would report it to U.N. headquarters in New York immediately.

Riots In Algiers

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — A mob of 2,000 Europeans rioted through the streets of Constantine today, burning cars, hurling Molotov cocktails, smashing store windows and attacking Moslem passersby.

Two Moslems were injured when their car was set afire.

The rampaging Europeans carried banners and flags of the extremist Secret Army Organization. A number of shots were exchanged.

Brown Calls For Special Election

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has called a special election for Feb. 13 to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sen. John J. Hollister, Jr., D-Goleta.

Four Die In Crash

EBERSHEIM, Germany (UPI) — A German Lufthansa Airlines Boeing 720-B plane on a training flight crashed into an open field here today, killing the four crewmen aboard.

Eyewitnesses said the victims' bodies were burned beyond recognition.

The witnesses said the plane suddenly swerved off course, flipped over on its right side and fell straight to the ground. The wreckage was scattered over a 200-yard area. The plane was burned out within 15 minutes.

Ebersheim is 15 miles south of Maniz and about 35 miles south of Frankfurt in West Germany.

Appeal From Women

LONDON (UPI) — A woman doctor said yesterday that mothers and grandmothers are asking her for drugs to kill their families painlessly in the event of nuclear war.

"These women are not hysterical or neurotic, but sensible logical people," Dr. Phyllis Dobbs wrote in a letter to the British Medical Journal. "They don't seem to be thinking of themselves. They are genuinely worried about their families being left to die after a nuclear conflict."

Dr. Dobbs said all of the women "ask for something that will kill quietly and painlessly. Of course, I have to refuse, but it is all too easy to be sympathetic towards them."

Program Canceled

NEW YORK (AP) — Several television affiliates of the American Broadcasting Co. canceled last night's episode in the network's "Bus Stop" series. The program, featuring singer Fabian in his TV dramatic debut, involved a teenaged killer.

The network described the program as "strong, meaty drama." A network spokesman declined comment on a report that the sponsor had withdrawn.

Station WSIX-TV in Nashville, Tenn. said the program was "possibly not suited for family entertainment on Sunday night."

Peter Pan Chapter To Hear CHS Director Of Volunteers

Mrs. Frances Hickey of Oakland, northern director of volunteers for the Children's Home Society, will be the speaker for the Peter Pan Chapter at its annual Christmas party to be at 8 p.m. Thursday evening in the Loch Lommond home of Mrs. Ralph H. Bernhardt.

Mrs. Hickey attended University of California at Los Angeles, majoring in art. Although most of her life has been devoted to work for children, her art training has provided her with interesting hobbies. In 1947, she became a member of Bambi Chapter, one of the first three chapters of Children's Home Society. Because of her work as a volunteer, she was made a member of the state board of directors in 1950.

In 1952, she became director of chapters in Northern California. At that time Children's Home Society had 22 supporting chapters. Under Mrs. Hickey's leadership, during her 9 years of service to the agency, she has increased the chapters from 22 to 92 in Northern California.

Mrs. Hickey supervises the work of the chapters in Northern California as well as the Volunteer Directors in Central Valley District and Northern District. She has been invited by the states of Oregon and Washington to assist in similar development.

The executive board of Peter Pan Chapter has extended an invitation to all active and associate members to join them to hear Mrs. Hickey tell the "Story of Adoption."

High School Girls Compete Course On Handicapped Care

Fifteen more Marin high school girls will be added to the ranks of young adults in the county with special knowledge in caring for and working with handicapped children.

The girls will be graduated at 7:30 tonight in room 200 of Redwood High School from an eight-week course in caring for handicapped persons.

Dr. Mabel Whitehead, director of special education at San Francisco State College, will address the graduates. The girls, called Handicappers, have attended eight two-hour sessions led by a number of professional men and women. They will join the graduates of two preceding classes in Marin in forming a group of young people whom parents of handicapped children may employ. Among other things the girls serve as babysitters for the handicapped.

The Handicappers are sponsored by the San Anselmo Post No. 179 of the American Legion. Ray Greenberg, chairman of the post's child welfare group, will present the diplomas to the graduates.

They are: Jean Vanderhoof, Carolyn Zeiss, Judy Skov, Dodie Baruh and Diana Vanderhoof of Redwood High School; Jean Barber and Judy Benjamin of Terra Linda High School; Kacy Lem, Bonni Trayner and Jackie Thornson of Tamalpais High School; Lynne Craig and Sandra Lunning of Sir Francis Drake High School; Dyane Morris and Susan Burger of San Rafael High School; and Mari Sogayar, an exchange student at Redwood.

Barbara Kilian of Larkspur, a special education major and a graduate of the Handicappers course, will teach the fall course.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, Dec. 4, the 338th day of the year with 27 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1783, George Washington said good-bye to his officers at a New York tavern shortly before he resigned his commission as commander-in-chief of the Continental Army.

In 1918, President Woodrow Wilson sailed for France to attend the peace conference at Versalles.

In 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered the liquidation of the Works Progress Administration (WPA), created in 1935 to provide work projects for the unemployed.

In 1946, the United Mine Workers were fined 3.5 million dollars and their leader, John L. Lewis, $10,000, for refusing to call off a 17-day strike.

A thought for today: George Washington said: "There can be no greater error than to expect or calculate upon real favors from nation to nation."

THEY'LL BE ON AIR ELECTION NIGHT — Bruce Coleman (left) who heads the Independent-Journal's Southern Marin news coverage, and Hugh Turner, general manager of radio KTIM, do a little warmup for job they'll have tomorrow night keeping Marinites informed over KTIM-FM of latest returns in recall election. Tabulating machine between them is one of those that will be used to "keep score." (Independent-Journal photo)

I-J, KTIM Will Give Details On Election

The Independent-Journal and radio KTIM-FM will offer up-to-the minute coverage tomorrow night of returns from the recall election in Supervisorial District 3.

Election return headquarters will be in the I-J's Mill Valley office at 23 Corte Madera Avenue. Heading a special staff to gather and tabulate returns will be Bruce Coleman, I-J Southern Marin reporter, and Hugh Turner, KTIM general manager.

Other workers will be on hand at the Independent-Journal office in San Rafael, in close touch with the county courthouse where returns will be received at the county clerk's office. The I-J's leased wire between Mill Valley and San Rafael will enable correlation of returns gathered at both points.

KTIM-FM (100.9) will be served by a special direct line from Mill Valley. Regular programs will be interrupted with flashes on the recall vote count, said Turner.

Persons wishing information by telephone may call either the I-J's Southern Marin office (DU 8-2351) or its main office (GL 4-2975) after 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Southern Marin Election Tomorrow

lacks former political experience. (Blair served one term as city councilman in Mill Valley.)

Formal start of the recall movement dates from last July 15 when a group of 12 meeting in Mill Valley formed a "Recall Blair Committee" under chairmanship of Franklin J. McClain of Mill Valley. The committee got more than the requisite 2,473 signatures on recall petitions but encountered much vexation in affixing polling places due to the fact that the county clerk made sweeping changes at this time.

Behr, who had previously said he would be a candidate if the recall petitions succeeded, formally announced his candidacy Sept. 27 and qualified as a candidate after filing petitions with 1,024 names Oct. 20. The law required no fewer than 877 and no more than 1,052.

Neither Behr nor the recall committee at any time reflected on Blair's integrity but charged that he had not been responsive to the voters' wishes, a legal ground for recall action. They also said he served special privilege.

Blair, elected on an economy platform, has said that he has sincerely sought to carry out his campaign pledges. His participation in a stop-work order at the civic center, one of the major points of record raised against him, has been termed consistent because of a chance that the partly constructed administration building seemed a possibility for conversion into a county hospital.

Argument on the record has even extended to Blair opposition to a 53,000-acre national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula which isn't in Blair's district but that of Supervisor George Ludy. Behr favors the big park.

A J. Walter Blair Committee under chairmanship of John Grant has said the recall is not supported either by southern Marin businessmen or by the mass of union labor. Recall backers have especially stressed homeowner resentment against Blair backing of apartments.

Boy Critical After Falling From Bicycle

Thomas Brown, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Brown of Mill Valley, was in critical condition at Marin General Hospital with head injuries suffered when he fell from his bicycle Saturday afternoon.

The youngster, police said, rode down steep Kipling Drive onto Shelley Drive, was thrown from his bike, and fell between 25 and 30 feet down an embankment, striking his head against a picket fence. The accident happened at about 3:10 p.m.

The Browns live at 166 Kipling Drive.

Mill Valley Planners

The Mill Valley Planning Commission will hold a "clean-up" meeting on its proposed master plan tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the city hall, planning commissioner Robert Cornish said today. Residential densities and recreational sites will be discussed, and persons are invited to bring up anything in relation to previous master plan hearings, the consultant said.

McCARTHY WON'T REVEAL NAMES

Marin Senator Considers Incident Closed As Demand Comes For Democratic Leader

The Southern California Democratic chairman has challenged Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy to identify the persons who offered him financial support to run for controller to get him out of the lieutenant governor's race.

But McCarthy refuses.

"As far as I am concerned," he declared, "the entire incident is closed. I was asked a question in a press conference and I answered it. The question was, had anyone ever suggested I run for another office? I said they had. I told the newsmen that during the session two men suggested I not seek the lieutenant governorship. About two and a half months ago two others spoke to me on the same subject. They suggested that if I ran for some other job I would have an 'adequately financed' campaign. No amount of money was indicated.

"I said no," McCarthy went on, "that I was going to continue to run for lieutenant governor. As far as I'm concerned, that's the end of it. I'm not going to name names."

In Palm Springs, however, Eugene L. Wyman, the Southern California Democratic chairman, said McCarthy should name names.

The Marin senator's statement gives "corroborative weight," he said, to former Gov. Goodwin Knight's accusation that an emissary of Richard M. Nixon tried to get Knight out of the GOP gubernatorial primary.

"Both deals are cut from the same cloth," Wyman said. "Both of them obviously originated with the GOP kingmakers who are trying to put together a Nixon-Christopher ticket, buy off the opposition, and elect their puppets to the state's two highest offices—governor and lieutenant-governor.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

It's Good To Know Theory, Better To Know Opponent

You can't learn to make sacrifice bids at the right time by reading about them. That will teach you the theory, but in practice, you also have to know something about your opponents.

In theory, East should bid five spades as a sacrifice. He is down only one trick at that contract, so it costs only 200 points. This is a small price to pay, since South has a cold game at clubs, worth 600 points.

The sacrifice may even produce a profit. Conceivably, South or North may go on to six clubs, and that contract can be defeated.

As it happened, East didn't take the sacrifice. He knew that South was a bad player. If there was a way to go down at five clubs, South would find it. And so it turned out.

PLAYS QUICKLY! South ruffed the second spade, drew trumps with the ace and king, and then started the diamonds. It went just about as quickly as that, but South slowed up when East discarded on the second round of diamonds.

South couldn't get to his hand with a trump, for dummy's jack blocked the suit. He had to continue with a third diamond and a diamond ruff. Now he put dummy in with a trump to discard on the last diamond, but he had to lose two heart tricks. Down one.

A good player would make the contract by dropping dummy's jack of clubs on the second round of trumps. On discovering the bad diamond break, declarer would lead dummy's low trump to the nine and take a diamond finesse. He would discard two hearts on dummy's good diamonds, making the contract.

As you can see, there's no advantage in sacrificing against an opponent who will fall over his own shadow if you give him the chance.

Answer: Bid four spades. This bid normally shows slightly greater strength in high cards, but your weird distribution makes up for your weakness.

Government, Business Bliss Needed

NEW YORK (AP) — Business and government should be, can be, and must be friends if the goals of each are to be reached. And the chances of their working together are good, in the view of the chief of the nation's biggest nonfinancial business, if each will take a realistic approach to mutual problems.

This is how Frederick R. Kappel, board chairman of American Telephone and Telegraph, sizes up the question fretting many businessmen today:

Is the present administration antibusiness as has been widely charged, or is it at heart far from being antibusiness as President John F. Kennedy is taking pains of late to emphasize?

Businessmen's fears that the administration was set on giving them a rough time center on the rush of antitrust suits, price fixing charges, antimerger moves, and what some have called a bias against bigness itself where business is concerned.

But Kappel told the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco: "President Kennedy has taken pains to emphasize that he and his administration are not antibusiness. The force and sincerity of this position seem perfectly clear to me, for as the president has also brought out, the government is dependent on business progress for the realization of national objectives."

The head of a company with around 28 billion dollars in assets, more than two million shareholders, and net income last year of 1.2 billion dollars lists these goals as "Greater industrial production; an increase in business spending for plant and equipment; higher employment and a reduction in the rate of unemployment; and a higher over-al level of personal income."

Among the problems are: the wage-price spiral, increasingly aggressive and effective foreign competition in both domestic and world markets, and a system of taxation "which now hampers vigorous personal and corporate performance."

The business leader has some tips for the president on how the relations between government and business can be improved. One is consistency in government policy.

"If you cannot tell what is coming next, from what agency or from what government authority, you cannot even guess what your first step should be, let alone the next one," Kappel says.

He also wants the administration to give thought to the profit squeeze of which perhaps a majority of businessmen complain today. He blames the lowering of profit margins on rising operating costs, high taxes, and "inadequate depreciation allowances."

And he links profits to the goals of growth and employment. It goes this way: "One of our hopes for 1962 is for substantial increase in business spending for plant and equipment. Always in the past, this has been a vital factor in stimulating employment. But also, it has always depended heavily on profits, and the pick-up in profits has usually come first."

Yule Lighting Judging Slated

A Christmas lighting contest for residents of Loch Lomond and boats docked at the McCarthy Loch Lomond Marina will be judged Wednesday night, with $100 awarded for the most decoratively lighted home and $50 boat rental allowance for the most distinctively decorated boat.

Judges will be Chapin A. Day, associate editor of the Independent-Journal, and Thomas F. Collison, publisher of the Mill Valley Record.

The contest is in connection with a holiday tour of several Loch Lomond homes and yachts to be held next Saturday from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. to benefit a Maryknoll Mission in Africa.

The tour will feature carols by the schola choir of St. Raphael's School and a Christmas cocktail party at Peacock Gap Country Club. Tickets for the tour may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Bruce B. Bales or Mrs. John Curtin.

New Work Being Done On Viruses

NEW YORK (UPI) — Experiments with a deadly virus disease of rabbits indicate medical science may have given up too soon on the idea of treating deadly virus disease in human beings with "G. G."

G. G. stands for gamma globulin which is a fraction of the blood rich in antibiotics. G. G. from the blood of a person recently recovered from a virus disease is rich in antibiotics against that disease.

You might think G. G. taken from such a person and put into the blood of a person sick of the disease should do at least some good. But the current verdict of medical science, generally speaking, is that it doesn't.

Three English scientists are appealing for a new trial on the ground that it would lead to a new verdict. Their justification for appeal were some dramatic experiments with the viruses of rabbit pox.

This to the rabbit approximates what small pox is to man — it is extremely virulent disease with a high mortality rate. The scientists took blood from rabbits which had recovered from it.

Into other rabbits they injected viruses in quantities calculated to be fatal to 80 per cent of them. They waited for the characteristic symptoms of the disease to develop and then injected the "convalescent serum" from the rabbits who had recovered from it.

Although the disease process had started — and was in "full bloom," as some medical scientists say — the borrowed G. G. arrested it in its tracks, in many cases. The scientists found that as late as the third day of high fever, the borrowed G. G. could save rabbit lives.

Many medical scientists have given up on this treatment for virus-ridden human beings because it has never seemed to work very well and because it is assumed on theoretical grounds that once viruses start multiplying in the tissues of their "host," they are beyond the reach of borrowed antibodies.

The English scientists, E. A. Boulter, J. C. N. Westwood and H. B. Maber, agreed with the theoretic premise of Rivers and others that borrowed G. G. does not get into contact with multiplying viruses once the disease process is under way.

But contact isn't necessary, they said in reporting to the technical journal The Lancet. Viruses multiplying inside cells are unreachable but the borrowed G. G. seems to interfere with the spread of the viruses to new cells — at least it does in rabbits infected with rabbit pox viruses.

Something Is Wrong Here —Could It Be The Ghosts?

MENA, Ark. (AP)—It's going to take more than ghosts to run farmer C. E. Shinn off the land he has occupied for 46 years.

Shinn, 72, his wife, 70, and their grandson moved out of their five-room house Saturday night for a rest after the antics of a mischevous "ghost" left them sleepless.

But they moved back in yesterday, and Shinn said he was going to stay.

"We just don't believe in ghosts," he said resolutely. "When something is done, humans have to do it."

For more than a year, something has been harassing the Shinns in their house three miles west of this west Arkansas town. They say that the family Bible floats through the living room, furniture is suddenly overturned. Chairs fly from the kitchen into the living room. Two figurines were smashed against the back of Shinn's head.

Charles Elbert Shaeffer, 15, the grandson who lives with the couple, says the cover has been jerked off his bed in the middle of the night.

Awakened one night by howling and hissing sounds, Shinn said, Mrs. Shinn asked whatever it was to be quiet. It didn't. Then she asked it to go to sleep.

"I don't sleep," came the reply, Shinn said.

"Will you let me sleep," Mrs. Shinn asked.

"You don't need to sleep either," was the answer.

Saturday night the Shinns went to stay with relatives and Sheriff Bruce Scoggins took three officers and four newsmen to spend the night in the house.

They neither saw nor heard anything out of the ordinary. The Shinns moved back in and the old farmer says he's there to stay.

Deputy Sheriff John Egger said: "There's no doubt queer things have been going on around here. I can't explain it. Of course, no one believes in ghosts."

Soviets Again Blame U.S. For A-Testing

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians tried again last night to put the blame on the West for continuance of nuclear weapon tests.

The Soviet government declared that unless the Western powers stop all nuclear weapons tests — including underground explosions that don't produce radioactive fallout—it will resume "such nuclear tests as it deems necessary for the consolidation of its defense capacity."

A few hours after the Moscow warning the United States announced it had set off a low-yield underground nuclear blast yesterday, and is preparing to go ahead with another test next Sunday.

"Our announced policy is to test and talk," a State Department spokesman said in Washington.

The Russians, who broke a three-year moratorium on nuclear testing Sept. 1 for a series of big to gigantic nuclear explosions in the atmosphere, said the time has come now "for the early achievement of an agreement which would rid the peoples of experimental weapon blasts."

"What are the Western powers striving for?" asked the statement. "To end nuclear tests throughout the world or to continue their pursuit for an illusory superiority in nuclear weapons."

The Soviet call for an end to testing made no mention of supervising any new moratorium as demanded by the Western powers.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, distributed the Soviet statement. It said it was issued in connection with last week's resumption of the Geneva test ban talks.

The Geneva talks are hopelessly deadlocked as a result of a new Soviet refusal to admit any inspectors of a test ban to Soviet territory and the West's rejection of the Soviet demand for an unsupervised test moratorium.

Kenya Student Is Jailed On Assault Charge

Moses Jonothan Nyagah of 9 Redwood Drive in Ross was discovered by sheriff's deputies in a parked car with the girl on the college campus in Kentfield. The girl, deputies said, waved frantically when they approached the car during a routine check at about 2 a.m.

"I've been trying to get out of this car for more than an hour," they reported her as saying.

She said she had not been assaulted, but that the man had attempted to force advances against her will.

Officers said a search of the car revealed "two small white pills" on the floor boards. They were impounded as evidence.

Nyagah posted $1,050 bail and was ordered to appear in Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday. Immigration authorities would be notified, officers said.

Marin Artist Show Slated At Museum

A William Keith painting which hangs in the College of Marin library, priced at one time at $50,000, will be included in a Keith art showing in San Francisco.

The showing will be in the M. H. De Young Museum until Christmas Day. The showing is in tribute to the artist who died in 1911.

The price tag was placed on the oil painting by the late Mrs. Mary Harmon, who lived in Belvedere, daughter of Keith, during the 1915 Panama Pacific Fair. Mrs. Harmon donated the painting and six others by Keith to the college in 1946 after not receiving satisfactory offers for the sale of the works.

Keith did much of his work in Marin County during the late 1800s. The painting priced at $50,000, "Symphony of Peace," portrays Lagunitas Creek. The value of the painting came to light in a letter from Brother Cornelius of St. Mary's College requesting the use of the work in the San Francisco show.

The painting, which measures 40 inches high and 60 inches wide, has also been shown in the Keith Gallery at St. Mary's College and the Oakland Art Museum.

Keith painted about 4,000 works. Half of these were destroyed in the 1906 San Francisco fire and earthquake. "Symphony of Peace" will be returned to the college after showing.

Marin Teen Band To Be On TV Show

Most of the members are juniors at San Rafael Military Academy. They are Gordon Linden, sax and leader; David Blaine, guitar; Bob Lesione, drums; Jerry Jennings and Ed McCauley, singers, all of the academy; and Jim Mugford, piano, Sir Francis Drake High School, and Mike White, guitar, and Richard Lyman, bass, both of Piedmont.

SAVED BY THE CLOCK? NO, HE WINS IT

G. W. Robertson (left) holds hand of piano tuner Walter E. Rowell aloft in gesture of victory as he presents him with eight-day clock inscribed: "For distinguished service above and beyond the call of duty to the community of Mill Valley. Presented by his grateful fellow citizens, Dec. 4, 1961, Walter E. Rowell, Mill Valley." The clock was purchased with quarters contributed to a fund at the Mill Valley Greyhound bus depot to buy a "hero medal" for 72-year-old Rowell, who last Wednesday struck the first blow in what was reportedly a two-punch fight with Thomas F. Collison, editor-publisher of the Mill Valley Record, because of Collison's editorial attack on the health of Peter H. Behr, candidate for county supervisor in tomorrow's election. The presentation was made today at Rowell's home. (Independent-Journal photo)

Planners Postpone Open-Zone Action

Marin County Planning Commissioners today postponed action on amending the zoning ordinance to include an "open area" zoning after almost denying the addition.

A provision was added to the proposed change to add a "consent" clause, specifying that all owners of property under joint ownership would have to consent to zoning an area as open area.

Commissioner George Scott moved to adopt the new change in the zoning ordinance with the "consent" clause but could not get a second. Commissioner Felix M. Warburg then moved to accept the zoning change without the added clause but after second by John S. Switzer, the motion failed, 3-2. Absent was commission chairman William Upton.

Warburg suggested the vote should wait until all six commissioners were present. The planners then decided to bring up the matter at their next meeting on Dec. 18.

The commission also continued discussion of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad waterfront in Tiburon for public use rather than commercial development until Jan. 8. This is the request which prompted the commission consideration of changing the present zoning ordinance to include an open area district zoning.

President Studying Budget Prior To Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy conferred with his budget director on the fiscal 1963 budget today before embarking on a week of speechmaking and appearances in New York and Miami.

The president met at the White House with budget director David E. Bell shortly after returning by helicopter from a weekend with his family at their Middleburg, Va., estate. He goes to New York City tomorrow and to Florida Wednesday.

The president hopes to whip the budget into final shape within the next two weeks. But still to come are final decisions in such major spending areas as space, defense and foreign aid. The budget conferences will be resumed after Kennedy returns to the White House Friday.

Both the president and Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon have pledged to balance the budget which will be sent to congress next month for the fiscal year starting July 1. This would contrast with the deficit of at least seven billion dollars expected this year.

As now contemplated, the 1963 budget would call for a surplus of a few hundred million dollars, a slim margin that could be wiped out easily by any unforseen developments before July 1, 1963.

Spending for the coming fiscal year is estimated at more than 91 billion dollars, compared to this year's peacetime high of 89 billion dollars, give or take several hundred million.

Kennedy was scheduled to leave tomorrow afternoon for New York to attend the national football hall of fame dinner at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel tomorrow night.

After spending the night at the Carlyle Hotel, he will deliver a major address on foreign trade policy to the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

After the NAM luncheon the president will fly by jet to Palm Beach, spending the night there and continuing by helicopter Thursday to Miami where he will address a national meeting of young Democrats during the morning.

Continuances Given In Dope Case

Three women and five San Quentin Prison inmates received continuances in Marin Superior Court today on charges of conspiring to smuggle heroin, marijuana and peyote into prison.

Mrs. Pauline Herrera, 31, of Los Angeles, charged with being the chief source of about $18,000 in heroin slipped into the prison, pleaded innocent and Judge Richard M. Sims set Dec. 18 to set trial.

Marie Frances Hall, 47, of Hayward, mother of one of the convicts, was given to Dec. 18 to plead. Anne Marie Kellam, 25, of Oakland, was given to Dec. 11 for arraignment.

Thomas Devers, 24, Mrs. Hall's son, convicted of receiving stolen goods, Richard Rodriguez, 34, Los Angeles burglar, and Robert T. Ballentine Jr., 34, Santa Clara murderer, were referred to Public Defender Peter Allen Smith, who received a continuance in their arraignment to Dec. 18 to study the grand jury transcript.

Clark McKeown, 29, San Francisco robber, and Benjamin Gonzales, 28, Los Angeles narcotics salesman, had their arraignment continued to Dec 18 to obtain counsel.

The grand jury indicted the five last Thursday night.

Tenant Moved Out, Furniture Went, Too

Someone converted the house he owns at 91 Iolanthus, Black Point, into an unfurnished home, Robert Ross Talley of 604 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, complained to the sheriff's office yesterday.

He said when he went to check up on the house after a tenant moved out, he found $1,000 worth of furniture was gone.

Thief Gets $250 From Blair Laundromat

Sausalito police sought a burglar today who stole $250 in cash from county Supervisor J. Walter Blair's Hurricane Gulch laundromat at 203 Second Street sometime over the weekend.

The money, missing this morning, was in bills and change, Police Chief Howard Goerndt said.

Illness Delays Burglary Case

Because of illness of defense attorney Berwyn M. Rice, plea of suspended San Rafael Policeman Arthur M. Newman, 34, to charges of conspiracy, burglary and robbery today was continued yet again in Marin Superior Court to Dec. 11.

Robert Harris Miller, 37, San Francisco refrigerator store employee, accused as an accomplice of Newman's, pleaded innocent and Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. set his trial for Jan. 16.

Robert W. Cory, 25, San Francisco truck driver, also charged with Newman, also will plead Monday. Third man accused as an accomplice, Fred W. Sullins, 21, former San Francisco night club bouncer, faces trial Jan. 3.

Interview Set

Charles B. Helbig, chairman of the disaster committee for the Marin chapter of Red Cross, will be interviewed on radio KTIM by Mrs. Kitty Oppenheimer during her program, "Meet A Marin Neighbor," at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

A Little Sickness Builds Up Immunity

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A little sickness is good for you.

This idea is not new, but only in the past few years has it been voiced with any authority by spokesmen of all the healing arts.

What do we mean by a "little sickness" and how can it be "good"? First, we have to face the fact that all of us get sick now and then. We know that nearly every child who leads a normal, healthy life will become exposed to colds and to one or more of the usual childhood diseases like chicken pox, measles and the mumps.

These ailments in most cases do more good than harm to the growing child . . . because they set up a protective immunity against the more serious diseases which may strike later in life. For instance, an attack of the measles, say at four years, could equip the body with sufficient natural defense to ward off a polio attack 10 or 12 years later. This type of natural immunity, tailored by nature to your needs, is preferable to the artificial immunizing agents that man has devised for mass innoculation.

Chiropractors favor natural immunity against disease. This type of protection plus regular chiropractic care of the nervous system —the master system—will ensure that disease is kept to a minimum of frequency and severity.

None of us can escape illness completely but when we do happen to become "off-colors," let's take the shortest road to recovery. Chiropractic care of the spine, when needed, will enhance your natural resistance and immunity by freeing your nervous system of block which drain your resistance to sickness.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C., practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201 (Adv.)

Recreation Area Permit Is Approved

A use permit for building an outdoor recreation area at the Northbridge Recreation Club in Santa Venetia was granted by the County Planning Commission.

The added facilities will be built between the present swimming pool and 164 Madison Avenue. The planning staff recommended the commission approve the request, which was done unanimously, 5-0. (Absent was Chairman William Upton.)

Among the conditions of the use permit were that the recreation area would be open only during the hours when the pool area is open, and additional parking facilities be added on the west side of Madison Avenue.

The commission continued until its next meeting on Dec. 18 consideration of amending the Tiburon master plan which would change the plan of the Ridge Route.

The initially proposed route was between a planned high school and the west boundary of the Marinero subdivision. The new route under construction will be along the north side of the ridge.

Child, 2, Eats Razor Blades

A 2-year-old San Rafael girl appeared none the worse today for adding razor blades to her diet.

Mrs. Richard Milne of 211 Picnic Avenue was startled yesterday to see her daughter, Robin, spit out particles of razor blades. She rushed the child to San Rafael General Hospital, where an x-ray disclosed five more such particles in the stomach.

An attending physician said the child would be kept under observation at home.

Youth Leaps From Gate Bridge, Lives

Working with Miller were Dr. Douglas E. Ramsey, Dr. Theodore D. Hiatt and Dr. Herbert C. Lee, all of San Rafael.

Kennedy was conscious during his removal from the beach to the hospital and reluctantly identified himself to California Highway Patrol Sgt. James J. Shanahan and Patrolman V. C. Weimar on his arrival at the hospital. "He begged us to let him die," Shanahan said.

"We heard him hit with an awful thud," said Patrolman Theodore McGuire, who, with Patrolman Angelino Corvino, came within inches of preventing the leap.

Kennedy alighted from an Oakland cab at the north end of the bridge about 4:15 a.m., telling the driver he was "going to meet friends." The driver, Ronald L. Kent of Oakland, became suspicious and sped back across the bridge to notify toll plaza authorities.

McGuire and Corvino arrived in time to see Kennedy running beside the rail toward San Francisco. They leaped from their patrol car only to see him jump into the blackness as they reached for him.

Assuming him to be dead, the officers radioed for the coroner. Reaching his broken body at about the same time were McGuire, Corvino, Shanahan, Weimer, members of the Sausalito fire and police departments, Coroner Frank J. Keaton and a Sausalito Ambulance crew.

Officers heard him groaning and calling, "Mother . . . Dad . . ."

Authorities said Kennedy lived with his widowed mother at 4202 Tomkins Avenue in Oakland. The youth was employed as a shipping clerk since his discharge from the Navy a year ago.

He reportedly left his home Saturday evening and attended a show with friends. He hailed a cab in Oakland shortly before 4 a.m., telling the driver to take him to the north end of the bridge.

At 8:35 a.m. yesterday, while the four specialists were fighting to save Kennedy's life, California Highway Patrolman Arthur Olson discovered a coat, notebook and wallet containing $40 belonging to James Henry Smithback, 25, of San Françisco, beside the bridge rail.

Smithback's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smithback of San Jose, and a brother, John Smithback of Oakland, said he had been under the care of a psychiatrist. His brother added that he had attempted to take his life with an overdose of sleeping pills about a year ago.

Smithback, employed as an usher at a San Francisco theater, was last seen at about 5 p.m. Saturday when he picked up his weekly paycheck. He was to have reported back to work at 6 p.m.

Recall Blair Paper Being Sent To Voters

Fifteen thousand copies of a four-page paper entitled, "Good Government Guide," were mailed to voters in the Third Supervisorial District last week by the Recall Blair Committee in Mill Valley.

The paper, in addition to giving editorial comment on the recall movement, lists on three of its pages the 3,100 signers of the recall petitions. The election to recall Supervisor J. Walter Blair, will be held in the Third Supervisorial District Tuesday.

Furnace Firm License On Council Agenda

The suspension of Holland Furnace Co.'s town business license will be taken up by the Corte Madera Town Council today at 7:30 p.m. at the town hall.

Final action was held over from the Nov. 20 meeting at request of Holland Furnace Co. attorney John F. Ward.

A proposed ordinance setting the speed limit of 25 miles per hour on Tamalpais Drive will also come before the council. Other items on the agenda include an agreement for engineering services of the Madera Park area by engineer Daniel Coleman and a report from town clerk Maydeen Penny on an intention to circulate an initiative petition by Corte Madera citizens for a swimming pool in the town park.

Windows Broken At West End School

Four 30-by-30-inch windows at the West End School in San Rafael were broken on Saturday, principal Harold V. Delma reported.

Police said indications were that youngsters had shot at the windows with B-B guns from the hill behind the school. The panes were valued at about $60.

SOUNDS IN FOGGY NIGHT WERE DEFENSE SIRENS

San Rafael residents in Sun Valley, the top of Tamal Vista, the Dominican area and the Bret Harte district made police phones jangle between midnight and 7 a.m. today to complain of civil defense sirens being sounded.

A check with the County Communications Center showed that work was being done on CD circuits and a general test of the sirens was conducted. Also, said the center, sirens tend to scream automatically when the weather is damp and foggy.

Hub Council Will Be Asked To Name Tree Committee

San Anselmo's City Council will be asked to reappoint a municipal tree committee, City Administrator Douglas Flautt said today.

This decision has been reached by Flautt and the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce as result of a meeting last week of Flautt and the chamber's board of directors.

Flautt said the tree committee was active when first named in 1958 but it gradually lost members as several moved away. He and the chamber directors decided the most constructive thing they could do toward shaping tree policy would be to restore the committee.

"What with just arranging for 10 more magnolias after arranging for 50 earlier," observed Flautt, "I wouldn't say there was much lacking now. Pretty soon we'll have trees coming out of our ears."

Naval Training

Marin Post Offices Offering Services

Post offices throughout Marin County will offer additional service beginning next weekend to accommodate Christmas mail, San Rafael Postmaster Warren H. Williams announced today.

Beginning Saturday post offices in Belvedere - Tiburon, Corte Madera, Fairfax, Hamilton Air Force Base, Kentfield, Larkspur, Mill Valley, Novato, Ross, Sausalito, San Anselmo and San Rafael will maintain the following hours:

Saturday — From 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Sunday, Dec. 10 — closed; Monday through Saturday, Dec. 11 through 16 — 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Sunday, Dec. 17 — From 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.; Monday through Thursday, Dec. 18 through 21 — From 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Friday, Dec. 22 — from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, Dec. 23 — From 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Postmaster Williams offered these helpful hints on how to mail Christmas cards and gifts to insure prompt and safe delivery before Dec. 25th:

Use 4c postage on your Christmas cards. Sent by First Class mail, they are sorted and delivered first, and if you include your return address on each envelope, they will be forwarded in the event of a change of address, or if they are undeliverable, they will be returned to you. Also, you can write a personal message on the Christmas cards sent by First Class mail; whereas, only your signature is authorized on cards sent at the 3c, unsealed third class rate.

Avoid careless packing of your gifts. Use strong cartons, wrap in heavy paper, and tie with sturdy cord. Mark packages containing breakable gifts, "Fragile" — "Handle With Care." Put an extra label carrying the recipients and senders name and address inside every package.

In conclusion, the Postmaster said, "By taking a little extra care with your Christmas mailings right now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones. The Post Office is fully prepared for the big Christmas mail rush, but through your cooperation in mailing early and often, as suggested by the National Improved Mail Service program, there'll be less danger of some Christmas cards and packages not being delivered before Christmas."

Mill Valley Agrees On Utility Polls

Agreement has been reached in Mill Valley by property owners, Pacific Gas and Electric Co., Pacific Telephone Co. and city officials over placement of utility poles on Miller Avenue between Camino Alto and Reed Street.

The poles are to be removed from the center parking strip, which is being developed, and placed between curb and sidewalk on the southbound side of Miller. The 11 poles are to be reduced to six and new street lighting is to be placed on the poles.

Variety Show Slated For Palsy Benefit

Rock 'n' roll music and "progressive" jazz will be heard at the "Best of '61" variety show scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Sir Francis Drake High School little theater, San Anselmo.

Proceeds will benefit United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

The show has been produced annually since 1955 with the exception of 1960, when its producer, Elizabeth Healey of San Anselmo, and its director, Phil Steinhart also of San Anselmo were away at college. Miss Healey produced a Midwestern version in Columbia, Mo., where she was attending Stevens College.

Master of ceremonies at the 1961 show will be Buck Herring and Ken Knox of radio station KEWB. Featured acts will include the Casuals, recording group; the Bell Hops of San Rafael Military Academy, the Doug Wahl Four of Drake High, the Ebb Tides of Terra Linda High, and the Chord Lords, formerly known as the Thunderbirds.

Also booked are Micheala, folk singer, and Temple and Company, "Illusionists".

Tickets are on sale at all Marin County high schools and will be available at the door on performance nights according to Miss Healey.

School Starts Fine Arts Unit

A fine arts commission has been started at Marin Catholic High School among senior girls, Sister Marian Leone announced today.

Objectives include a deeper appreciation of art forms and a sharing of art experiences, she said. Chairmen are Cathy Morphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morphy of 341 G Street, San Rafael, and Suzie Lyons, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Lyons of Box 98, Ross. Secretary is Vicki Ruggiero, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ruggiero of 50 Via La Cumbre, Greenbrae.

The commission plans a study of paintings lent by the Marin Artists' Assn. and reports by persons who attended the recent Marin Symphony concert and performances of the Leningrad Ballet and "The Miracle Worker."

Navy Training Unit

HERO RETIRES—Col. Leonard Engeman retired quietly from the Army at the Presidio in San Francisco last week. During World War II, Colonel Engeman's decision to move his 14th Tank Battalion across the Rhine probably hastened the defeat of Nazi Germany by two months. Engeman, now 55, will make his home in San Jose. (AP Wirephoto)

Presto Shows the new look in telephone numbers

All-numeral phone numbers come to Marin County

All listings in the April, 1962, Marin County telephone directory will have all-numeral phone numbers. Numerals are being substituted for letters in everyone's number. Since the numerals correspond to the same dial openings as the letters they replace, dialing itself will be unchanged.

The changeover to the new type of numbers is taking place gradually:

- Anyone getting telephone service in Marin County for the first time, moving to a new address, or getting a new phone number, is now being given an all-numeral number.
- New dial number plates have been mailed to most Marin County customers. Installers are calling on customers with five or more phones to change the number plates. Also, Information Operators have your all-numeral phone number. However, since no dialing change is involved, people will still reach you if they dial your number as listed in the present Marin County telephone directory.

These new phone numbers are part of a new nation-wide numbering system called All Number Calling. It's needed to keep ahead of America's growth. Twenty years ago there were less than 23 million phones in the U.S. Right now there are more than 74 million, and by 1975 there may be more than 160 million phones. This growth is rapidly exhausting letter combinations for usable prefix names.

By changing to an all-numeral system, enough numbers will be available to keep up with telephone growth in Marin County and the rest of the Nation.

FAREWELL FROM THE PATROL

Yuletide Safety Called For

The Marin County Assn. of Fire Chiefs today extended its best wishes for a merry and safe Christmas season to county residents and offered specific suggestions to help insure yuletide safety.

John C. Terris, association president and assistant Sausalito fire chief, said the fire chiefs recommend placing the Christmas tree well away from open fireplaces, curtains and hangings.

Flameproof the tree, wreaths and trimmings. Use metal, tinsel or glass ornaments and asbestos for trimming. Do not use cotton.

Use properly inspected electrical equipment. Do not leave tree lights burning when absent or asleep. Keep celluloid ornaments away from electrical light globes or open flames.

Do not use light candles on the tree or near it. Do not use wax, lacquer orotherflammable materials on tree or wreaths. Be more cautions than usual about smoking during the holidays. Remove the Christmas tree immediately at the end of the holiday season.

Some 17 species of penguin live in the southern half of the globe but only the emporer and the Adelie inhabit Antarctica.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Importance Of Recall Vote Demands Heavy Turnout

Tomorrow the voters of Southern Marin go to the polls in an unique Marin election, the recalling of a supervisor.

It is not a battle between two men, although obviously if one man is recalled, another will be substited in his place. The issue is simple:

Shall J. Walter Blair continue to serve the district as its supervisor? Answer Yes or No.

If the answer is no, Peter Behr, former Mill Valley councilman, will become supervisor because no one is running against him.

The answer to the question is of great importance to Blair, to Behr, to the Third Supervisorial District residents, and to all the rest of Marin County. For the latter, it is important because quite likely a new supervisor would result in a change in the majority thinking on the County Board of Supervisors, possibly a new chairman, and reoriented thinking on the part of numerous county employees.

It is especially important, therefore, that the voters of Southern Marin answer that big question en masse. It would be most unfortunate if, for example, only about 25 per cent of the voters turned out and Blair won, say by a 2,917 to 1,993 vote. Blair would, in such a case, be retained in office by fewer votes than were signed on the recall petition of 3,150 names.

It would be equally unsatisfactory if Behr defeated Blair by similar figures. Then Behr would be in the position of actually having lost some of the people who originally called for Blair's recall. He would have won the seat with only about one sixth of the voters' support.

Unfortunate, both sides have indulged in excesses in the campaign battle. We regret some of the incidents that took place. It is lamentable, it seems to us, that Blair did not make more personal appearances to take his own story to the people.

But for many weeks now, we have been carrying numerous articles and letters on both sides of the issue. We think the people of Southern Marin now have the information they need to make up their own minds.

Now the question is, will they brave the rain, cold, missed-television, and delay they might encounter in going to the polls to vote in large numbers? We think they will.

For everyone's sake, we hope so.

The Lullaby Of Rain

The oldest lullaby of all must have been the sound of pouring rain outside the cave as primitive man, his wife and children snuggled together under fur robes beside a dying fire.

Today, though the cave has become a tract house, the fur robes have turned into electric blankets, and the dying fire has become a thermostatically controlled furnace, there is still no more hypnotic lullaby than the music of rain outside the window.

Marin's rainy season has begun in earnest now. We can hear the rain outside. After all, we must work. (Yawn). Well, maybe we'd better get another cup of coffee.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

PUT LOVE WHERE THERE IS NO LOVE

Popular songs have been enlisted by Communist East Germany to subvert the minds and hearts of young people.

New and hate-filled lyrics have been given to familiar tunes. One example goes like this:

"Hatred! . . . Scream it into every home . . . Carry it into quiet streets . . . Teach the flowers to hate . . . take revenge."

If the enemies of God and humanity "run into the streets" with hatred, those who profess to follow Him had better hurry out and beat them there with love.

Carry it into the factory, into the office, into the home, the school, the meeting place, and into every other place where men come together.

If you do, you will be fulfilling the command of one spiritual writer who said: "Put love where there is no love, and you will find love."

With such a motivation you will penetrate everyone with a fire that warms but does not destroy.

"And do you therefore love strangers, because you also were strangers in the land of Egypt." (Deuteronomy 10:19)

Fill me with more daring and enthusiasm for Your cause, O Lord, than those who work against You do for theirs.

Young Executive Need Wife Who Will Live Like A Gypsy

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

One of the things a young, would-be executive needs most is a wife cheerfully willing to lead a semi-gypsy life. The average executive is moved 12 times by his firm before he finally settles down to that big swivel chair in the home office.

It's fun to buy records in a Swedish music shop. You not only get to listen to a record free—you can also dance with the sales girl.

If your feet get tired, so do your shoes. A 150-pound person with a three-foot stride who walks five miles a day at the end of a year has put a total of 120,450 tons of weight on his shoes. Incidentally you will probably buy 250 pairs of shoes in your lfetime.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Need A Bond Of Compassion

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Under date of Nov. 27 your esteemed paper published a letter signed F. P. Sherry, deploring the wanton killing of a rare and beautiful wild goose; also a slain deer by another trigger-happy human of the ilk that ruthlessly, deliberately destroys any defenseless creature that happens into view, than which nothing could be more cowardly.

I frequently hear the inane remark "animals have no souls." The ancestors of the fascinating animals with which California is favored, lived carefree and happily and made the world habitable for humans millions of years before souls were invented.

Will egotistical, self-worshipping humans never desist from their avarice long enough to develop some small degree of kindness and compassion for the little creatures around us? When humans desist from murdering their fellow-animals, they will stop killing their fellow-men.

Peace, for which the superstition saturated cults are clamoring and praying, could so easily become a reality if united in a bond of compassion.

More News On Square Dancers

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Saturday, Nov. 25, the magazine section carried a very fine article on square dancing, which I am sure was enjoyed by all dancers in the county.

I do have a question though. Searching the I-J for news regarding the square dance clubs I seem to not find one word regarding their activities, other than the listings under the "Marin County Events." Why isn't there any local news regarding these clubs?

There are a great number of us who cannot attend each of the local dances, which I am sure you should be able to understand. We miss a number of very nice dances because there isn't anything in the paper to indicate that a special dance is being held.

It would be very nice to be able to read the news regarding the square dance clubs once again. Would you be kind enough to permit our local clubs to once again use your paper to let the rest of us who cannot attend every square dance know what they have done and what they plan to do? . . . I am sure that you will find that we are actually more interested in reading about our local events instead of articles written by many a frustrated person regarding how to care for our husbands, and if we desire seat belts, we do not need articles to tell us so in each edition of the I-J.

Give us local news pertaining to Marin County.

WANDA WILLEY

(NOTE: The I-J attempts to list all regular dances of the square dancing clubs and to run stories on special events planned by the clubs when we learn of them in time.)

No Boat Ramp In County Park

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thought you might be interested in local reaction to the state plans to establish an outboard ramp in our County Park. We feel it is a pretty dirty trick, and trust the county will not go along with it.

Ray J. Nesbit, Coordinator,
State Wild Life Conservation Board,
Sacramento

This evening (11/28) I read in the San Rafael paper that your office is outlining a proposal to build boat facilities at the Marin County Beach Park, Tiburon.

I rooted for the establishment of this park. Some of my neighbors were sore as hell that I did so. The plans at that time did not include any outboard motor boat ramp.

This neighborhood of the park is a decent, quiet residential one. If properly used, the park will be an asset and we will be pleased to see it filled with Marin County people and strangers alike.

My neighbors and I definitely oppose any plan to turn this cove into a racketing, whooping outboard haven. Inclusion of a ramp in your plans is most unwelcome. We ask that it be excluded.

Where Does Book By Hoover Fit In?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

For once I find myself without an opinion and would like to ask the expert extremists, extreme extremists, and extreme anti-extremists, left, right and middle, amongst your readers, a question.

Where do they, or any of them, place J. Edgar Hoover and his book "Masters of Deceit" in their personal philosophical rainbow of extremism?

I would also invite the comment of any citizen who is weary of those who make proper nouns of common adjectives and political kingdoms and purgatories out of points of the four winds.

More Cameras, Less Killing

EDITOR,

Three cheers for Ian K. McDougall (11/28). The so-called sportsmen and happy hunters give me a pain.

Can't we have more cameras and less killings?

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Nothing can stop a Hoosier newspaperman. Pete Henderson recalls the night he was working on the Crawfordsville, Ind., Review when a report came over the wire that the Titanic had struck an iceberg on its maiden voyage and sunk. Henderson needed a picture in a hurry, but all he could find was a cut of an old Lake Erie side-wheeler. He never had seen an ocean liner himself and figured that most of his readers were similarly ignorant. So he used the old cut on Page 1 with the caption "The Ill-Fated Titanic." The next day he was looking for a new job.

A champion prize fighter, after an exhibition bout in Winnipeg, was shown a photograph of himself that had appeared the day previous in a San Francisco paper.

"How did they manage that?" demanded the pug. "I ain't been in San Francisco for years."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Some Like To Play At Politics, But Others Much Prefer Love

Love is a funny game, but politics funnier.

So much depends on the quirks, the foibles, the friends.

Mother Nature, for example, has played tricks on both camps. She washed the words off the revolving Blair sign near Marin City, leaving only the name of the previous sign—"Eat At Joe's" or something such as that.

IN A RANDOM poll we find that some firemen prefer Blair and some attorneys prefer Behr.

Sausalito Fireman Ralph K. Pedersen said "I'm for Blair. He's done a good job. He hasn't had a good chance to show his stuff because he's been pressured and heckled by hard losers."

An attorney from the Second Supervisorial District said: "The recall will have a profound effect on the Second District as well as the rest of the county. While I wouldn't dare to interject myself into politics of the Third District, nevertheless, it is my fervent wish that the recall succeed so that we can restore responsible government to all of Marin."

MUSICIAN AND baby-sitter Daisy Saville said she would not vote for Blair. Said she: "I'm against old people doing things. They get crotchety the older they get."

Mrs. Lynn Brockway, housewife, said: "I'm not a Blair fan, but I think it's incredible to pull this garbage. I'm voting for Blair on principle."

One man, who wished to remain anonymous, said he preferred Behr but that he would vote for Blair because he didn't like one of Behr's acquaintances.

You see how easy we humans can switch from one side to the other when it comes to politics. In love, you know, it's either "she loves me" or "she loves me not."

ACCORDING TO Jack O'Brien, an executive: "Blair ran as a member of an economy bloc. His experience in office to date has demonstrated that his concept of 'governmental economy' is not only false but extremely dangerous."

Said Sally Stanford, inn owner, who took no particular stand for a man but said she will vote: "Everybody should vote. If people aren't doing their duty and not acting for all of the people with the same zealousness, I think we should do something about it. We ought to have somebody who knows what he's doing."

WINDING UP our random poll, we talked with Juanita Musson, bistro owner who said bluntly regarding love and politics:

"Politics is a thankless job anyway you look at it." Then she added, "Give me love."

WALTER LIPPMANN

We Should Recall Our Tradition Of Isolation Before Rapping Neutrals

WASHINGTON — In his new appointment, Chester Bowles is to be advisor to the President about affairs in Latin America, Africa, and Asia. In effect, he will be concerned with the countries which are not within the Communist orbit and yet are not aligned with the anti-Communist alliances of which the most important is NATO.

Although almost all of these countries are called "underdeveloped," they are in fact in all stages of development. The differences among them are of compelling importance.

There are primitive African tribal communities and there are economically advanced, but not yet economically autonomous, countries such as India and Brazil. Many, like the Sudan, are devoting themselves almost entirely to domestic development. A few, like Ghana, are politically adventurous.

IN VIEWING the "nonalignment" of these new nations, it is well to remember our own tradition of isolation. All the Founding Fathers believed in it, and for a century it was the basis of our foreign policy.

It had two aspects: the United States was to stand apart from the quarrels of the Old World, and Europe was not to be allowed to interfere in the affairs of the New World. The original and classic exposition of our own isolation was made by George Washington in his Farewell Address:

"THE GREAT RULE of conduct for us in regard to foreign nations is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible . . . Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor, or caprice? . . . It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world, so far, I mean, as we are now at liberty to do it."

Ever since we emerged from our isolation and neutrality, we have found it difficult to know just what to think and how to feel about countries which are still isolated and still cling to their neutrality.

As a result, our opinion has in the main swung back and forth between two poles. At one pole there is the feeling that in the great conflicts of our time, first with Nazism and Fascism and now with Communism, to be neutral, unaligned, uncommitted, and unengaged is immoral.

AT THE OTHER pole there is the reaction against this view. It inclines to an excess of humility, and is disposed to accept President Tito's claim that he and his fellow-neutralists are "the conscience of the world."

Since the Belgrade conference and the inability of the neutrals to deal with the moral issues raised by the Soviet's nuclear explosions, American opinion has swung sharply towards the view that we should stop paying heed to neutralist opinion.

(TOMORROW: A general attitude about neutrals?)

Relief For 400,000

CHATTANOOGA (AP)—Federal bankruptcy referee Byron Pope recently granted judicial relief to 400,000 hungry baby chicks. A Chattanooga firm listed the chicks as "perishable assets" in a bankruptcy petition filed in U.S. District Court—and Pope appointed a temporary trustee to feed them.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Shape Your Affairs Now For Payment Of Revenue

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPAC

Taxes are the biggest bill you will ever pay. Therefore, you should shape your affairs to produce the lowest tax result, using every option permitted under the Internal Revenue Code.

Watch your earnings in December.

P. J. WIKEL

If you use the optional tax table you can earn up to fifty dollars with no additional tax or you can earn one dollar and have it cost you nine to ten dollars more tax.

Check your earnings and a tax table. For instance: If you earned $4,900, you can go ahead and earn $4,949.99 without paying more tax. If you earned $4,949.00 and you earn one more dollar it would take you to $4,950.00 and you've added ten dollars to your tax bill on a separate return or nine dollars on a joint return.

Now is a good time to check your income and deductions.

If you're going to itemize your deductions this year be sure and pay every deductible expense before the end of the year. That is: charitable contributions, interest, deductible taxes, medical expense, etc. Pay it so you can claim it on this year's tax return.

If you are going to use the standard deduction this year, don't pay any more deductible expenses. Wait and pay them in 1962 because in 1962 you might be able to itemize your deductions to greater advantage than taking the standard deduction.

Here's A Guided Tour Of Construction At Hospital

Anyone driving by the Marin General Hospital on Bon Air Road these days cannot help but see some of the structural work in progress on the new additions but the view is too restricted to do it justice. From that angle it's something like trying to estimate the size of an iceberg from the part that protrudes out of the water.

Actually the new 116-bed, five-level east wing, the west addition with its kitchen, cafeteria and enlarged facilities for the laboratory, physiotherapy, maternity and pediatric departments—and the cobalt bomb installation—will constitute almost as much structurally as the original hospital.

Embarking on a guided tour conducted for my benefit by administrator William W. Turner, resident inspector Francis (Chris) Chriswell and Rolfe Jensen, superintendent on the job for Barrett Construction Co., through some of the mud and water of the last rainfall, up ladders and across catwalks, I was mightily impressed.

ONE THING I know — the new 4,000-square-foot laundry area with its foot-thick concrete walls would make a first rate community fallout shelter.

Construction is now better than 15 per cent complete. This is based on construction costs incurred to date ($308,000), but since virtually all materials delivered have been incorporated in the building as it now stands, work completed amounts to about the same percentage.

For everyone concerned this coordination of materials and work seems to be a most happy state of affairs. If prior deliveries were made that could not be immediately used in the building it might be something of a headache, for the project is being financed on a pay-as-you-go basis.

True, most of the work up to now has been in excavating and grading, some demolition, structural steel and reinforced concrete. Two of these operations are in the hands of Marin County subcontractors — C. D. Madsen, Inc. for the first, and Shamrock Materials, Inc., on the concrete. L. C. Smith Building Supplies, the only other Marin subcontractor involved, won't be on the scene until it's time to furnish the finishing hardware. All labor is routed through local unions except supervisory personnel.

SOME EXCAVATION work has also been done for the concrete piers of the cobalt bomb installation. There is no tie-in between this and the other additions and it could very well be completed by next spring. The new buildings, originally scheduled for completion by February, 1963, may take a bit longer than that—April in '63 would be a better guess.

The original hospital building was well designed originally for just such an expansion as is now taking place, with a minimum of demolition work—more than half of which has been accomplished.

Like all construction projects it has its complement of "sidewalk" superintendents. They are on the job faithfully every day—and the have a grandstand view of the operation.

The hospital patients.

Salvation Army Makes Appeal

The Christmas appeal of the Salvation Army has been officially launched, announced Beverly A. Sill, Marin County chairman.

Sill, manager of the Crocker-Anglo National Bank of Corte Madera, said Christmas appeal letters were being mailed throughout the county. Last year, 700 packages of gifts were delivered to the county farm, rest homes, hospitals and jails, he said.

Air Pollution Unit Recommendations

Recommendations to reduce advisory council committees from seven to four have been received by the council of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District from the committee on council procedures. The recommendations will be reported to a full meeting of the council at a later date.

Serving on the advisory council from Marin is Fred E. Enemark of San Rafael. The council will meet next at 2 p.m. on Jan. 31 at 1480 Mission Street, San Francisco.

Two Youths Jailed For Mischief

Warren Alan Bostick, 19, of 40 Twain Harte Lane, San Rafael, and Jack Merrill Kelso, 18, of 61 Ridgecrest Road, Kentfield, were charged in a citizen's arrest last evening with malicious mischief in trespassing on the property of John Herman Hink on Piedmont Avenue, Larkspur.

The youths claimed they were on Hink's property only to inquire directions as they were walking down the slope of Mount Tamalpais. They had asked their way at two other houses higher up the slope, they said.

Hink and a neighbor, Robert Duncan of 4 Shady Lane, stopped the pair as they were climbing a fence, and called Larkspur police. Patrolman John Cottle booked the pair at the county jail on a complaint signed by Hink. They were released on $262 bail each, to appear in municipal court at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Hink claimed they broke a rail from the fence and siding from the house. The youths said they knocked at the door, got no answer, walked around the house and were climbing the fence when stopped.

Young Bostick is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren L. Bostick. His brother, Bruce, 17, and another youth were arrested Nov. 26 on the Desilu Studio lot in Hollywood and booked on suspicion of burglary. The charges subsequently were dropped.

Bones Not Of Amelia, Anthropologist Says

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An anthropologist said today that human bone fragments and teeth found on the Pacific Island of Saipan were not the remains of Amelia Earhart and her navigator.

Dr. Theodore McCown, professor of anthropology at the University of California, said the remains appear to be those of more than two persons. Also, they appear to be from orientals rather than causacians, McCown said.

The bones were taken from a grave on Saipan by Fred Goerner, a San Francisco radio newsman who has spent more than two years trying to solve the 24-year-old Earhart mystery.

Goerner believes they were captured by the Japanese and that they died on Saipan.

Jules Dundes, Columbia Broadcasting Co. radio vice president and general manager of KCBS, said, "Our faith in the basic details of the story reported by Goerner is unshaken, the testimony of so many residents of Saipan that a white woman flyer was there, and in fact, the receipt only yesterday of more information from U.S. soldiers who had been on the island during World War II, convinces us that the search for the final chapter of Miss Earhart's life will indeed be completed as a result of the evidence which Fred Goerner had reported."

Dundes referred to letters from Ralph R. Kanna of Johnson City, N.Y., and Fred Chapman of West Coxsackie, N.Y., both of whom recalled seeing snapshots of Miss Earhart when they were on Saipan during World War II.

Kanna said a Japanese prisoner had a photograph of Miss Earhart standing near Japanese aircraft on an airfield.

Deputy Dies, 11 Hurt In Marin Wrecks

noon yesterday following a rear ender on Shoreline Highway near Almonte Boulevard in which a car driven by Arthur LaGrove Brown, 32, apartment C-50-393, Marin City, piled into that of Ted Samuel, 56, of San Francisco.

Brown, a custodian at Tamalpais High School, was released from the hospital after being treated for a headache. His passenger, Arthur Leroy Foster of apartment C-19-148, Marin City, was released after treatment for a cut face. There were no citations.

A 67-year-old retired carpenter of Point Reyes Station was in fair condition in Marin General Hospital after his westbound car plunged over a 100-foot embankment on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about two miles north of Fairfax at 5:30 p.m. yesterday.

Harry William Lenhard told California Highway Patrolmen he "must have blacked out," as he did not recall leaving the road. He was alone in the car, officers said.

His injuries were undetermined but he remained only semi-conscious today.

Frances Marie Haussler, 54, of 5 Apollo Road, Tiburon, suffered injuries to both legs when her driverless car dragged her down her driveway and rolled over her shortly after noon yesterday. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Haussler told California Highway Patrolmen she was unable to release the hand break while sitting in the car, and got out of the car to release it. The open left front door caught her, dragged her part way down the driveway and threw her under the car, she said.

A practical nurse and a nurse's aide from Vallejo, employed by a San Rafael convalescent hospital, were injured early today in Sonoma County when another car rammed their vehicle as they were coming to work.

Mrs. Opal Simon, the practical nurse, was treated at the Novato Hospital for several large cuts and was later to be transferred to a Vallejo hospital. Her companion Mrs. Galeno Bailey, nurse's aide, suffered only minor cuts and bruises and was to return to her home in Vallejo.

Both were employed by the Villa Convalescent Home at 25 Villa Avenue, San Rafael. Another car was reported to have come in from the Lakeville road at its intersection with Highway 37 and struck their vehicle during heavy fog.

Man Nearly Electrocuted As Model Plane Cable Hits Wire

A Mill Valley man was nearly electrocuted yesterday when a model power airplane he was controlling with a steel wire struck a high voltage tower on the Tamalpais Valley School playground.

Taber L. Kopan, 33, a building contractor of 139 Kipling Drive, was knocked to the wet ground and almost totally paralyzed by the bolt of current. His life was probably saved by his 11-year-old daughter, Pamela, who rushed to the nearest house for help, bursting into the home and using the telephone without the formality of knocking.

Later, she could not remember which house she had entered.

FEET BURNED

Attendants at Marin General Hospital said the soles of Kopan's feet were severely burned and that it would probably be some time before he recovered the use of his right arm. The heat from the charge was so intense that holes were burned through the leather soles on his shoes, his wife, Marlas said.

Also with Kopan at the time of the accident was his son, Jimmy, 7, half-owner of the plane. Mrs. Kopan said they had built the model together and had flown it once before, finding it was too heavy. Yesterday's ill-fated flight was the first since it had been remodeled.

RUSHED TO AID

A second daughter, Lynn, was at home with Mrs. Kopan when Pamela notified them of the accident. They rushed to his side as he lay on the ground, almost unconscious waiting for the ambulance.

Mrs. Kopan said she was so panic stricken she could not find her car keys, but ran out of the house and flagged down the first car that passed.

"I held his hand," she said. "He tried to look at me, then gave my hand a squeeze. I knew he was going to be all-right."

Young Jimmy, after a visit with his father at the hospital last night, indicated that he was ready to give up the hobby of flying.

"I'm going to give Daddy all my money — if he promises not to build any more planes," Jimmy told his mother.

Trial Concerning Miller's Book Will Start Tomorrow

The controversial "Tropic of Cancer," written by Henry Miller of Big Sur, will go on trial in Marin Municipal Court at about 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Officially Frank B. Pershina, 32, proprietor of the Golden Hind Bookshop at 560 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, will be on trial, before a jury, on a charge of knowingly selling obscene material. And if convicted he could face a maximum of $1,000 fine or six months in Marin County Jail.

But the issue that will decide Pershina's guilt or innocence will be the jury's finding whether the book is obscene — and defense attorney Charles W. Pierce of San Anselmo has said he will demand that the jury read the entire book.

Pierce will be assisted in the defense by attorney Lawrence Goldberg of San Francisco, legal author for the State Bar of California legal education program.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, who ordered Pershina's arrest, will prosecute the case before Judge Leonard A. Thomas.

Pershina was arrested after selling a paperback copy of the book to Investigator A. W. Adam Jr. of Garety's staff.

Syracuse Great Davis Picked By Redskins

San Francisco 49ers today picked Arkansas halfback Lance Alworth as their number one chaice in the National Football League player draft in Chicago.

The Washington Redskins, leading off the NFL draft, chose Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis of Syracuse, first Negro ever selected by the 'Skins.

Los Angeles, picking second in a draft swap previously obtained from Minnesota, selected quarterback Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State.

The Rams, also getting the third choice in regular rotation, took the prize tackle from Utah State, Merlin Olsen.

Owner George Preston Marshall of the 'Skins was under considerable pressure to hire the club's first Negro player.

Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall last week intimated selection of Davis would indicate Marshall's good intention to hire a Negro player. Udall made the proviso that unless the Redskins opened their roster to Negroes, they could not play in Washington's new stadium on National Park land.

COMPLICATED DEAL

The Rams had obtained Minnesota's first pick through a complicated deal in which the New York Giants sent quarterback George Shaw to Minnesota, the Vikings gave New York their first pick and the Giants gave this to Los Angeles for end Del Shofner.

The St. Louis Cardinals, making the sixth draw, took tackle Fate Echols of Northwestern.

Cleveland, down for the regular 11th position in the draw, got tackle Bob Lilly of TCU, as Dallas' pick in the No. 4 position because of a previous trade.

Tenth pick in the first round was made by the Detroit Lions, who selected halfback John Hadl of Kansas.

Los Angeles Wins; Seals Score Late

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Blades broke a scoreless tie in the second period with five goals and went to a 9-2 victory over the San Francisco Seals in a Western Hockey League game last night.

Blade center Gerry Goyer started the scoring at 1:29 of the second period. Goyer, with assists from Bruce Carmichael and Ralph Keller, picked up the puck at the corner of the cage and shot it past goalie Bev Bentley.

San Francisco didn't get its first goal until the final period was eight minutes old.

In other league games, Portland shut out Vancouver 3-0 and Seattle edged Spokane 2-1.

Orange Show Bowl Won By Sacramento City

SAN BERNARDINO (AP)—Sacramento City College, behind the running of halfback Ron Minamide, swept to a 27-7 football victory over Fullerton Junior College in the Orange Show Bowl Saturday.

Minamide scored all of Sacramento's points. John Pease accounted for Fullerton's only score, going over from three yards out in the second period.

A Frustrating Afternoon For 49ers' Brodie

By JACK HANLEY
(I-J Correspondent)

BALTIMORE — It is just as well that Red Hickey is busy with NFL draft in Chicago today instead of viewing the films of that 20-17 49er loss to the Colts.

The redhead wasted not a moment in the 49er dressing room after Baltimore's reserve end Jimmy Orr did a first class juggling act with a 41-yard touchdown toss by Johnny Unitas in the final 62 seconds of the game.

Hickey hurriedly changed his cleated field shoes for more conventional foot gear and darted for a Chicago bound plane which he might have missed had he been caught in the happy Colt crowd of 57,641 spilling out of Baltimore Memorial Stadium.

BIG PLAY

"Unitas and Orr came up with the big play when it was needed, said Duncan.

Had Hickey not been in such a hurry to get to the draft meeting he might have had a few pungent remarks to add, particularly about some sloppy 49er tackling throughout the game and some butter fingered handling of John Brodie's passes.

Honest John's receivers not only dropped them on him but twice tipped them into welcome Colt arms for interceptions.

HALFTIME STANDOFF

A charitable description of the first half play by both teams would be that neither deserved the 10-10 intermission standoff.

Brodie fired the Shotgun several times against the Colts in an effort to get the game out of its monotonous groove and on one occasion even resorted to packing the ball himself — a 29-yard romp to the Colt seven, the best run of the day by any 49er.

That it was going to be a trying day for the 49er quarterback was indicated early in the first quarter when Aaron Thomas let one of Brodie's passes drift off his fingertips into Jackie Burkett's arms. The Colt linebacker lugged the interception 23 to the 49er 37 from where the Colts scored in eigth plays, the big one being an 18-yard romp by ex-49er Joe Perry just before Alex Hawkins took it over from the one.

MATT INTERCEPTS

Now, Matt Hazeltine intercepted a Unitas pass and ran 26 to the Colt 34. And then Brodie, after two tries by others netted minus two, made his 29-yard sprint but all it was good for was an 11-yard field goal by Tommy Davis since the Colt defensive line wasn't yielding anything.

A former 49er, Len Lyles, fumbled the next kickoff, Jim Ridlon recovering on the Baltimore 28. However, a moment later R. C. Owens, who is determined to become a free agent and refused to sign a

HICKEY STRUNG UP IN SAN RAFAEL

UCLA To Intensify Pre-Bowl Workouts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The UCLA Bruins, idle for a week, started working out today for their New Year's Day meeting with Minnesota in the Rose Bowl football classic at Pasadena.

The Bruins will practice in sweat suits this week, spending much of their time on limbering up exercises. Coach Bill Barnes expects to start heavier drills next week.

UCLA, which had a 7-3 record this season, has played four Rose Bowl games and lost them all. The Bruins figure to be the underdogs again. Two of their losses this season were to Big Ten teams, Michigan and Ohio State.

PRO FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Packers Reign As Champs; Eastern Race All Jammed Up

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Call it a "steal," a "heist" or "the great gridiron robbery," but the Green Bay Packers are Western Division champs of the National Football League, and the New York Giants now must battle it out with Philadelphia and Cleveland for a shot at the playoff swag.

Green Bay won the Western title for the second straight year yesterday by beating the Giants, 20-17, in a savagely-fought game which conceivably might be re-enacted in the N.F.L.'s championship playoff a few weeks from now.

The Giants' defeat gave the Philadelphia Eagles the opportunity to move into a first-place tie in the Eastern Division. The Eagles beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-24. The Cleveland Browns, 38-17 conquerors of the Dallas Cowboys, now are only one game behind the leaders.

HEROES GALORE

The crowd of 47,012 at Milwaukee cheered a host of heroes. There was fullback Jim Taylor, who gained 186 rushing yards. There was quarterback Bart Storr, who directed the Packers' attack well. And there were the Green Bay linemen, who proved every bit the equal of their ballyhooed Giant opponents.

But the Packer who probably made the most important haul of the day was Jesse Whittenton, a light-fingered, 195-pound defensive back. This was the picture:

The Giants led 17-13 early in the final period and were running the ball out from deep in their own territory. Fullback Alex Webster cut back over tackle at the 7 and broke into the clear. Whittenton nailed him at the New York 30, but not satisfied merely with bringing him down, he stole the ball from Webster's grasp.

WINNING SCORE

Four plays later, including a penalty for roughing the passer, Taylor barged over from the 3 to put Green Bay ahead.

New York had two opportunities to score after that, but Pat Summerall missed a 34-yard field goal try and later Bobby Gaiters fumbled on the Green Bay 22 and Willie Davis recovered.

A pair of 23 and 25-yard field goals by Paul Hornung and Taylor's 14-yard touchdown run gave Green Bay a 13-7 lead in the first period, only to have New York go ahead before halftime on Gaiters' 2-yard plunge and Summerall's 41-yard field goal.

The Packers now take off for a leisurely two-game swing of the West Coast, while the Giants play the Eagles and Browns on the next two Sundays.

PUNCHES FOE

At Pittsburgh, Tim Brown scored on a 66-yard punt return and a 43-yard sprint from scrimmage and the Eagles turned three pass interceptions into additional scores to beat the Steelers in a rough game. Linebacker "Big Daddy" Lipscomb of the Steelers punched center Howard Keys of the Eagles during the final minute of play.

Babby Layne's two touchdown passes closed Philadelphia's lead to 28-24 in the final period before Brown broke loose on his second touchdown run before 21,653 fans. Sonny Jurgensen threw two scoring passes for the Eagles to set a club record of 26 for a season.

Cleveland's defensive unit scored two touchdowns before the offense took possession of the ball in the romp at Dallas. Defenders Bernie Parrish and Vince Costello ran 34 and 30 yards with fumbles and Jimmy Brown later scored twice for the Browns before a crowd of about 23,500 at Dallas.

In other Sunday games, the Minnesota Vikings upset the Los Angeles Rams, 42-21; the Detroit Lions edged the Chicago Bears, 16-15; the Baltimore Colts defeated the San Francisco 49ers, 20-17, and the St. Louis Cardinals rallied to beat the Washington Redskins, 38-24.

AFL UPSET

The Houston Oilers sent the San Diego Chargers down to their first defeat in 12 American Football League games this season, 33-13; the Boston Patriots squeezed past the Denver Broncos, 28-24; the New York Titans drubbed the Dallas Texans, 28-7, and the Buffalo Bills beat the Oakland Raiders 26-21.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

CONNOLLY

Just like Cape Canavaral. The San Francisco Forty-Niners reached countdown after the pre-season games, blasted off in perfect flight, and then developed interior trouble and destroyed themselves.

In the early season games this outfit functioned with good teamwork. Even after the switch over to automatic pilot (that would be when Coach Red Hickey called the shots) it looked as if the 49ers would at last go into orbit. Flameout, and ka-blooey!

So, men, it's back to the drawing board. Pick up the pieces, throw out the junk, and rebuild from the bottom.

And that's exactly what happens today as the 49er brass sits down in Chicago to draft the new crop of college rookies that will shore up the faulty machine. They hope.

If nothing else, yesterday's loss to the Baltimore Colts served to point up the basic weaknesses that have kept the 49ers from becoming championship caliber. They are not too hard to find.

The most glaring fault is the lack of offensive blocking, the kind that can go off tackle or around the horn and chop down two, three, and four men to spring a runner past the first line of defense.

THE HICKEY offensives have had a tough time getting ONE man ahead of the ball carrier. Now and again a couple of good blocks are thrown and a man like J. D. Smith can really get up a head of steam and go places. More often, the ball carrier is a sitting pigeon.

On one particular play yesterday, the 49ers made the supreme effort and got FOUR men around end ahead of the runner. This was the one that would go for a long gainer! In poured the defense to throw the man for a loss, with all four blockers still on their feet.

After a tremendous first half of the season, the 49er defensive platoon has fallen apart at the seams. I still say the decline of the locals started with the day Jim Johnson took over Abe Woodson's defensive spot and Abe was moved to offense. It is an axiom in pro ball that "a rookie defensive back will cost you a touchdown a game." Johnson has overdrawn his account.

HICKEY has been quoted the past week that Woodson was being benched because he was not doing his job after being moved back to defense. I don't buy it. My guess is that this would be another example of red-headed stubbornness on Hickey's part.

Woodson has always been the surest ankle tackler on the team, and his moves against pass catching ends have been fast and sure. This boy from Terra Linda would be on my first team along with ex-Marinite Matt Hazeltine, the only other defensive back who is still going all out in every gabe.

It is no secret that I do not see eye to eye with Hickey in all his moves, and this must upset him greatly! Nevertheless, I can't understand drafting for speed and not using it sooner, failing to give a key man like Johnson more experience before burning him, and generally mixing up his team until they lost confidence in themselves.

CHIEF SCOUT Pappy Waldorf will bring in some new raw meat, and some old heads will fall. Coach Hickey will stick around because he has kept the turnstiles clicking. But one more year like this one and they will be drafting more than players.

Gay Brewer Wins 2nd Straight PGA Contest

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Gay Brewer Jr. was $3,800 richer today by virtue of his four-stroke victory in the West Palm Beach Open golf tournament.

The 29-year-old golfer stood off the late challenge of Arnold Palmer of Miami, who finished with 68 for 278 and second money of $1,900.

Floyd 10-1 Choice Over McNeely

TORONTO (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson is a prohibitive 10-1 favorite to hand strong and rough Tom McNeeley Jr., the first defeat of his brief career in their 15-round title fight tonight at Maple Leaf Gardens.

There was every indication of a quick and explosive battle in Canada's first world heavyweight championship contest.

McNeeley, a 6-2, 200-pound former Michigan State tackle, predicted he would win by a knockout "within six rounds."

"I'm going after him," said McNeeley. "He won't have to go looking for me."

"I think McNeeley might be the kind of a fighter who will gamble and try to take over the fight," said Patterson. "If he does, it could be up and down like the last Ingemar Johansson fight with nobody giving up. So I'll gamble in the first round if he's willing."

Patterson declined to make any predictions, but he said, "I will be 100 per cent better than I was in the last fight with Ingemar last March."

In that fight, his third with Johansson, Patterson rallied from two first-round knockdowns and kayoed the husky Swede in the sixth.

The Patterson-McNeeley title fight will be the second half of a closed-circuit television double-header. The opening bout will match Sonny Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia, and stocky Albert Westphal of Hamburg, Germany, in a 10-rounder at Philadelphia's Convention Hall. Spectators at the two arenas will see the other city's fight on four-sided movie screens.

The double-header also will be shown in about 150 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada, and may be seen in 150,000 homes via community antenna television systems.

There will be no radio broadcast in the United States.

McNeeley may collect about $125,000. Patterson could earn around $300,000.

McNeeley's purse could be more than he grossed in all 23 of his pro fights. He has won all of them, 18 by knockouts. He is ranked ninth by Ring but is not included in the NBA's top 10.

Despite his impressive record, he is not rated highly as a puncher. His opponents have been inferior. He is a standup fighter who relies on his strength to overwhelm an opponent.

Patterson, trim and fast, has an overwhelming advantage in skill, power and experience. But he has been down 11 times in eight title fights. However, all of them have ended in knockouts. He won seven of them, losing to Johansson in the seven-knockdown third round of their first fight June 26, 1959.

BILLS 'STEAL' GAME

Raiders Don't Know How To Win—Feldman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"The way we play," said Marty Feldman, "we look like we don't know how to win."

You couldn't blame the Oakland Raiders coach for his disappointment yesterday after the Buffalo Bills virtually stole a game from Oakland 26-21.

But you have to give Buffalo credit too. It wasn't the Bills' pockets that were picked.

Burly Mack Yoho, a 240-pound defensive end, had a first period Raider pass thrown right at him by Tom Flores.

On the following play, Bill quarterback John Green floated a 21-yard pass to Dewey Bohling, all alone in the corner of the Raider end zone.

Each club scored touchdowns in each of the next three periods. With seven minutes left, Buffalo's Billy Atkins punted to the Raider 28 and George Fleming returned the ball to the Oakland 45.

The crowd, announced at 8,011, sounded that large at that moment. When Flores ran for a first down on the Buffalo 48, the Raiders seemed destined to beat the Bills.

That's when a typographical nightmare named LaVerne Torczon did the Raiders in. Torczon, Yoho's running mate at defensive end, smeared Flores twice in a row, shoving the Raiders back 20 yards.

Moments later Oakland had to punt and Art Baker, the one-man mob from Syracuse, just ran the clock out almost single-handed. He carried the ball eight straight times and had moved the ball from Buffalo's 15 to the Oakland 40 when the gun sounded.

Alan Miller caught two touchdown passes for Oakland, a 15-yarder from Nick Papac and a 16-yarder from Flores.

That TD pass was Papac's only play of the day. The crowd was asking for more of him, even though Flores completed 19 of 36 for 253 yards. It wasn't one of Flores' better days.

Marin Cats Suffer First Cage Setback

The Marin Catholic Wildcats suffered their first hoop loss this season to Serra Catholic High School of San Mateo in a real Saturday whipping session, 45-26.

The Wildcats, who are relatively short this year anyway, came up against a front line of Redwood trees. The Serra forward men averaged 6-5 and during a bombarding first half managed to drop in better than one of every two shots.

Wilcat forward Jerry Smith shuffled in and out of the timber and managed to tally 13 counts for coach Bernie Schneider's scrappy crew.

The Wildcats' junior varsity, after humiliating the San Rafael Military Academy varsity earlier in the week, kept their ego intact and belted Serra's Jay Vees 37-28.

Center Dick Grecni of the Cleveland Browns is a salesman in a music store during the off season.

Marin Cage Tourney To Start Thursday

The Marin County Athletic League Christmas basketball tournament gets underway Thursday at the Sir Francis Drake High School gymnasium with two games scheduled for the first day, three for the second and two for the third.

Other high school basketball games scheduled this week for Marin teams were Novato and the San Rafael Military Academy, and Tomales and the Tamalpais Jay Vees, today; and Marin Catholic at Analy in Sebastopol, and Terra Linda and Del Valle in Marin, both tomorrow at 4 p.m.

With Drake High hosting the Christmas tourney this year, athletic director George Corson and head basketball coach Carl Brown will be in charge. Last year's fete was at San Rafael High.

At 4 p.m. Thursday, host Drake and the Redwood Giants, defending MCAL champions, will start things off. At 5:30 the same evening, what may prove to be a hot San Rafael team, will clash with an equally moving Tamalpais squad. Both Marin Catholic, last year's tournament champ, and Novato have drawn byes which automatically advanced them to the semi-finals, to be played Friday.

The championship will be on the block Saturday night.

Napa Bowl Alley Destroyed By Fire

NAPA (AP)—Fire caused thousands of dollars damage today in the Center Lanes Bowling Alley, in downtown Napa, but firefighters contained the blaze to the one building.

The bowling alley, a remodeled theater, was one of the oldest buildings in Napa.

Jack Rutledge, a guard on the University of Alabama football team, is nicknamed "Governor" because of a resemblance to Alabama's Gov. John Patterson.

Another Coach Bites The Dust—SMU's

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist University starts looking for a new head football coach today, and backed by an administration statement that there are no plans to deemphasize the game, that fellow probably will be among the big names.

Bill Meek was let out as coach after five years when his team finished the season at Fort Worth Saturday, playing a 28-28 tie with Texas Christian.

Meek hadn't won enough games to get big enough crowds out to pay expenses and the athletic department was deeply in the red.

new 49er contract offer, tipped a Brodie pass into Don Shinnick's hands. So that scoring chance was nullified.

As the first half was coming to a close, Brodie took the 49ers to a touchdown over an 84-yard route in 10 plays, the scoring one being a 15-yard pass that Colt Gary Glick, apparently influenced by the way the 49ers were letting passes drift off their fingertips, deflected into Monty Stickles' hands in the end zone.

There were only 43 seconds left in the half but they were enough for the Colts to get a field goal Steve Myhra booted from the 32.

Virtually all of the third quarter was consumed by a 20-play 49er combination that covered 95 yards with J. D. Smith scoring from the four. It was the longest scoring sequence of the season and was aided by a pass interference call on the Colts.

Then the Colts took the ensuing kickoff to within 23-yard field goal range, Myhra supplying the three-pointer, Unitas and Orr later putting the finishing touch on Hickey's warrior's with the neatest juggling act of the season.

STRATEGIC SLATE

Tars Lose Again, But Don't Worry

Actually its' all strategy.

Not the College of Marin Tars' second straight loss of a basketball game as defending champions of the Golden Valley Conference, but their preleague schedule of playing the toughest teams in the north's junior college circuit.

That's the way Tar coach Cal Riemcke wants it—the schedule, not the losses. He knows the cake and frosting cliche. And for the past five seasons Riemcke got both when his squad hit the league trail.

Saturday night at the Sir Francis Drake High gymnasium, San Mateo smashed the Mariners 81-69, after having only a three-point halftime lead. The night before the Tars were beaten by the Diablo Valley College, 69-48.

Riemcke was anticipating a better performance out of his troops for that second game of the season, and so it was. A 35-32 halftime score indicates this. The Marinites were superior in shooting from the floor during that first division of play.

Tar Lynn Livie was back at his par game to score a total of 25. Dave Neumann was looking good on the boards in defensive play and did his share offensively by chalking 15 digits for Marin.

"The team has a long way to go," remarked Riemcke. He referred specifically to defensive work and more specifically to rebounding efforts.

The Tars will run the hardwoods with another solid outfit—Menlo College at Redwood High tomorrow at 8 p.m. and then Friday and Saturday tangle at the Vallejo tournament.

Probable starters for tomorrow's contest will be Livie, Neumann, Ernie Bray, Randy Petrini and Jim Mitchell.

Meaning For Christians, Too, In Jewish Festival Of Lights

An ancient Jewish festival to be celebrated starting today has profound significance for the Christian as well as the Jewish world.

The occasion is Chanukah, "The Festival of Lights," which starts at sunset and continues for eight days. In Jewish homes it is a joyous occasion, marked by pageantry and the exchange of gifts.

Historically, Chanukah commemorates the victory of Judas Maccabeus and his band of valiant warriors who turned their limited strength against the outnumbering forces of King Antiochus of Syria in 165 B.C., after Antiochus had despoiled the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem, demanding that the Jews abandon their worship of God and turn to idolatry.

It was in defiance of such a command that the Maccabees warred against the tyrannical king, defeated him in battle, and restored the ancient Temple. The victory marked the first recorded triumph in the long struggle for religious liberty. It marked the survival of monotheistic religion from which sprang Christianity.

The observance of Chanukah, therefore, recalls the ancient victory and calls for a rededication to the cause of religious freedom.

It means still more. It means that in enjoying religious liberty, men and women of all creeds must respect the religious differences of their neighbors. And that, in a word, is the spirit of America.

Little, Tough Acorn Eaters

Each year about this time, when the mornings are chilly and our thoughts are turned more and more to the season of feasting and good wishes, we have to think with wonder and admiration of the little Miwok Indians who inhabited Marin before the coming of the white man.

They were primitive and on the squatty side. They were not at all the stalwart, fierce, hard-riding Plains Indians. But in their struggle with their environment, they proved to be plenty tough. It was white man's sicknesses, for which the Indians had no immunity, which virtually exterminated the Miwok.

Clad only in a short fur cape which scarcely covered his back and with a diet which largely featured mussels and acorns, these hardy little fellows managed to make it through winter after winter. We must admire their durability and fortitude.

BOUQUETS to the 54 Marin boys and girls who won honors at the annual county 4-H awards night.

BRICKBATS to students at Marin Catholic High School who disregard established crosswalks and wander across Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to the detriment of themselves and the late commuting traffic each morning.

BOUQUETS to Marin telephone workers, who voted to stay on the job and not join the wildcat strike in the East Bay.

A bus driver, upset by the way motorists drive, quit his job in the middle of an intercity run on Vancouver Island, B.C.

He wheeled his big bus with its 41 passengers to the side of the highway, picked up his jacket and cash box and then politely announced to the startled people: "That's it, I quit."

An hour and a half passed before a relief driver could complete the run.

In explaining his drastic action, the exasperated driver said: "I'm getting fed up with the way people drive. They just drive for the maximum inconvenience of everyone."

Those who are quite sensitive to inconsiderateness by others can be very blind to the unfair way in which they themselves may act.

In your home, at work, in school or anywhere else, follow the divine standard of treating others as you would like them to treat you. You will thus be taking a few steps to right the wrongs of the world.

"As you would that men should do to you, do you also to them in like manner." (Luke 6:31)

Let me show the same consideration for others, O Jesus, that I expect from them.

ON 115 TEST VOTES

Engle, Miller More Partisan Than Kuchel

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON—How often do congressmen support their own parties on the showdown roll-call votes in Congress? About three-quarters of the time, according to a study of the 1961 Congress just completed by Congressional Quarterly.

Marin's Democratic legislators in Washington, were slightly more partisan than this average, but its Republican senator was not that regular with the party line.

Sen. Thomas Kuchel (R) scored 61 per cent in support of his party and 29 per cent in opposition.

Sen. Clair Engle (D) was 79 per cent in support of his party and 9 per cent in opposition.

Rep. Clem Miller (D) voted 83 per cent in support of his party and 8 per cent in opposition.

THE STUDY showed that only 115 of the 320 votes taken by both House and Senate throughout the year could be regarded as real tests of partisan support—tests in which a majority of Northern Democrats joined a majority of Southern Democrats against a majority of Republicans. Other findings:

Measured against these 115 votes, the average Democrat supported his party 76 per cent of the time and the average Republican had a support score of 71 per cent.

Two Democratic senators (Strom Thurmond, S. C.; and Frank J. Lausche, Ohio) voted with the Republican majority on more than half of the partisan votes, while two Republican senators (Jacob K. Javits, N.Y.; and Clifford P. Case, N.J.) voted with the Democratic majority on more than half of the 75 tests votes.

In the House, eight Democrats, all Southerners, and two Republicans "crossed the aisle" on more than half of the 40 votes which divided the parties in that chamber.

DEMOCRATS, holding a majority in each chamber, prevailed on 107 of the 115 test votes. Sixty-three of these wins also constituted a victory for President Kennedy, and six of them, largely involving increases in spending beyond the President's budget, constituted defeats for the President. (The President took no position on the remaining votes.)

Republicans, by luring Democratic defectors, managed to win eight of the 115 test votes. Two of these—vetoing a reorganization plan for the Securities and Exchange Commission in the Senate and blocking speedy House consideration of a bill increasing postal rates—also constituted defeats for the President.

The 115 "partisan" votes provide the most precise test available of 1961 issues that separated Democrats from Republicans.

IN THE SENATE, these included passage of the emergency feed grains bill, the depressed areas aid bill, the minimum wage bill, the housing bill, and reorganization plans for the Federal Trade Commission, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Maritime Administration and the Securities and Exchange Commission. Democratic majorities supported all of these; Republican majorities opposed all of them.

In the House, the major partisan issues included passage of the emergency feed grains bill, the depressed areas bill, the water pollution control bill, the housing bill, the farm bill conference report, a program of lead-zinc subsidies, a bill increasing the national debt, an extension of the Sugar Act, and reorganization plans for the Federal Communications Commission, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Trade Commission, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission. Again, Democratic majorities supported all of these and Republican majorities opposed all of them.

Juanita's Galley To Move Onto An Old Ferry Boat

Juanita's Galley in Marinship is to be moved aboard the ferry boat, Henry Van Damme, in March, owner Juanita Musson said today.

The move will take the restaurant out of the City of Sausalito and into the county at a spot opposite the Sausalito boat and tackle shop at Waldo Point.

"This has been my dream for six years," Mrs. Musson said. She said she started her restaurant in an old paint shop in Clipper Yacht Harbor Basin 2 in 1955. Seventeen months later she moved into an old bait shop and converted it to a restaurant. She is now in that location.

Mrs. Musson said she is buying the ferry boat, which she said is the last side wheeler in the Bay Area and used to run between Benicia and Martinez. The ferry boat is to be beached near its present location parallel to Bridgeway, and gangplanks will be installed and parking made available.

The galley will continue to operate 24 hours a day serving breakfasts, luncheons and pot luck dinners. Mrs Musson said she plans to install many old pictures, including those of ferries. The name will remain the same, more space will be available than the present restaurant and, she said, "the service will probably stay the same."

Mrs. Musson, who lives at 74 Wateree Street, said her present lease is up Jan. 10, and hopes to move aboard the boat.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

By CHAPIN A. DAY

'CHIP' DAY

Stanley Mosk, state attorney general, remains "inscrutable" about his plans for next year's election. He was in Marin this week to address a new Democratic club being formed in Mill Valley. We asked him about reports that he'd much rather be a member of the State Supreme Court than to run for re-election as attorney general. He said he "prefers to remain inscrutable."

We asked him if he was going to run for re-election. "Inscrutable" again, but he hopes to make his "position for 1962 known shortly after the first of the year."

A question on which we were sure he'd be "inscrutable," so we didn't ask, was whether U. S. Treasurer Elizabeth R. Smith is setting a precedent in wanting to resign as treasurer so as to not hold down two jobs and thus be able to devote full time to be national committeewoman from California. Mosk is both attorney general and national committeeman from California.

But he was specific about one thing: He had "no part" in any agreement whatsoever which might have boosted him to the State Supreme Court and substituted former Motor Vehicles Director Robert McCarthy as attorney general. "Of course, I have no knowledge of any agreement Governor Brown and McCarthy may have had."

"Were you at that famous meeting at the Kent Estate here that led to the Brown-McCarthy blowup?"

"No, I was in England at that time as a member of a seven-man team studying the British appellate courts."

"Did you get any reports of that meeting?"

"We had a wonderful experience over there. Head of the delegation was . . . "

Inscrutable.

THREE MARIN attorneys were introduced to the newly forming Democratic club as "potential" candidates for Republican William T. Bagley's Assembly seat.

The three, all of whom have been mentioned before and none seemingly too eager, are Robert D. Carrow of Novato, Alvin H. Goldstein, Jr., of Sleepy Hollow, and Albert E. Gately of Fairfax.

The Democrats also were told their Assembly pre-primary endorsing session would be held in February.

THE GOP COUNTY chairman for Mendocino County, a fellow who gets down to Marin County pretty regularly, has a bone to pick with us.

Russell L. Clarke claims the cancelling of a Ukiah meeting in which Marinites David Winslow and Gerald Misner were to participate, was cancelled because of the "necessity of making a living" and not any apathy about the Congressional race, as we may have indicated last week.

"Leaders of the northern counties have life and the will and the desire to make the meeting," he writes. But because of the business conflict "it was cancelled at the last moment and tentatively set for a weekend. I would appreciate it if your column mentioned these FACTS in order not to mis-cast a reflection of apathy."

Mentioned.

MARIN'S CONGRESSMAN Clem Miller discussed budget problems with Budget Bureau officials in Washington this week and then took off on a two-week vacation in Europe.

MARINITES AND SONOMANS will get a look at a Texas Republican next Thursday, Pearl Harbor Day.

Sen. John Tower, 36, the man Texans elected to succeed Vice President Lyndon Johnson in the Senate, will be principal speaker at a dinner in El Rancho Inn, Santa Rosa, jointly sponsored by the Sonoma and Marin Republican County Central Committees.

A POTENTIAL candidate for state superintendent of public instruction is due here next week too.

Max Rafferty, La Canada schools superintendent, is scheduled to address the Marin Association of School Administrators Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in Bel Aire School.

Another educator became "a distinct possibility" in the schools superintendent race this week. Don M. Muchmore, a former assistant to Supt. Roy E. Simpson, said he is "being urged to run." He now heads the California Museum of Science and Industry in Los Angeles.

He says he wants to avoid "haggling over side issues" and get down to the "primary goal," that of "providing the best education possible to California's children."

WE HEAR much talk that former Gov. Goodwin Knight's illness may write finis to his campaign to regain the governorship.

We don't know about that, yet. But our Southern California spies do tell us that Assemblyman Joe Shell has been making good use of his speech-making time, putting in appearances where Richard M. Nixon is telegraphing his regrets. "Watch Joe Shell; he's a sleeper," the spies say.

THE WOODLAND Democrat, published by Democrat Paul Leake, the State Board of Equalization member for this district, printed a column-long editorial taking S.F. Mayor George Christopher to task for rigging a phoney "draft" for lieutenant governor.

Praising Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy for "not pretending that any group is conscripting him for office," the Democrat concludes:

" 'Let George do it' — and cut out his childish draft MIRAGE which is fooling no one, not even George, himself."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thank you for your outspoken and right to the point editorial on the change of phone letters to numerals. As to the content, you have taken the words right out of my mouth.

And to add a little to it. It is extremely sad and terrible that in such a wonderful country as ours we let such big companies as this pop up now and then to push us around and dictate to us without the right of the consumer being considered.

MRS. LORRIE VACHA
San Anselmo

(NOTE: Let's not forget, however, the telephone companies are public utilities, severely regulated, but nevertheless have made it possible to put a telephone in most people's homes. And we should also be thankful for the right we have to raise our voice in protest when we are displeased.)

Larkspur Grading Law Needs Help

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

More than a year ago a group of citizens became concerned over the deep cutting, filling and removal of ground cover taking place in Larkspur.

At the suggestion of the City Council, a committee was formed to review the existing grading ordinance and suggest revisions.

The committee has recommended a completely new grading ordinance to the council for adoption. The new ordinance is now being studied and will be considered soon, perhaps at the Dec. 6 meeting.

In writing the ordinance, the committee felt the preservation of the natural beauty of Larkspur was a desirable objective, along with protection of life and property. They did not feel that the owner's right to develop his land should include the right to disregard the interests of the community.

There appears to be well organized opposition to regulations which could be used to preserve natural beauty. The argument used is that beauty is a matter of opinion. I doubt that many people would hold the opinion that large denuded areas are attractive.

The residents of Larkspur should let the council know what kind of a community they want and will financially support. The conscientious developer and builder needs to be encouraged and the exploiter discouraged.

So Peace Workers Are Unrealistic

Editor,
Independent-Journal:

"Mother! Please!! The neighbors will be phoning. Stop it!"

"All right, all right," I gasped, "just let me write one more teeny-weeny letter to the editor—I'll be o.k.!"

I doubt if anything, anywhere, at any time will be able to top tonight's (Nov. 17) chapter opening of "You Can Survive," by Prof. Libby:

"After a nuclear war . . . radiation . . . can be washed off your house with a hose . . . Cutting grass closely and carefully, and removing the cuttings to a safe distance can help clear up lawns!"

God of our fathers — and they call us who work for peace unrealistic!

County Probably Won't Do Anything About Building Mass Fallout Shelters

For a while there, the county was in an uproar over bomb shelters.

County officials scurried about, studying the pros and cons of mass shelters and holes in the ground. But during the past few weeks, all has been quiet on the bomb front. If there's any studying going on, it is surely being done quietly.

Best prediction at this point is that after all information is in, the county's decision will be: Don't do anything about mass shelters. Everything is too confused, too many ifs and buts, to make any mass shelter practical.

Of course no one's going to discourage you from building your own in the backyard or basement.

POLITICAL DOPESTERS are wondering whether George Hall, former assessor, will ever follow through with his intention to run for county supervisor.

NO ONE seems to know for sure just what "Libby" Smith of Kentfield plans to do if she resigns as United States Treasurer.

Rumors, as yet unconfirmed, say she might be interested in one of two things: (1) The job of secretary of state for California; (2) A prominent Greenbrae Democrat.

THE BIG EVENT next week is Tuesday's trial on Henry Miller's "Tropic of Cancer."

The trial probably won't start until about 9:30 a.m., so you'll have time to take care of other incidentals, like going to the polls to decide the recall of Supervisor Blair, if you live in District 3.

Wouldn't it be fun if they brought in eminent writers of the caliber of William Faulkner or Saroyan to give their analyses of what "Tropic" is all about.

As you know, Dist. Atty. Roger Garety has charged San Anselmo bookseller Frank Pershina with knowingly selling obscene literature. Pershina's young lawyer, Charles Pierce, contends that some of the nation's top critics have high praise for the novel.

THE HUSBAND is the one that's usually in the doghouse. But in this case, it's the wife.

Seems a San Rafael man entered one of these contests where you pick football winners each week. If you pick all 20 correctly, you get $20,000.

That week, the man felt lucky. He checked his choices and asked his wife to mail it in. When the games were over, he found to his astonishment he'd scored correctly on all 20. He also learned his wife had forgotten to mail it in.

That's almost as inexcusable as a man's forgetting his wife's birthday anniversary!

One of the big business magazines developed a series of seven collection letters that were regarded as more effective than the Royal Northwest Mounted Police.

PAY UP OR ELSE

Naturally, the magazine's owners were reluctant to let competitors have copies of these proven accelerators of delinquent accounts. When one newspaper columnist asked for a set of the letters, he was turned down angrily.

The columnist thereupon resorted to a clever strategem. He took out an inexpensive ad in the classified pages of the business magazine, then ignored bill after bill for the same. One by one he received all seven of the magazine's "foolproof" collection letters. When he had the complete set, he wrote his column about the letters, as planned.

Folk Dancers Holiday Party Planned Dec. 11

The Novato Folk Dancers will register guests. Dancing starts at 7:45 p. m.

Tastes For Tots

To get pre-school children to try new foods, home economists suggest offering them little tastes at the beginning of the meal — when they're hungry. Then, ask if they'd like more. Make regular servings small.

Dorcas Plans Yule Party On Dec. 12

The holiday mood will prevail Dec. 12 at the meeting of the Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Community Church.

All members and guests will be welcomed at the annual Christmas party to be hosted by the officers of the society, headed by Mrs. Louis Dallara, president.

Assistants will be Mrs. Thomas Humphrey, vice president, Mrs. Charles Campbell, treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Fisher, recording secretary and Mrs. Austin Boulter, financial secretary.

The party will begin with refreshments at 1:30 p.m., in Burgar Hall at the church and during the afternoon presents will be exchanged, Christmas carols will be sung and Mrs. C. C. Miller will entertain with her puppets.

Members whose birthdays occur during October, November and December will also be honored.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Londoners Feted In Indian Valley

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Huntington of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Davies gave a buffet dinner at their Indian Valley Ranch in Novato Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Huntington who were en route from Tokyo, left today for New York and will fly from there to London. He is president of J. H. Thorp and Co., and an executive of Arthur Sanderson Co. of London. Also honored were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Quartly.

Entertained at the Davies' beautiful home on a high plateau in the hills were 50 guests. Mrs. Davies is known professionally as Elizabeth Banning. A color expert, she is a member of the American Institute of Designers. Among the Marin guests were Messrs. and Mesdames J. E. Countryman, George Richardson, Everett Brown and Mrs. Gail Rowland.

Exciting was the reunion of more than a hundred friends. The George Schirmers of Kent Woodlands, back from extensive European travels, the Richard Tissots of San Rafael returned from a sojourn in Hawaii and Mrs. John Donnelly of San Anselmo, who traveled recently in the British Isles and France, were given royal welcomes.

The Schirmers left the end of August and traveled two and a half months. They flew to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, England and Ireland and then back to Stuttgart where they bought a car to travel through Germany, Austria, France and Spain. They flew to Mallorca, and then went back to Paris, flying back from there. They did not go to Italy as they had spent much time there on previous tours. "When we left it was summer," Lorraine Schirmer said, "and when we came back it was winter." She and George are glad to be back for the holidays.

GORGEOUS GOWNS were seen at St. Stephen's Guild ball Friday night at the Dock in Tiburon. Five pre-dinner cocktail parties were given in beautiful homes. Hostesses were Mrs. Wallace Scott whose chiffon gown had a draped shoulder, Mrs. John Hoefer, wearing a challis gown with a coronet neckline, Mrs. William Ferguson in an Estevey peau de soie, Mrs. Merritt Vargas, who wore a floor length Dior gown trimmed with brocade and Mrs. Merritt Ruddock who chose a low backed black crepe gown. The Ruddocks told friends they were leaving soon for a vacation at Palm Springs. Musicians entertained at their party. At the Fergusons' much admired were displays of sailing and tennis trophies reflecting the soft light of the candles.

The emerald green gowns of Mesdames Edwin Weed, James Michael, Edwin Sinclair and W. C. Witter were in dramatic contrast to the all red decor of the ball. Mrs. Frank King wore a red satin brocade and Mrs. Richard Sims chose a full length white gown. A sensation was Miss Harriet Fletcher's gown made of 17th Century brocade.

The ball gave an opportunity for St. Stephen's parishioners to meet the new pastor, Rev. Llewellyn A. White, and his wife. He will preach his first sermon at St. Stephen's in Belvedere Dec. 17. He was with the Church of the Nativity in Terra Linda.

THE ROBERT ALDERMANS of San Rafael flew to Honolulu Saturday and are staying at Princess Kaiulani Hotel until Dec. 10. Bob, a lieutenant colonel in the Civil Air Patrol, will attend a regional meeting.

MRS. DONALD HOLCOMB, former San Anselmo school teacher, recently visited relatives in Switzerland and went over to see Mrs. Joseph Joseph in Garmisch. Mrs. Holcomb and her mother, Mrs. Bertha Mason, are now visiting relatives in Oakland and will return to San Anselmo after the holidays.

Phi Mu Mothers Plan Yule Lunch

Phi Mu Mothers' Club will hold its annual Christmas Luncheon and card party on Saturday, at the University of California sorority house, Berkeley, at 12:30 p.m. All Marin Phi Mu mothers, alumnae members and their guests are invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. G. T. Marts, 2430 Prospect, Berkeley.

Jewelry Gift Will Please Man On List

Jewelry accessories for men make very special gifts, the Jewelry Industry Council reminds Christmas shoppers. Many men hesitate to buy for themselves those tie clips, cuff links, chains and watches that add so much to their appearance.

As vests return to fashion, the pocket watch with all its handsome trappings of pocket chains and knives suggests the ideal fashion gift.

The stylish Continental trend, calling attention to the new ties and shirts, is beautifully accessorized with gold tie clips or tie tacks in unusual designs, often sporting real or facsimile stones and matched to elegant stone-set cuff links.

The handsome traditional look of natural-shoulder fashions suggests some special jewelry accessories in the same fashion mood.

Neat, tiny gold tie tacks or tacks set with a single cultured pearl are traditional companions to knit and foulard ties.

Fine slim jeweled-lever watches, often paired to alligator or other leather bands, are also favorites.

Every man treasures handsome pocket accessories: gold pens and pencils, lighters, cigarette or cigar cases, fine wallets, pen knives, extra watch bands are all "ideal" gifts for him.

Fix Holiday Feast Early

Today's homemaker can serve an elaborate, homemade holiday dinner for as many as 20 persons without spending the whole day in the kitchen. The secret is to do almost everything, including roasting and carving the turkey, in advance.

This sensible system for enjoying a relaxed holiday with family and guests takes careful planning. It also calls for a roomy new electric refrigerator-freezer to hold all the dinner ingredients, as well as the usual family fare.

The refrigerator section of a modern electric refrigerator-freezer can easily hold a large number of individual portions of foil-wrapped turkey and dressing, plus the gravy, potato casserole, cranberry sauce, assorted relishes, and pie—all ready to be heated and served. There's plenty of room left for everyday family foods such as milk, butter, eggs, fresh vegetables and fruit, condiments and beverages.

Pajamas Use New Fabrics

Classic coat and pullover styles in pajamas top either long or short pants in the Christmas line-up of comfortable, handsome pajamas for the man in your life.

A new range of exciting fabrics help a guy keep comfortable in any weather. And, there's a terrific selection in easy-care, light-weight fabrics in all sorts of distinctive patterns and colors.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Guard Home During Party With Ideas From Experts

Holiday parties are apt to leave their mark on the home by way of spills and spots on furniture, carpet and walls.

You can guard against some of them with these suggestions from some experts.

Use masking tape instead of cellophane tape when hangnig mistletoe or ornaments. This will prevent the marring of smooth wall and door surfaces.

Lay in a supply of paper towels, for quick use in blotting spilled drinks, and also any mud tracked into the house.

Freshen the carpet as soon as guests leave with a brush that holds a cleaning solution.

Protect the carpet from muddy shoes by getting out the welcome mat on which guests and children can wipe their shoes, and covering one corner with a spray of holly.

For candy and gummy substances on furniture fabrics, scrape off the excess, then sponge the stain with a solvent-type cleaner for grease and oil. Blot with a tissue and repeat the procedure, brushing up the nap of the fabric afterward.

To remove chewing gum, moisten a tissue with a solvent-type cleaning fluid, hold over the spot for two minutes to loosen the gum and then sponge the fabric with cleaning fluid.

Melt wax marks off carpet or furniture by holding a warm iron over the surface. Then, sprinkle with a solvent-type cleaner, blot dry and repeat process until marks disappear.

Spilled soda pop and coffee should be mopped up immediately and given the sponge-blot-sponge cleaning treatment prescribed for candy spots.

Family Parties To Highlight Chanukah

The Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael will highlight the celebration of Chanukah with a Family Party on Sunday at 1:15 p.m. in the Center auditorium.

Featured will be a playlet entitled, "The Foolish Wise Men Of Chelm." Participants will be Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Rosenthal, Terry Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Liggett and Mr. and Mrs. Evan Goldenberg.

In addition there will be a quiz about the history and significance of the holiday, the lighting of the candelabra, community singing and gifts for the children.

The adults too will have a Chanukah celebration, featuring dancing and Chanukah games on Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The evening will conclude with the serving of the traditional "Latkes" (potato pancakes) usually served at this time.

Morris A. Bode will light the Chanukah candles, and Mrs. Martin Marks will entertain with Hebrew songs.

Kenneth Bechtel Weds In Oakland

San Francisco will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Bechtel, who were married this month at the home of the bridegroom's brother, Stephen Bechtel in Oakland.

The bride is the former Mrs. Nancy Foote Slusser, daughter of Gilbert Foote of Calistoga and the late Mrs. Foote. She is the mother of two sons, James and David Slusser by her marriage to Willis Slusser of Berkeley.

Mr. Bechtel, formerly of Ross, is a past president of Boy Scouts of America and a member of the Bohemian and Pacific Union Clubs in San Francisco. The father of Peter and Jon Bechtel, he was previously married to the former Elizabeth Hay.

The wedding, which was attended by family members and close friends, was performed by Dr. Paul Yinger of Piedmont Community Church.

OPERA STAR Mary Costa will be welcomed as the honored guest on Thursday at "Fashions With a View" from the Ondine in Sausalito. Miss Costa is in the area for a special concert on Sunday afternoon at the Curran Theater in San Francisco.

View Show To Welcome Opera Star

"Why does one girl have to have everything?" is the question most asked by music critics when viewing a performance of the beauteous opera star, Mary Costa.

On Thursday, at the second gala Christmas luncheon of "Fashions With a View" from the Ondine in Sausalito, guests will be able to see and to talk with the star of the critics' admiration.

Miss Costa will be welcomed to Marin for her first visit on Thursday. She is currently in the Bay Area to present a concert on Sunday afternoon at the Curran Theater.

In her honor, "Fashions With a View" will tell the legend of "The Music Tree" with caroling books at each place for the luncheon guests.

Promenading holiday fashions will be Mrs. David Sederquist, Mrs. Richard J. Woods, Mrs. Les Vogel and Mrs. John Bellamy Jr.

Rusek Students Hold Workshop

Participating were Barbara Baldridge, Lynn Terwilliger, Leith Lewin, Vally Miller, Jutta Reich, Adria Michelson, Marianne Gustafson, Judy Horst, Jan McCready, Sally Champlin, Janice Fuller and Dave Kuffner.

The get togethers are held every eight weeks for the purpose of overcoming the shyness of beginners in singing before an audience. In February a workshop recital for parents and friends is planned.

Impressive Array Of Books Out

If you — or some of the people on your gift lists — would like Santa Claus to bring a bright, sumptuous book that will look fine on your shelves or your lap, fear not. The bookstores are crammed with them this fall.

The October and November publishing lists are crowded with "gift books," those impressive volumes designed to interest people who are avidly devoted to special subjects.

Art, music, nature, archeology and history, for example. Usually these books ranging in price up to $30, are filled with illustrations—both black and white and color — and are very impressive.

Life magazine and its editors are involved with several books, one of the most impressive being "The Life Pictorial Atlas of the World," a 600-page compendium of maps, pictures, aerial representations and text, published by Rand-McNally. The Golden Press is responsible for "The Life Treasury of American Folklore," and Prentice-Hall has brought out "The Epic of Man," a lush volume also by the editors of Life.

A book that combines both art and history is "The Horizon Book of the Renaissance" (Doubleday), the first book to develop out of Horizon magazine, with 300 pictures in black and white, 180 in color, and texts by eminent scholars.

For anyone interested in early cultures there is "The Dawn of Civilization," with nearly 1,000 illustrations, maps and charts, published by McGraw - Hill. Also "Four Thousand Years Ago," by Geoffrey Bibby, published by Knopf.

Music lovers should find interest in "Crowell's Handbook of World Opera," an encyclopedic type of book edited by conductor Frank Leslie Moore for Crowell, with information on more than 500 operas and 1,500 personalities.

They also might be interested in Martyn Green's "Treasury of Gilbert and Sullivan," (Simon and Schuster). Or in "The Family Music Book" by Grosset and Dunlap, containing more than 300 pieces for voice, piano and organ.

Putnam's also has several encyclopedic works to add to its list—"The Larousse Encyclopedia of the Earth," and "The Larousse Encyclopedia of World Geography: Europe," both lavishly illustrated. Random House has issued "The Continent We Live On," a beautifully illustrated volume by naturalist Ivan Sanderson.

There also is a "Larousse Gastronomique," published by Crown, which is an upper crust reference book for chefs and epicures alike, a basic compilation that stands out among the flood of cookbooks and table topics. With 8,500 recipes and 1,000 illustrations, it is as large as an unabridged dictionary.

Unemployment, Racial Tension And Alcohol Factors In Riots

"ONE THOUSAND YOUTHS BATTLE POLICE," a headline screams, and "TEEN-AGE RACE RIOTS FLARE ANEW." Have you ever seen a youth riot? It's a blood-chilling sight.

Why so many riots this year? There are several reasons. Racial tensions is one, unemployment is another. But a third cause has not been recognized sufficiently. More kids are getting drunk this year than ever before. It is too easy for them to buy liquor. I believe that increased drunkenness accounts for the rise in the number of teenage explosions.

Kids are hot-headed even when sober. They go to ball games or parties, and get excited. Then they drink, and lose all restraint. They do silly things. Cops appear and try to quiet them. They arrest the leaders. Blooey! The riot is on. Or maybe it isn't cops. Maybe some members of another gang turn up. Or two or three white boys appear in a colored neighborhood, or vice versa. Hatreds flare, and all Hades breaks loose.

Many reforms are needed, but one could come quickly. If every official tried, and if every liquor dealer cooperated, we could come close to drying up the alcohol supply for most youngsters. Some would get it anyway, of course. But we could make a remarkable difference in the drinking habits of teen-agers. We could, and we should.

Will you help? Let your friends know that drunkenness is an unrecognized cause for the increase in youth riots. Get them to ask for official drives against the adults who supply the liquor. Have your clubs pass resolutions. Law enforcement will improve quickly, if enough of us demand it.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Our minister says that drunkenness is an underlying factor in most juvenile delinquency. That sounds extreme to me. Is he right?"

J.S.

(A) He may be. Recently a check on delinquency in one state revealed that drinking had been a significant factor in over half of the juvenile court cases in 1960.

Extra Care In Wrapping Gifts Adds To Pleasure Of Recipients

This Christmas, take a little extra time with your gift wrapping to come up with charming, unusual designs that will add greatly to the pleasure of all concerned.

There are so many ways to use wrapping paper, tape and ribbon that you're sure to run out of gifts — before you run out of ideas.

Here are some suggestions for achieving that personally gift wrapped look:

The children on your list will be delighted to find Santa Claus's smiling face on their presents. For this jolly portrait, cut out Santa's features from heavy paper in appropriate colors and paste them onto a rectangular box. If you prefer, you can use self-adhesive paper. It comes in all colors and can be cut to resemble any form you like and attached to the top of your paper. Popular motifs for such cut-outs are little angels or animals. If you're not talented in the drawing department, simply trace your cutouts from magazine or books.

A clever way to handle this problem is by turning your gift into a clown with bright gummed-back paper. Draw the clown's face on the neck and the bottle and tie it with a big bow. Make paper into a cone shape for the clown's hat, finishing it off with ball fringe. The fringe can also serve as his nose and for the buttons on his "suit."

In every group of presents there is at least one item of such an irregular shape that it's impossible to wrap it neatly. For these problem gifts try making a paper sack from bright red paper, using a plain grocery bag as your pattern. Apply a design cut out from left-over gift wrapping paper for colorful decorations.

A clever way to put leftover scraps of wrapping paper to good use is by cutting out words or designs and pasting them on shiny black wrapping paper. The results makes a striking package that is particularly appropriate for masculine gifts.

These are just a few ideas to get you started on your personalized gift wrapping — you'll find that as you go along, other ideas will occur to you for making your gifts unusually colorful and interesting.

For Warm Yule Gift: Thermostat

Looking for something useful and practical as a Christmas gift—something that can be used every day?

You can easily find it in the store of your neighborhood plumbing and heating contractor.

One of the items that would be welcomed by the folks on your Christmas list is a thermostat. Modern thermostats, because they are so sensitive, give much closer control of the indoor temperature. Thus they provide greater comfort while saving fuel.

Another very useful item is a new faucet for the kitchen sink. The newer faucets mix the the water, aerate it and have a spray hose attachment.

A gift that would be appreciated by everyone is a new showerhead. The latest heads have a volume control. They are practically nonclogging because all the sediment can be flushed out very easily.

Grab bars over the bathtub would serve a useful purpose in that they would prevent serious falls. Also they make it easier to get in and out of the bathtub.

And speaking of bathtubs, another useful gift is a bathtub enclosure which converts the bathtub into a watertight shower compartment.

A glamorous new medicine cabinet would be a very acceptable gift. Some have shadowless lighting and some have sliding doors. With their handsome modern lines they dress up the bathroom.

Other useful items that will keep on giving are a food waste disposer, an automatic dishwasher, a water heater, a water softener, or some new cabinets in the kitchen.

Candle Legend

If you burn a bayberry candle during the Christmas holidays, and the candle burns bright and clear, legend says that you will have good luck throughout the year and a long and happy life.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 5, the 339th day of the year with 26 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1776, the first scholastic fraternity in America, Phi Beta Kappa, was organized at the College of William and Mary.

In 1933, Prohibition was abolished with the 21st Amendment.

In 1934, 66 persons were executed in Russia following the "purge" trials at which they were charged with plotting against the Stalin regime.

A thought for the day: English writer and satirist Jonathan Swift said: "Satire is a sort of glass, wherein beholders do generally discover everybody's face but their own."

New Respertrain Is Real George With Red Cross

He is not the handsomest member but the chapter has welcomed him with open arms. He is affectionately called "George."

George is a dummy—a "Respertrain." He has been purchased by the chapter to aid in the teaching of mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing, according to Jerry Van Soest, first aid services chairman.

Rescue breathing cannot be practiced on a conscious person, Van Soest explains. Therein lies George's value, for he reproduces accurately the problems of a real victim of drowning, shock or other accidents which cause breathing to stop. Even his appearance is realistic. The plastic skin is tinted to simulate the appearance of a person in whom breathing has stopped.

Furthermore, George has been designed to respond, as does the human body, to both correct and incorrect techniques of rescue breathing.

The "Respertrain" has a synthetic rubber skin and oral cavity with resiliant foam plastic flesh. Its lips are soft and its mouth can be opened by gentle stretching. Its nose has soft nostrils which may be pinched shut, a stiffer septum and a rigid bone. Its tongue feels and moves about like the human tongue.

There is a durable skeletal structure under the soft tissue containing precise mechanisms which sense the motions of the jaw and neck and produce human responses.

Students who have used the "Respertrain" have learned correct procedures in mouth-to-mouth breathing. If the operator is functioning properly, with the head tilted, jaw lifted and nose pinched shut to prevent air escaping, the lungs of the "Respertrain" will fill and, as the air is expelled, a hissing sound will be emitted.

If there is not response, the students learns, the head must be tilted back farther. If the stomach inflates instead of the lungs, it may indicate that the lower jaw is not pulled out properly to permit unobstructed passage of air to the lungs.

In addition the "Respertrain's" head may be turned, reproducing the procedures for locating and removing foreign matter by sweeping the oral cavity with a finger.

Speed Limit Being Reduced

The speed limit is being reduced from 65 to 35 miles-per-hour on sections of Shoreline Highway north and south of Point Reyes Station, the California Highway Patrol announced today.

One stretch extends from 1,400 feet south of the town to 200 feet north of B Street where it joins a 25-mile zone. The other new 35-mile zone adjoins the north end of an existing 25-mile zone about 250 feet south of Nob Hill Road and extends to 1,900 feet north of the Petaluma-Point Reyes road.

There's Plenty Of Entertainment If Hummingbirds Are Around

Never A Dull Moment When These Little Feathered Friends Pick Your Yard As Feeding Grounds

By DON KEOWN

Louis and Valerie Bouteiller of 9 Alder Court, Fairfax, are birdwatchers with a specialty. They find the antics of hummingbirds fascinating And there is no shortage of the little winged entertainers in their yard.

The Bouteillers are not at all surprised to find as many as 14 or 15 of the little birds fluttering or hovering about their backyard at one time.

It is not surprising, however, that the "hummers" have made the Bouteiller premises a favorite gathering place. For one thing, the Bouteillers have no less than 110 rose bushes growing in their 50-by-100-foot lot. And if this natural attraction were not enough, the Bouteillers service regularly a number of "feeders" which they have put up for their little feathered visitors.

IT WAS ABOUT three years ago, Bouteiller, a clock repairman, recalls, that they first began to be really interested in the hummingbirds which were visiting their yard in increasing numbers. He went to a pet supply store and purchased a feeder. Since then the Bouteillers have increased the number of feeders they have maintained to a total of seven.

Louis makes most of his own feeders. He uses laboratory test tubes with a small offset tip running from the main tube.

The tubes are filled with a solution composed of one cup of sugar to two cups of water and simmered for three minutes. Some hummingbird fanciers prefer to use honey, Bouteiller says.

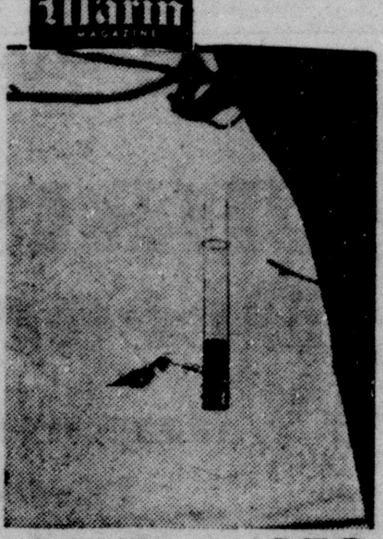
To that solution is added red coloring to attract the birds.

"Without the coloring, they will still drink it," he explains. "But they are far less likely to be attracted to it."

The tube is filled, corked and hung upside down from the tree. The offset or tip extends from the test tube, and from it the birds actually feed.

Bouteiller gets his tubes from a wholesale chemical supply house. If the tubes equipped with the offset tip are not available, the smaller drinking tube can be fashioned from such things as a slender glass drinking straw, he adds. It is inserted into a small hole through the cork and up into the tube and its contents.

Louis takes strong exception to one theory that an "epidemic" of recent deaths among hummingbirds was the result of overfeeding by fanciers such as himself and his wife.



COVER PHOTO

IN ADDITION to the enjoyment Louis Bouteiller and his wife get out of observing the antics of their hummingbird friends, he has also developed a hobby of photographing them. Here he has caught one of the tiny birds at one of the feeders he has installed for their enjoyment.

"That doesn't make sense," he says, "because if you watch them, you will see that, when they finish at the feeder, they move right on to the flowers and drink still more nectar."

HE HAS HIS own theory as to the cause of the hummingbird fatalities. They are, he says, the casualties of war.

Each year when the Oregon hummingbirds pass through Marin, he says, there is fierce aerial warfare between those migrants and the Anna birds which make their home the year around in Marin.

"When you see a dead hummingbird, it is usually the victim of such a fight," he claims.

The Oregon hummingbirds, which actually summer as far north as Alaska, are a cinnamon color and prettier than the Annas which are more commonly seen in Marin, Bouteiller says.

The hummingbird, despite its tiny size and attractive appearance, is actually a cruel bird, Bouteiller reports.

"They spend a good part of their time fighting," Bouteiller reports, "and when they do, they give no quarter."

The "hummers" apparently fear nothing. They will attack, not only each other, but bees and larger birds as well.

Nor are they particularly fearful of man.

One of the sidelights of Bouteiller's birdwatching and feeding hobby is the photographing of the hummingbirds.

"It is not unusual to get as close as 18 inches to the hummingbird and take the picture," he says.

Mother birds are strict and "kick" their youngsters from the nests while they are still quite tiny, leaving them to fend for themselves.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

It Doesn't Have To Be Fatal If You Get Wrong Contract

It isn't always fatal to get to the wrong contract. You just have to play a little harder to get a good result.

West leads the deuce of diamonds, and you begin to regret your bidding when you see the dummy. Your partner would easily win nine or ten tricks at notrump.

Still, you're not yet worried about making four spades. You play the queen of diamonds from dummy, East covers with the ace, and you ruff.

You say you don't ruff? You discard the deuce of clubs instead of ruffing? Congratulations. You've made a beautiful play, and let's hope you'd do it even if you couldn't see those five trumps in the West hand.

NO TROUBLE: You have no further trouble after this fine discard. You can draw five rounds of trumps and can enter dummy with the jack of hearts to discard another club on the king of diamonds. Then you take the rest of the hearts, winning ten tricks.

Life would be miserable if you ruffed the first diamond. You would eventually lose a trump and three clubs.

You may feel that the 5-1 trump break is too unusual to bother about, but the point is that it costs you nothing to be careful. East's bid locates the ace of clubs, so you should expect to lose three club tricks no matter how you play the hand. Why waste a trump?

♦ 9 6 4 2
♣ 10 9

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. It is up to your partner to rescue himself from the redouble. If he bids one heart, you will pass until doubled. Then you will bid one spade. Give your partner as much chance as possible to get out at an undoubled contract.

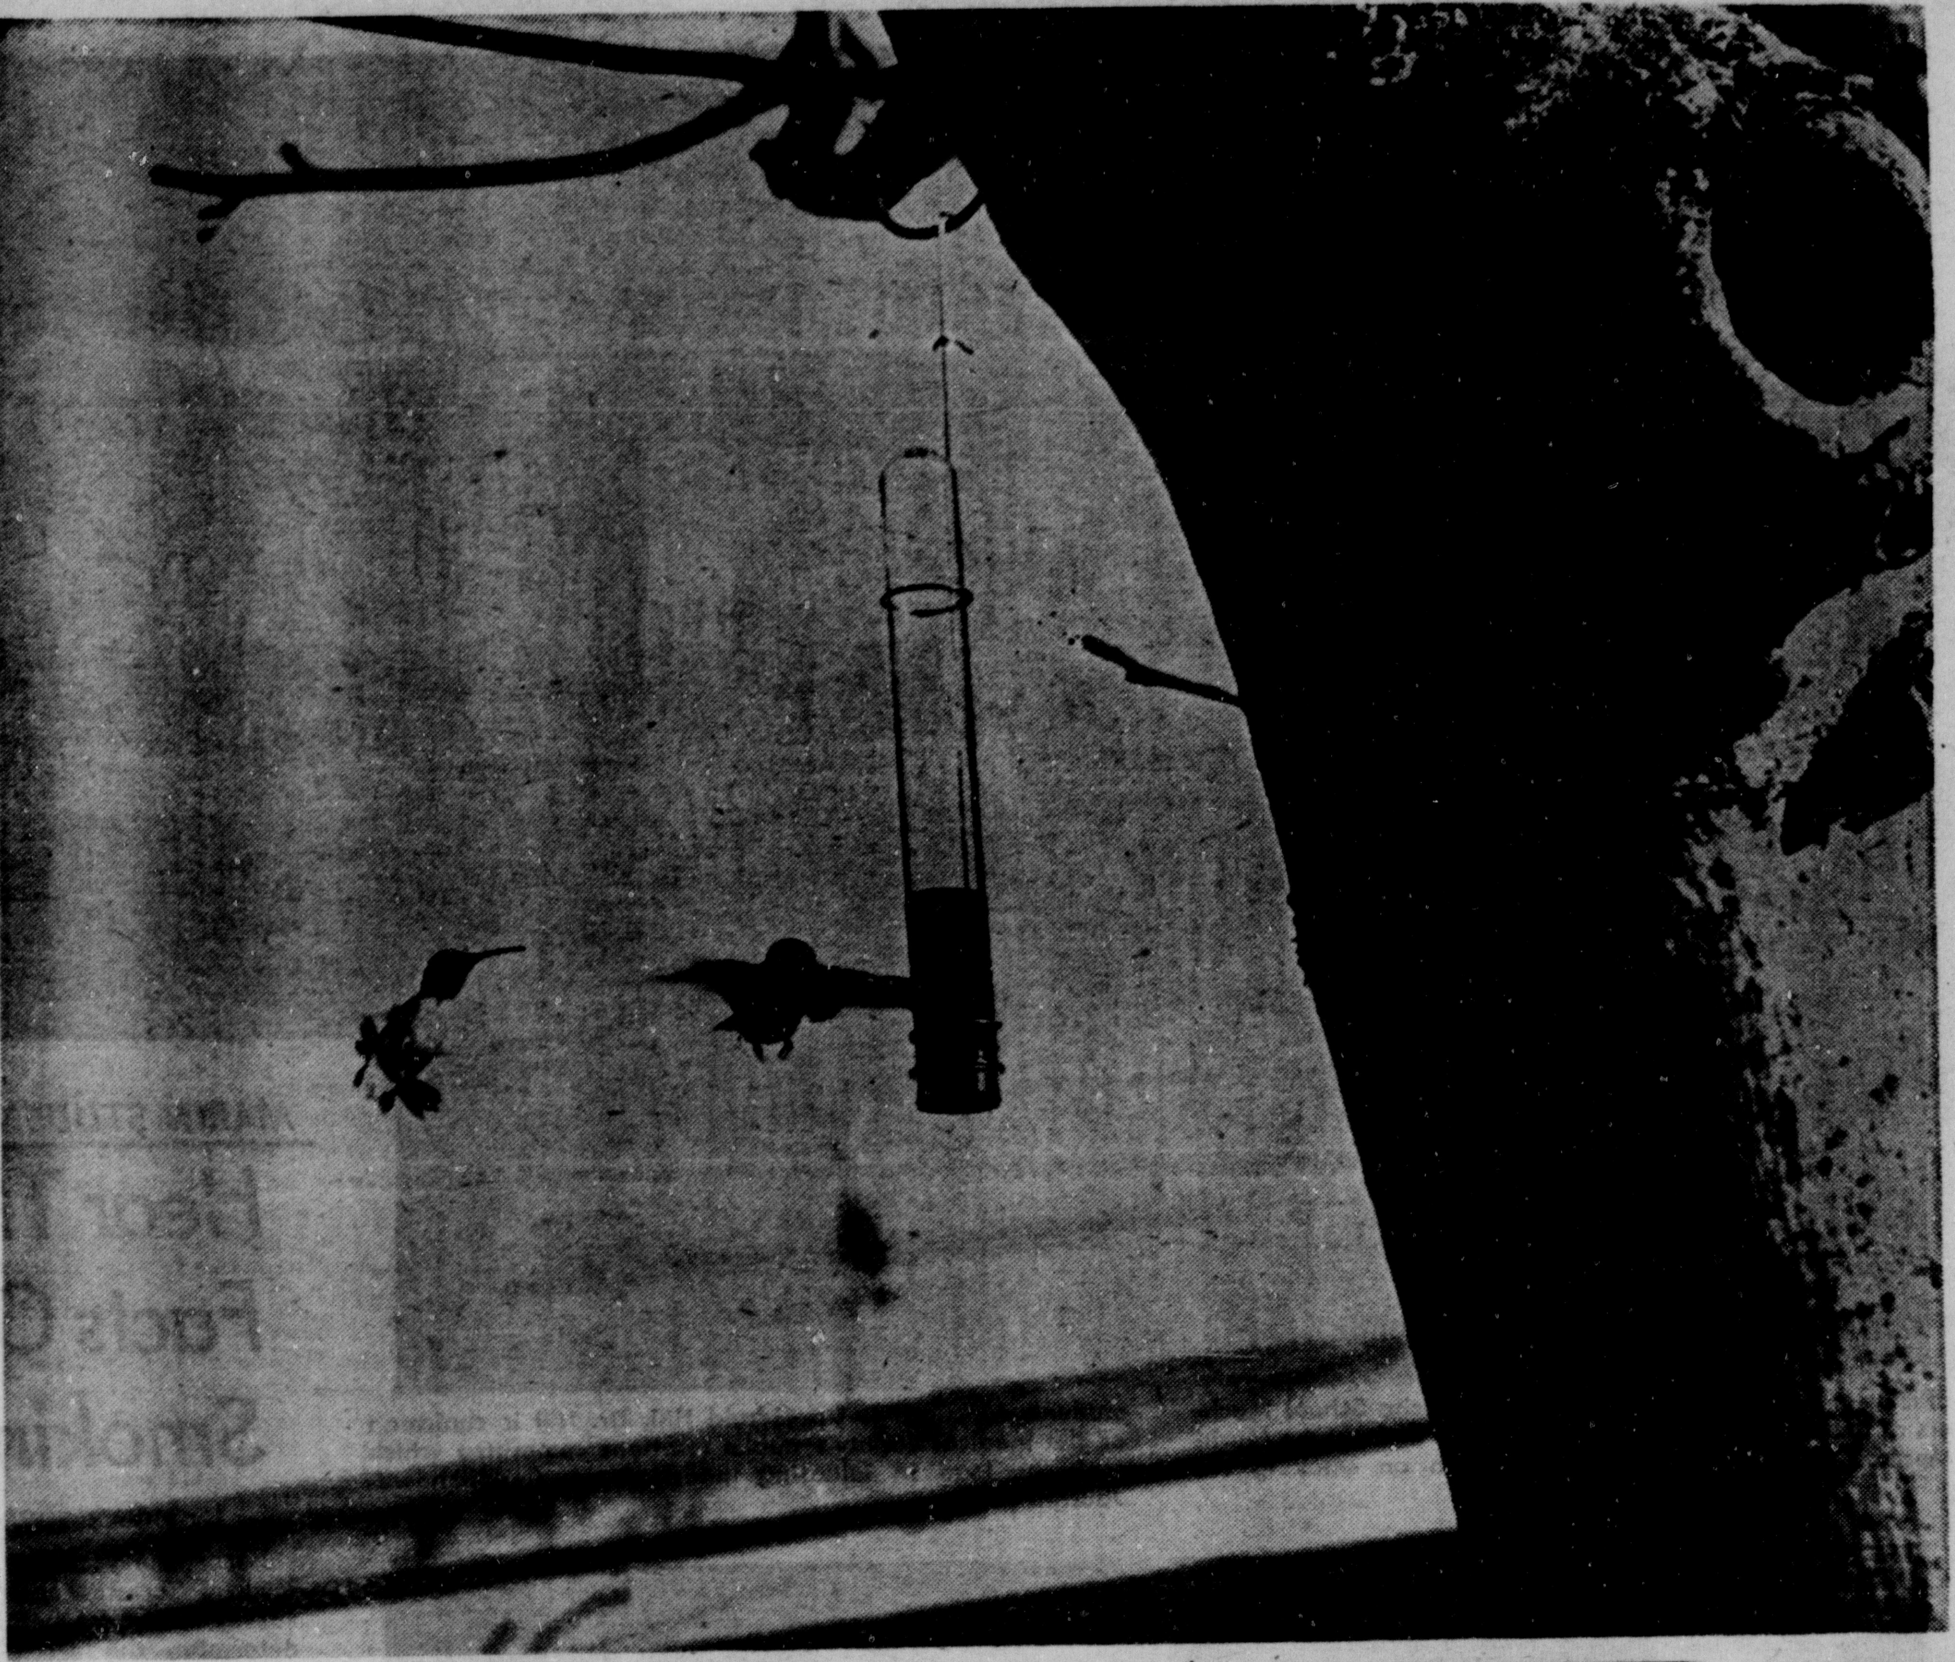
DENTAL ASSISTANT — Experience preferred, typing necessary. Mail replies to Independent-Journal, Box 166.



THIS IS ANOTHER of Louis Bouteiller's photographs of hummingbirds in his Fairfax backyard. One bird is coming in for a snack from the homemade feeder, while another bird hovers a short distance off, probably guarding what he regards as his own private feeding preserve.

Built in heavy foliage of a tree or bush, they are well camouflaged. And their size is such that they can be covered with a silver dollar.

While Bouteiller makes his own feeders for reasons of economy, the ready-made feeders that can be bought at pet supply stores also work well, he says.

As for flowers, hummingbirds seem to like them all. But the fuchsia is a special favorite, according to Bouteiller. And there is one Italian fuchsia over which they go wild.

"Theres' an area near Fort Ross where this particular fuchsia flourishes, and it's worth the trip there just to see the hundreds of hummingbirds," Bouteiller says.

Some other hummingbird data from Bouteiller:

The birds become very possessive "and come to think they own a certain tube. They'll guard it and divebomb other hummers that go near their feeder."

The flight range of the Annas is not great and their nest is very likely within close proximity of their favorite feeding grounds.

The male and his mate stay together pretty well. He is brighter in color, but they are of about the same size.

The hummers are early risers, often being up and about well before dawn. They're back in their nest before sundown.

HUMMINGBIRD eggs are about half the size of the fingernail on your little finger.

Some believe the hummers are never still. Not so. They are frequently content to sit for long periods on a branch or on a wire.

Mr. and Mrs. Bouteiller have found that they learn something new about the hummers every time they watch them — which is frequently.

The little birds may be quarrelsome and even vicious at times ,they will agree. But on the other hand, their pluck and industry is to be admired. And they are a decorative and cheerful addition to any backyard.

BRIEFING HIS FELLOW doctors and Vallecito School teachers at the Vallecito School in Terra Linda on how the Marin Medical Society's educational program on smoking for students functions is Dr. Gerald Hill. Dr. Hill is chairman of the medical society's public relations committee which took the lead in initiating the program. (Independent-Journal photos)

TEACHERS AND DOCTORS listen intently at the Vallecito School to Dr. Hill's explanation of the medical society's educational program on smoking. The "briefing" was in advance of the actual presentation of the informational program by doctors before classes of students at Vallecito.

Hear The Facts On Smoking

By DON KEOWN

Early this year the Marin Medical Society conducted a survey among its members to determine the areas where those doctors felt the medical profession might render greatest service to their communities beyond the usual gamut of their professional activities.

"By and large, our major interest was in doing something for students through the school system," he explains. "As a psychiatrist I was personally interested in finding an activity that might deal with both the psychological and physical problems of the boys and girls."

SEVERAL subjects were suggested by the doctors covered in the survey. But the one most frequently mentioned by far was smoking—and its grim relationship to lung cancer.

The doctors pointed to an American Cancer Society estimate that one million children now in school will eventually die of lung cancer if present trends continue.

"Though this in itself would be reason enough to justify a program to enlighten children on the dangers of smoking," Dr. Hill continues, "we soon found that the motivations behind smoking were much more interesting to all concerned—doctors, teachers and the students."

Cigarette smoking is a paradoxical activity, the psychiatrist notes. For adolescents, it has become symbolic of "growing up" since it has become a prestige activity associated with adults. Yet it

Marin Doctors Spotlight The Facts About Tobacco

DR. HILL explains: "Closely associated with sucking and not too remotely removed from blowing bubbles, it is a mouth activity that does give one something to do in such a way as to be an outlet for tension."

"But," he continues, "it is also, unfortunately, an activity to which one can become addicted, since nicotine is an addiction-forming drug. The habit-forming aspects of cigarette smoking are well known, and the advertising query, 'Are you smoking more now and enjoying it less?', reveals this effect of smoking as well as the tiring with a particular brand."

There are many other correlated side effects of smoking that parents of present teen-agers did not have available to them when they began their smoking, Dr. Hill adds.

The Marin Medical Society began exploring the practicality of carrying such information into the schools to the students. And the doctors discovered that the American Cancer Society, in connection with its specific interest in cancer, was already engaged in trying to disseminate information on the subject. In fact the society had developed a kit incorporating a film strip, a 15-minute recording, a teachers' guide and leaflets on the subject. "Much of this was excellent," Dr. Hill says, and at the outset the Marin Medical Society began building its own program largely around these materials.

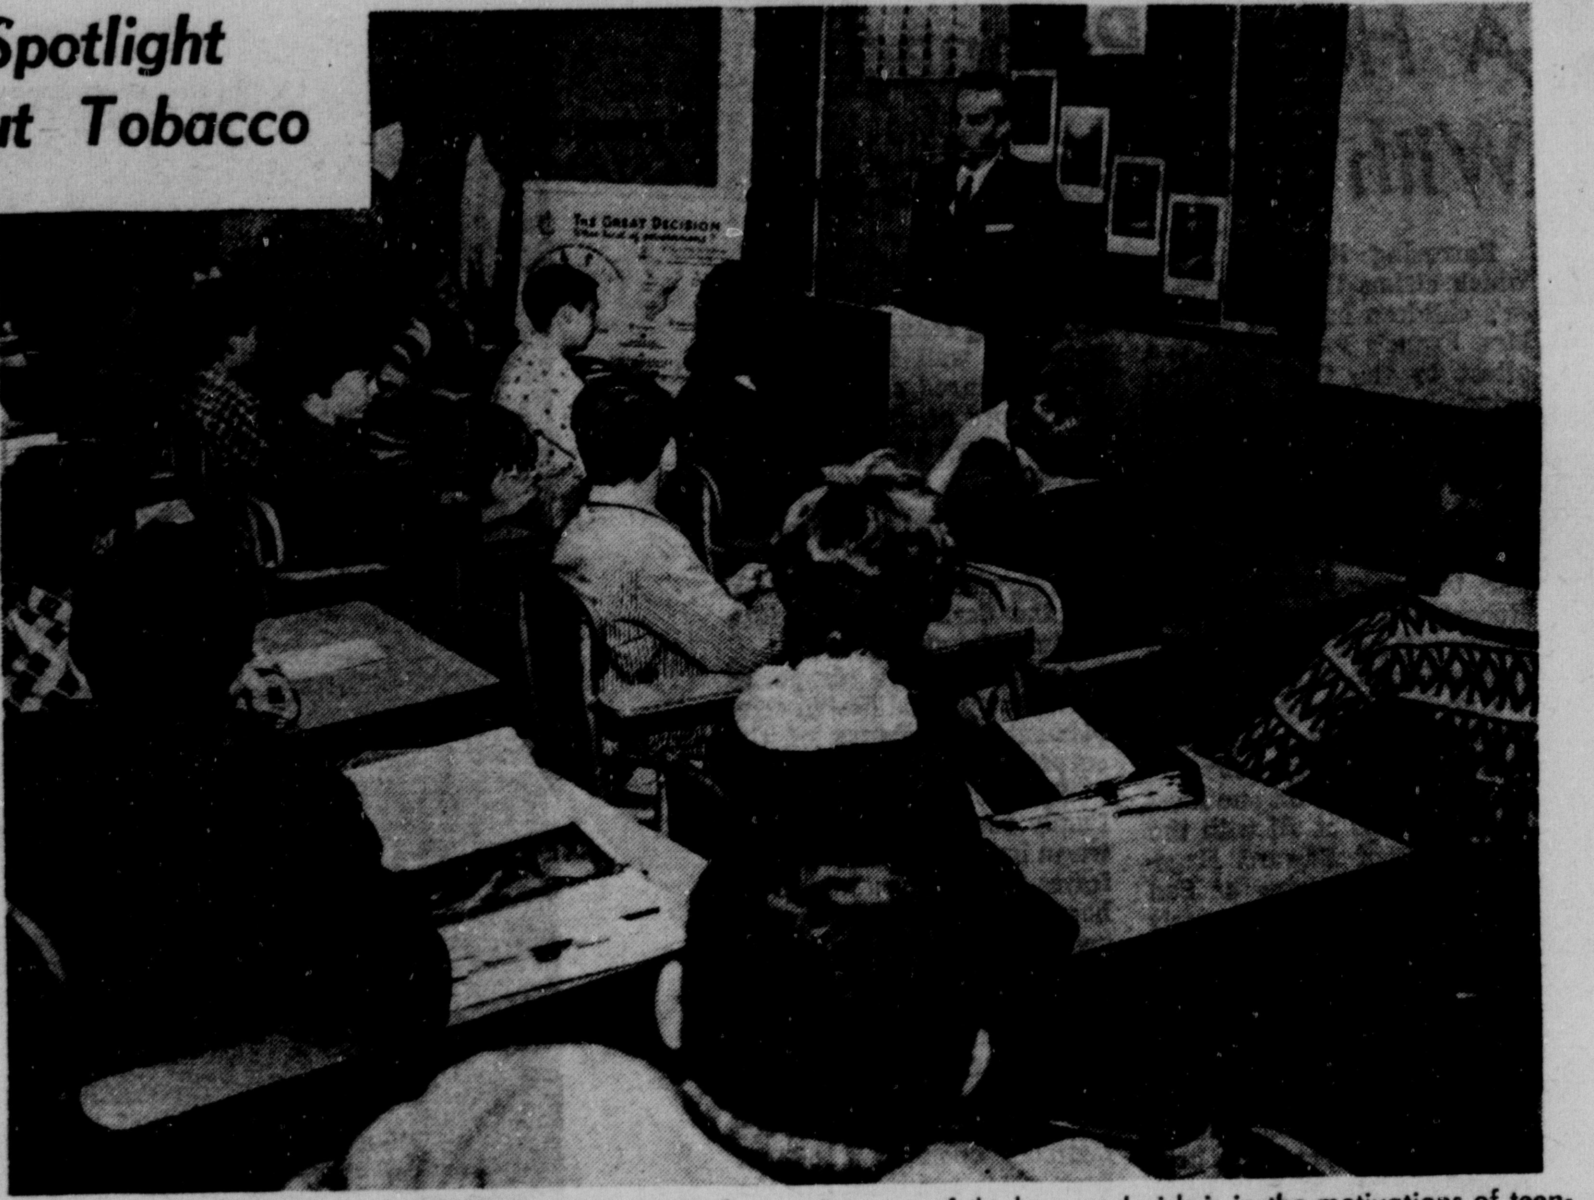
The Marin doctors learned with interest that a study made in 1958 involving 22,000 students in 21 high schools in and around Portland, Ore., had resulted in these significant findings:

Some 25.8 per cent of the boys and 13.6 per cent of the girls smoked regularly at least once a week.

Each successive school grade had a higher percentage of smokers than the preceding grade.

(The Marin doctors' experience at Terra Linda's Vallecito School confirmed this finding. Not only was the percentage of smokers among the eighth graders substantially higher than among the seventh graders, but the doctors also found the younger seventh graders much more receptive to their presentation than the eighth graders.)

PARENTAL smoking behavior was significantly related to the smoking behavior of high school students. The percentage of regular smokers was higher among children in families in which both parents smoked cigarettes, lowest in families in which neither parent had been a smoker, and intermediate in families in which only one parent smoked cigarettes. The percentage of smokers among the children in families in which one or both parents had given up smoking was significantly lower than the percentage in families in which the parent (or parents) had continued to smoke.



STUDENTS IN ONE Vallecito School class at Terra Linda listen while Dr. Jean Pouteau presents them with facts about smoking. The doctors have found that one of the prime interests of the boys and girls is in the motivations of teen-age smokers—why young people take up cigarette smoking. (Independent-Journal photo)

There were more smokers among boys who did not participate in athletics (or participated where no coach was employed) than among boys who reported having an athletic coach. Among students who did not participate in other extracurricular activities at school, the percentage of smokers was higher than among those who participated in at least one such activity.

In the testing of five different educational approaches, the survey indicated that the most effective approach was that of logical reasoning in terms of effects in later life; the least effective was to tell students, in an authoritarian way, not to smoke.

The Marin medics also incorporated additional information accumulated elsewhere in recent years into the foundation for their own program:

Death rates from all causes combined increase with the number of cigarettes smoked daily, and are more than two times as high for the two or more pack-a-day smokers than the non-smokers. (This, says Dr. Hill, was verified in a study of 200,000 veterans by the National Institute of Health.)

Men who stopped smoking had death rates lower from all causes than those who continued to smoke.

Lung cancer death rates were more than 10 times as high among regular cigarette smokers than among men who had never smoked.

CORONARY heart death rates for smokers were nearly two and a half times as high for pack-a-day smokers than for non-smokers.

Deaths from lung diseases other than cancer were nearly three times as high among cigarette smokers as non-smokers.

Women who smoke during pregnancy tend to have smaller babies and also show a greater tendency toward premature babies in a two to one ratio. Fetal death rates were more than twice as high among the infants of cigarette smokers.

As women take up smoking, the same mortality statistics are applying to them as apply to men.

"All this," says Dr. Hill, "gave us pause to reflect upon the immensity of the health problem created in the wake of widespread cigarette smoking."

In May the Marin Medical Society conducted its "pilot study" at the Hill School in Novato and at Terra Linda High School.

The doctors found "great interest" in their project to inform the youths about the relationship between smoking and general health. But they found a surprising emphasis among the students on the motivations for taking up smoking among the 12 to 15-year-old group.

"As a result, we gradually incorporated more and more on this aspect of the smoking problem into our program," Dr. Hill says.

STATISTICS collected by the medical society indicated that teen-age smoking in Marin was higher than in other areas where such studies had been conducted. The indication was that from 25 to 30 per cent of the seventh and eighth grade boys were already smokers, at least on a regular once a week basis if not daily. By the senior level in high school, it appears that more than 50 per cent of the boys smoke.

Corresponding percentages for girls are about 12 to 15 per cent on the intermediate level, from 30 to 35 per cent on the senior level.

"But even by the eighth grade, about 80 per cent of the boys and girls have at least tried a cigarette to see what it is like," Dr. Hill reports.

In answer to this desire for more information on motivations, the Marin program lists the young smokers in three categories:

Those who smoke as a dramatic activity bridging childhood and adulthood. To them, smoking is an imitation of what an idealized adult does; as such it is a normal impulse in 50 per cent of the teen-agers who smoke in their attempts to identify with an adult and so feel "grown-up." The doctors say that this group is the most responsive among the young smokers to their program. They estimate that at least 25 per cent of this group may be deterred from smoking.

Those who smoke as a compensatory activity for feeling "left out" of things, inadequate socially or scholastically. For them, smoking often starts on a dare or for "kicks" and then becomes linked to personality problems. Involved are about 25 per cent of the teen-age smokers. This group, the doctors say, may be alerted to thinking about themselves in more general terms by the medical society program, and may even consider seeking personality guidance from counselors, teachers, parents or professional people.

Those who smoke as a

By Bert Brown, Marin Cleaners of San Rafael, Bel Aire, & Fairfax, GL 4-4792
Member, Textile Maintenance Committee, University of California

"Did Cleaning Stretch My Sports Dress?"

Your sports dress is a high-napped Acrilan knit. Is is soft and has the luxurious feel of cashmere. Washable, fast-drying and though it will not shrink, it has disadvantages. Stretching and distortion have been problems with Acrilan and Orlon knits. This comes from normal wear or with laundering or drycleaning. It is difficult to determine which caused yours to stretch. Perhaps both wearing and cleansing contributed.

Acrylic knit garments have qualified serviceability. While they may be advertised as holding true to shape and size, these garments have not been proven to do so to date.

Pilling or balling is another complaint heard about high-napping acrylic knits. Its soft texture and loose surface fibers cause it to form small "pills" or "balls" during wear. Greying is a frequent complaint, too. The high nap generates more static electricity than un-napped fibers and attracts soil in the cleansing process, dulling the colors.

The chances are that wear caused your sports dress to stretch. Professional drycleaners know how to handle such garments and employ special care to see that shape and size are maintained. Acrylic knit garments, though a delight to wear and most attractive, must be recognized as having qualified serviceability.

A Home Planned With Loving Care

Reversing the old adage which claims that "shoemaker's children have no shoes," Mrs. Francis Parnow Sr. can attest to the fact that this principle does not necessarily hold true for families of builders. Mrs. Parnow is proud of the lovely home and pool built for her at 44 Arguella Circle in Villa Real by her two sons, William and Robert, who operate Custom Builders-Parnow Bros., 47 Louise Street, San Rafael.

Her special needs and wishes were uppermost in their minds. Her sons designed the house on one level with no steps at all with the assistance of Edward Hageman and Associates of San Rafael. "L" shaped, it rests on a flat plateau, set back from the street for privacy and yet with easy access by private driveway. Used to a big house, Mrs. Parnow is well pleased with the large living room, full-scale dining room, family room, three bedroom, two and a half bath, kitchen and generous service area.

A LANDSCAPED WALK leads to the sheltered entry at the side of the house. Brick is used in walks and garden walls, combined with vertical siding, painted white, in exterior treatment. An overhanging roof provides shelter and seclusion on the entry side, while the use of diamond-design leaded glass in bay windows and in trim of the large living room window adds interesting detail.

Louvered doors at the entry are painted shocking pink. From the central entrance one may go directly to the spacious living room or the informal family room, whose louvered doors shut it off when desired. The full size dining room also has louvered doors. Hall, living and dining rooms are all carpeted in wall to wall rose beige textured carpet unified by the use of soft rose walls with paler rose tone on ceilings.

Walls in the comfortable family room are of birch in warm brown. Utah used brick forms the fireplace. A raised hearth provides seating space. A built-in desk, book shelves and storage cabinet add to the room's convenience. The easy-care flooring is linoleum in brown leaf pattern.

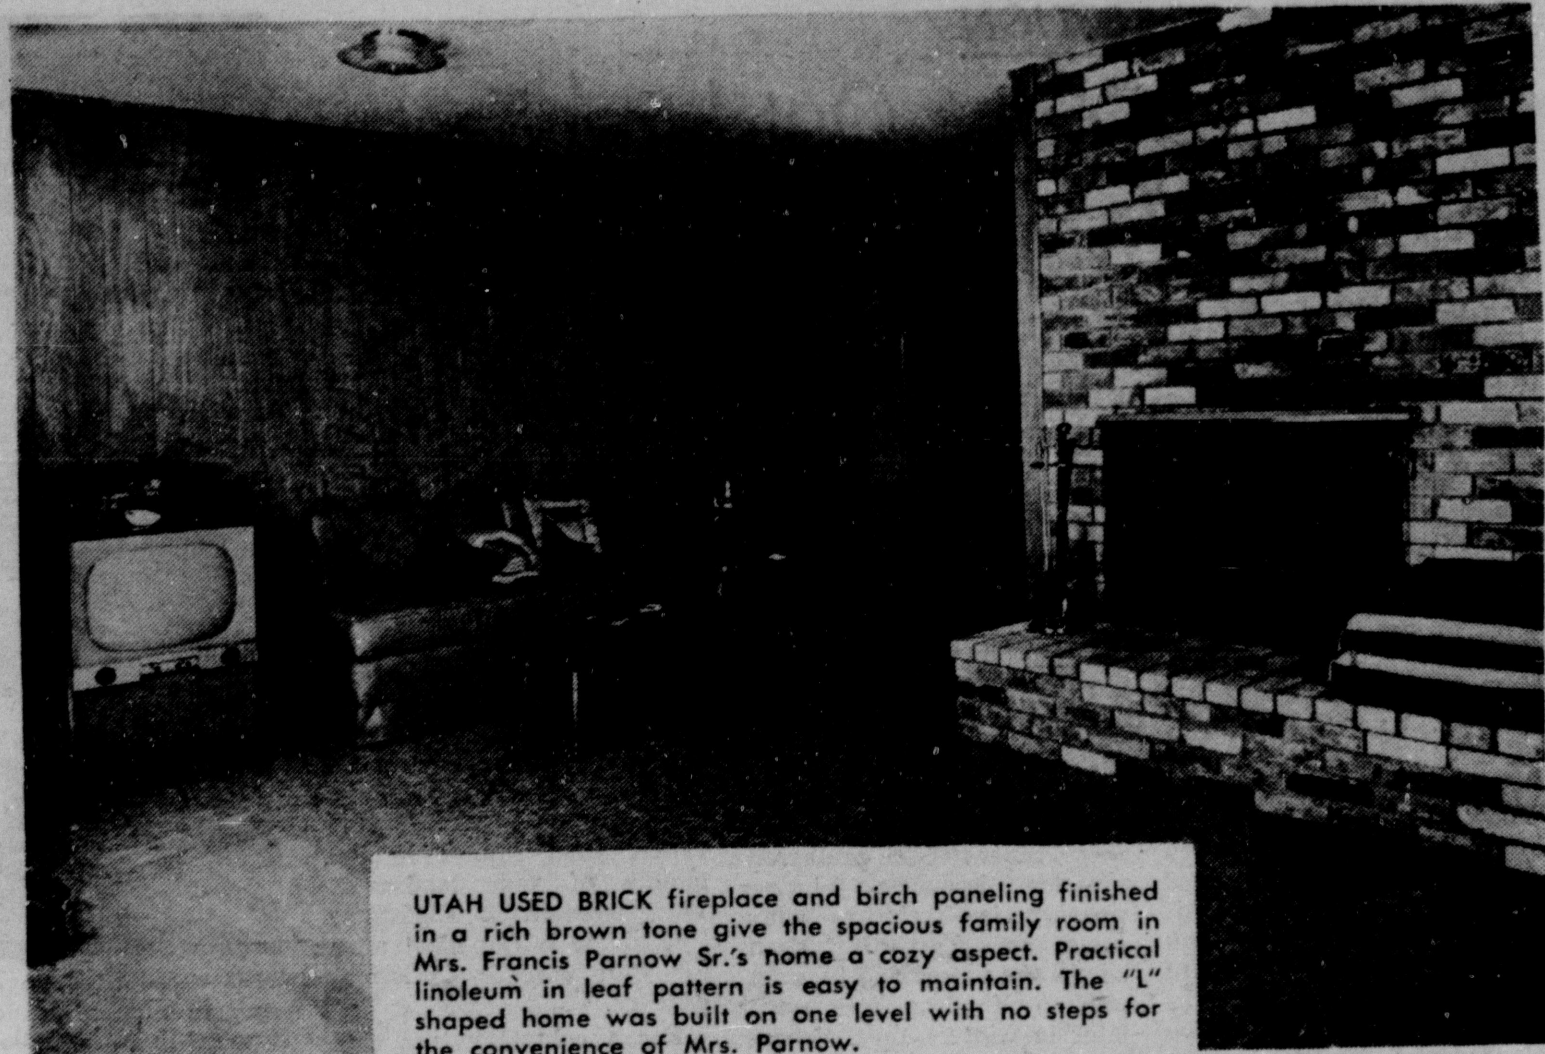
Sliding doors in the master bedroom open to a 60-foot deck which is adjacent to the pool area and commands a fine view of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge and the North Bay.

A high redwood fence provides privacy for the square pool and terrace.

MRS. PARNOW SR. has lived in her Villa Real home for two years. A widow, she has four sons—William and Robert, building contractors, subdividers and pool builders known as Custom Builders-Parnow Bros., Theodore and Francis Jr.—and two daughters, Barbara and Mary. All except Francis Jr., who lives in San Francisco, reside in Marin County Fifteen grandchildren are growing up in Marin County, so Mrs. Parnow makes good use of her spacious home.

Marin Living

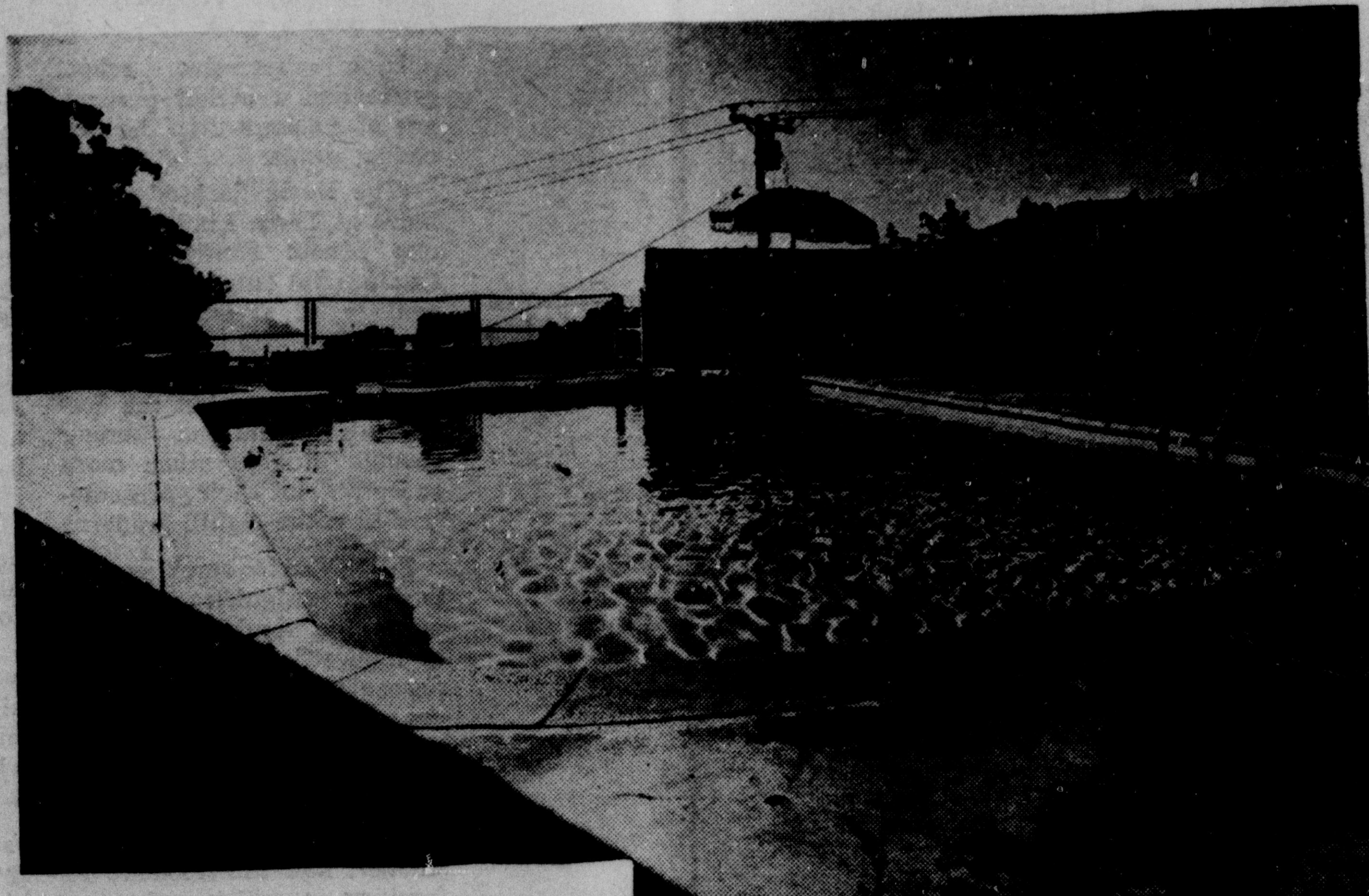
A DELIGHTFUL landscaped walk leads to the sheltered entry of the home of Mrs. Francis Parnow Sr. at 44 Arguella Circle, Villa Real. Brick is used in garden walls and is combined with vertical siding in exterior treatment. Leaded glass window details add interest in the home built for Mrs. Parnow by her sons, William and Robert Parnow of Custom Builders-Parnow Bros., San Rafael.



UTAH USED BRICK fireplace and birch paneling finished in a rich brown tone give the spacious family room in Mrs. Francis Parnow Sr.'s home a cozy aspect. Practical linoleum in leaf pattern is easy to maintain. The "L" shaped home was built on one level with no steps for the convenience of Mrs. Parnow.

BACK-LIGHTED valance gives a soft, pleasing glow in living room of the home of Mrs. Francis Parnow Sr. The full scale dining room can be screened from view by louvered doors. Use of louvered doors throughout gives the large three bedroom home great flexibility in use.

AN INVITING ENTRY sets the keynote for the friendly atmosphere at the home of Mrs. Francis Parnow Sr. in San Rafael's Villa Real. Double louvered doors painted shocking pink are flung wide to show the spacious entrance hall and informal family room which features built-in desk, cabinets and bookshelves. Louvered doors can shut the family room off, when desired. (Photos by Walter Goodman)



SPARKLING square pool gains privacy by use of tall redwood fence, yet lower open fencing permits bay view. Large paved terrace gives plenty of area for large family gatherings. Pool as well as the home was built by Custom Builders-Parnow Bros., San Rafael.

CALIFORNIA TRADITION

Light Up Your Outdoor Tree For A Christmas Centerpiece

Lighting up an outdoor tree is a Christmas tradition in California.

If you would like to string some outdoor lights yourself, there is no substitute for a coniferous evergreen to string them in. You will see lights hanging from every type of shrub and tree, but in keeping with tradition, the conifers are best.

You'll find a varied lot of these conifers in nurseries, and the following notes might be helpful in picking them over:

They are all surprisingly fast growing under garden conditions, so don't be concerned by their lack of size when you get them. You can add lights each year.

The familiar gray toned Deodar Cedar is far and away the most popular with Californians for outdoor decorations. These are not trees for close quarters, however, since they grow both high and wide enough to screen out your view of and from your house. Give them room to grow and keep them, where possible, to the side rather than square in the middle of your landscape. Their symmetrical, Christmas tree shape is the ideal prop for your outdoor Christmas pageant.

For a columnar tree that can be grown close in against a wall or by the doorway for decoration, the Irish Yew is recommended. Its deep green foliage and narrow, upright growth make a fine outdoor support for lights. A similarly modest shrub or small tree is the Lawson Cypress. Taller, but still columnar enough not to seem out of place in small gardens, is the Beverly Hills Arborvitae. You'll recognize it by the bright yellow color of its new growth.

Except in their early years, pines are not generally suited to this use, for both the size and shape of mature specimens prohibit an effective display. However, the Monterey Pine is fine when it's young and bushy. It can be planted and decorated for a few years while children are growing up, then forgotten for such use and enjoyed simply as a fine tree, which it most certainly is.

Garden Briefs

You don't read much about planting spring blooming blubs in December, but you can usually find some good bargains in nurseries at this time—and whatever you read, December's not too late to plant. Tulips, Hyacinths and daffodils can still be planted and, for that matter, all of them are good for Christmas giving. Don't infer that you can wait indefinitely, however. The sooner you plant them the better at this late date.

If the rush of Christmas shopping is a drag on you, try finishing the job in the leisurely atmosphere of a local nursery. Gardening friends will always appreciate a gift to garden with, whether it's a plant, a gadget or a book on gardening.

As soon as cold weather sets in and the bloom fades, many gardeners are apt to rush in and prune their fuchsias. This is not the preferred practice, however, since pruning is likely to spur some new growth. Then comes the freeze and then an unhappy fuchsia. Wait until later in winter—until February before you prune fuchsias. Don't be impatient.

The new roses will arrive in nurseries sometime this month, which means many gardeners will uproot old roses that no longer appeal to them. If you are doing this, don't be in a great rush to put a new rose where you've just pulled one out. Work the old soil over with steer manure and let it rest for a month. Then set the new bush in. Better order new roses early, though. They don't always last until you are ready for them.

SOHNER CALENDAR

PRUNING FOR . . .

HEALTH—Removal of diseased and dead branches, which harbor injurious insects; and branches which rub together, causing wounds.

SAFETY—Storm-cracked branches, and those weakened by decay, may fall with no warning—should be removed.

Spraying • Pruning • Removing • Fertilizing • Surgery

THIS INTERESTING overhead structure is built of redwood and fiberglass plastic, providing shade while letting in light. A brick seat bordering the large patio enables the owners, Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Quiros of 205 Locust Ave., San Rafael, to move into the sunshine when they wish. The garden was designed by landscape architects Katy and Paul Steinmetz and built by contractors Cagwin and Dorward. Make Your Entrance Smile Its Welcome To Visitors

Just as the glorious hostess greets her guests with a smile, so should the gardener make his entrance planting a pleasant and happy one. Be it good or bad, the approach to your home will create a lasting impression on your guests, so you'd best make it good.

Purely and simply, the entrance should provide free and easy access to your front door without being bereft of plant material. Paths should be wide enough and free of overgrown shrubbery. Trees are acceptable only if they provide head room and don't hide the house.

On the other hand, the pleasures of arrival don't have to be visible from the street. In small gardens, an enclosed courtyard is often more appealing than a straight run from the curb. You open a gate and there before you is a hidden corner of paradise. The California Assn. of Nurserymen reminds us, however, that the street side of any enclosure must be kept presentable too.

As mentioned above, trees are not for the entrance if they encroach upon the free access to the door. Trees, however, are a real asset to the approach when they are properly used.

A low edging along the path leading ot your door is most desirable. This can be a low and well trimmed bed of ivy, but you can achieve better effects with a combination of low perennials and prostrate shrubs.

THE HYBRIDIZERS are starting to unveil the new roses which they are introducing for 1962. Among them: Peterson & Dering's White Prince, a new hybrid tea that is one of the few roses whose blooms are truly white. Buds are long and slender, opening into pure white flowers of more than 50 petals. White Prince stands tall and upright, garbed in beavy-textured foliage, and bears its blooms on long single stems in exhibition style.

GARDENERS CHECKLIST

✓See your nurseryman and order new roses now to insure getting good plants when you want them.

✓Deciduous trees and shrubs show up in nurseries this month. The first step in planting them is a spacious hole which can be prepared in advance.

They Get Facts On Smoking

means of rebellion and defiance of authority. This group is estimated at 10 per cent of the smoking teen-agers. And, the doctors say, this "hard core" is usually unresponsive to health information or any other program with an educational appeal.

"THE MORE we stress and explore motivations, the more effective the health information which follows our 20-minute talk seems to be," says Dr. Hill.

The talk is followed by the showing of the film strip and the playing of the record. Then there is a 15-minute question and answer period. This, the doctor says, is "usually quite provocative and challenging, and can really test the physician's mettle."

Dr. Hill says that it is soon apparent that a doctor is more effective in presenting such an informational program than would be a biology teacher or other representative of the school system itself.

The American Cancer Society had relied upon teachers, apparently in the belief that the doctors were not "sold" on the wisdom or practicality of the movement. As evidence to the contrary Dr. Hill cites statistics showing that 25 per cent of the doctors who smoked five years ago have since given it up.

Dr. Hill continues: "As far as we know, Marin County is only the second county or city in the United States where such a thorough program has been worked out and carried on exclusively by members of the medical profession entirely on a voluntary, extra-curricular basis."

Over 25 per cent of the Marin Medical Society's membership of 200 M.D.s is actively or potentially engaged in the project.

An attempt is made to use doctors nearest the schools which request the program. And teachers are invited to hear the program prior to its presentation to the students so that they will be familiar with it and be in a position to follow it up with review discussions a week or so after it is given. Science teachers are especially effective in this capacity, it has been found.

Among the information which the doctors provide is the observation that so far no filter or choice of tobaccos has been developed that is able to exclude the cancer-inducing hydro-carbons that are produced at the high temperature at which cigarettes are smoked.

Since cigars and pipes are smoked at lower temperatures, it is also noted, their cancer-producing qualities are significantly lower. Also, their smoke is not inhaled.

"IT SEEMS the old Turkish water pipe is the safest of all," says Dr. Hill.

The battle against the cigarette habit and its glamorizing publicity build-up, that includes paid-for endorsements by athletes and other celebrities, is not an easy one, the Marin doctors admit. Mark Twain used to say: "Why, it's easy to give up smoking, easiest thing in the world. I've done it dozens of times."

But by and large, Dr. Hill and his colleagues say they have found the smoking project to be "a most enjoyable and rewarding activity."

Doctors, once they understand the implications of the problem and program, are likely to throw themselves wholeheartedly into the project, Dr. Hill says. "And the students seem to find it most interesting and thought-provoking."

Dr. Hill says experience so far has shown that such work is best done on a single classroom basis with from 30 to 35 students involved, rather than on an assembly basis involving hundreds of students. There the intimacy of the presentation and much of the value of the question and answer session are lost, he says.

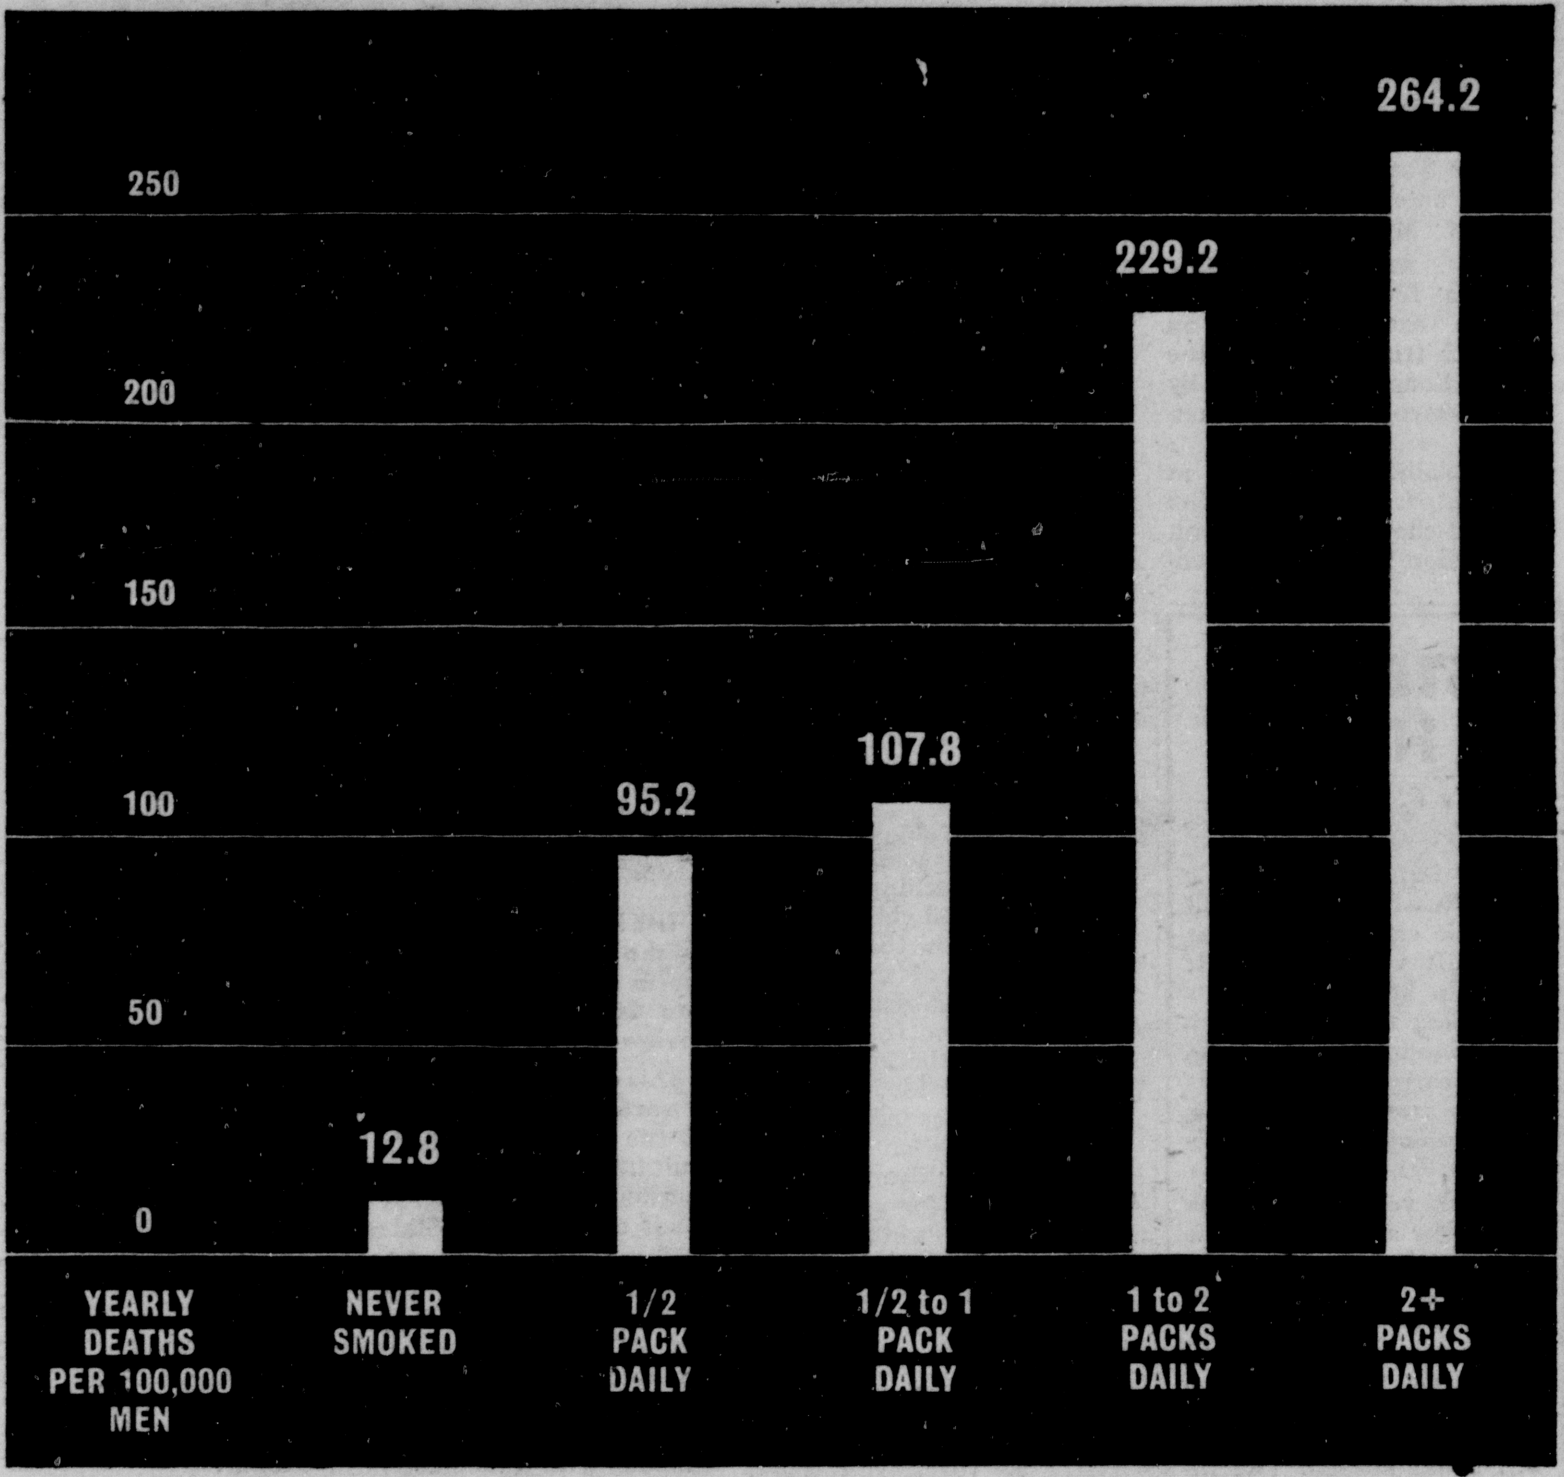
"It may be that we shall have to reach the parents with this effort to give it a better chance of success," he admits. "But we are not measuring success simply by how many students don't take up smoking or by how many give it up.

"ACTUALLY there is no other moment in the entire school career of 12 years in which a student has a physician enter his classroom and appear before him as teacher and authority. The doctor for one time is seen in a different light from the man who gives an injection or works in his office or the hospital. In this program he becomes a figure interested in getting the students to think for themselves about themselves, not only about smoking but about their personality development.

"Here is an opportunity to help young people think in psychological terms of motivation about themselves. What is said about smoking applies in parallel ways to the use of alcohol and narcotic drugs.

"It may be that the doctor's usefulness in a classroom has only begun to be tapped."

MORE CIGARETTES
MORE LUNG CANCER



What are your chances of getting lung cancer? It depends on how much and how long you've smoked. Half a pack of cigarettes a day? Your risk goes up eight times. Two packs or more? 20 times greater. The more cigarettes you smoke, the greater the risk.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

AMERICAN CANCER Society materials such as this chart on the relationship of lung cancer and smoking are used extensively by Marin doctors in their educational program in the schools. The Marin chapter of the cancer society is cooperating closely with the doctors in their program.

New York Attorney Tells Of His Battles

MY LIFE IN COURT by Louis Nizer, Doubleday and Co., 524 pages, $5.95. Reviewed by Bryce W. Anderson.

Contests over libel, divorce, plagerism, malpractice, death damages and corporate control march through the pages of New York attorney Louis Nizer's autobiographical relations of "My Life in Court."

Many writers, including quite a few lawyers, have written exciting books on criminal trials. Some of the civil actions as described by Nizer prove no less fascinating.

Especially intriguing — in different fashions — are the opening chapter dealing with libel action brought by Quentin Reynolds against Westbrook Pegler, and the closing one describing the efforts of Joseph R. Vogel and his associates to prevent Louis B. Mayer from recapturing control of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Neither modesty nor brevity is among Nizer's virtues. But he writes a very good story. The drama he finds in the law is expertly projected to the pages of his book.

How important is music in our lives? The true sound of music can give you that extra lift when needed. It can help keep your spirits up during those long periods of monotous type work. It can carry your thoughts back to a wonderful movie, or symphony, or stage production.

When you come home tired after a day's work the true sound of music will act as a tonic. It can make you cheerful and happy. There is one stipulation, it must be the true sound of music. Music from a small table model radio or phonograph will cause fatigue. The inherent distortion and unnatural quality will subconsciously irritate and not soothe.

How about the children? Children should be brought up in a household where music is heard in true full range sound. The human hearing is conditioned to what it hears. Those children, and adults for that matter, who are continually exposed to the sound of portables and small radio phonos soon condition themselves to regard this limited and distorted sound as their basis for judging all music. It's like having a very limited vocabulary and being able to read and appreciate only the simplest of books.

The true sound of music encompasses the full tonal and dynamic range of an entire symphony or ballroom orchestra. Parents owe it to themselves and to their children to be exposed to the full, rich, vibrant sound of the true sound of music reproduced in the home by a high quality component system. Visit us soon and let us show you how.

THE TOUCH OF MAGIC by Lorena A. Hickok. Dodd, Mead and Co., 184 pages, $3.50. Reviewed by Barbara Hosmer.

Much praise and many words have been spoken and written about the seeming miracle of the Helen Keller story. Now comes a book devoted to her inspired teacher, Anne Sullivan Macy, a partially blind, destitute Irish girl who devoted her life and much of her health to bring about the Helen Keller "miracle."

Miss Sullivan practically single-handed pioneered in the work of teaching the deaf, dumb and blind child to communicate with the outside world. Much of the knowledge on this subject that we use today came from letters she wrote to the headmaster of the school for the blind which she attended.

As Miss Keller so often said, Anne Sullivan was unjustly blamed for any failing of her pupil, while all the credit for the "miracle" went to Miss Keller for her hard work. Actually Miss Keller has repeatedly pointed out that without the long, difficult years of patient devotion by her beloved "Teacher" for nearly 50 years, she would have been nothing.

This book is the simply told story of the little trachoma-blinded child, deserted by her father after tuberculosis killed her mother, who grew up in the Massachusetts state almshouse. For over 50 years she was the "eyes" for both Helen Keller and herself, reading diligently through the classics, Greek, language dictionaries, and stacks of fine print, with her blurred and worsening eyesight so that she could transmit the knowledge via the hand language to her blind friend.

The facts are all there. Fine for young and old.

THE HARVESTERS: The Story of the Migrant People, by Louisa R. Shotwell, Doubleday and Co., 237 pages, $3.95. Reviewed by Bill Hendricks.

This is a sympathetic, well-researched and lively account of the migrant worker, the fruit tramp and wetback in his journey over the orchards and fields of the United States.

The abuses, laws, friends and foes of the migrant worker are told with a quiet skill and deep feeling by author Shotwell. For 15 years her work for the National Council of Churches has brought her in touch with wandering farm families. Her thorough understanding and sympathy show in the book.

CONSCIENCE IN POLITICS: Adlai E. Stevenson in the 1950s, by Stuart Gerry Brown, Syracuse University Press, 313 pages, $4.50. Reviewed by Chapin A. Day.

Adlai E. Stevenson had a marked influence on national and world events in the 1950s. His full affect may still be felt. His stature demands a careful, objective study on the part of any biographer.

Unfortunately, Stuart Gerry Brown is not the man for the job. A long-time friend of Stevenson and closely associated with him in both presidential campaigns, Brown is still fighting the political battles, rather than chronicling Stevenson's "conscience."

In many parts of the book there is more about President Eisenhower than about Stevenson. Almost invariably Eisenhower's statements are referred to as "grand generalities" or that he "hesitated, temporized." Stevenson almost without exception made "eloquent pleas," offered "constructive leadership," placed the "emphasis on responsibility" with "logic (which) was firm and forthright."

Brown, who calls his book an "essay in political leadership," proved one point well: A strong man not in office can in fact be a "conscience in politics." Because his programs, his pronouncements aren't put into effect, he does not have to face results of his proposals. He lives to prick another day, his conscience clear.

Certainly if Eisenhower were so universally wrong, and Stevenson as unfailingly right as Brown indicates, there is little hope for the democratic process.

But Brown just possibly could be a little too close to the tree to see the forest.

The reader first joins Cooper as he is sunning himself on a Tahitian beach, minus his Burberry raincoat, alongside the smoothly-tanned, barely-bikinied torso of a Parisienne blonde.

At this point he is interrupted by his editor, by phone from the home office, and assigned, under protest, to the story of the century: The long-lost son of Adolph Hitler is in Germany. Find him.

Donning his Burberry coat, our hero, in the company of good guys, bad guys, Berlin cops, anti-Nazis, neo-Nazis and the Central Intelligence Agency, takes up the search.

There is also a girl. Not the sun-bathing blonde. The Real Thing.

He gets The Girl in the end. As to whether he finds the missing son, I leave it to you to wade through the 25 chapters.

EAGLES WHERE I WALK by Stephen Longstreet, Doubleday and Co., 477 pages, $5.95. Reviewed by Barbara Hosmer.

In the best tradition of the historical novel, this tale sets forth the activities of four of the old New York families at the onset of the American Revolutionary War. Through three generations of the Van Cortlandts, the Philipses, the Livingstons and the Schuylers, Longstreet brings the feel of the war very close.

The scouting, the action on both American and Redcoat sides is told with great gusto and detail. Special emphasis is placed on the human aspects of General Washington, Burgoyne, Lafayette, Benedict Arnold and many of the other now legendary names. To those familiar with Manhattan and the Hudson River area, the tale has additional appeal.

Some Books For Girls In Teens

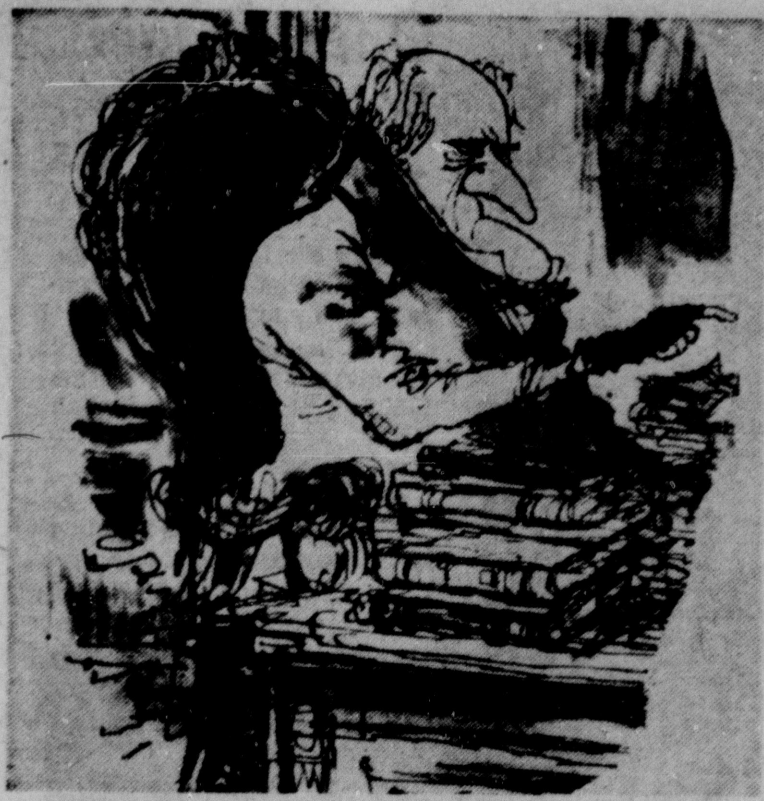
BEHIND THE WALLS by Lois Hobart, Funk and Wagnalls, 216 pages, $2.95.

Wondering what to get your teen-age niece for Christmas? Books are always a good answer. And while it is a good idea to include some "classics," there is nothing wrong with also including some of the newly-published books that deal in an up-to-date manner with the problems faced by today's girls.

Three such are listed above.

The first is a collection of nine short stories, the other two novels about girls in or just out of college. Their appeal is primarily to the high school reader in the 15 to 17 age bracket. And certainly they are far superior to the "true romance" magazine trash which too many teen-age girls — and their mothers—read.

All three of the authors have had previous successes in the field. All three apparently understand the subjects and problems of interest to teen-agers. And all three are people capable of presenting their stories in a literate style and believable manner.



A TIMELY Christmas season release is the World Publishing Co.'s new book, Ronald Searle's illustrated edition of Charles Dickens' immortal "A Christmas Carol." Here is Searle's conception of the stingy, irritable Scrooge in his counting house on Christmas Eve and scorning the happy world outside.

THE COPPER KETTLE by Annette Turngren, Prentice-Hall Inc., 175 pages, $2.95. Reviewed by Don Keown.

This is the revised edition, with new illustrations by Polly Jackson, of a book for junior readers first published way back in 1939.

It tells the adventures and misadventures of 9-year-old Mari, daughter of a Swedish pastor, her family and her friends in the Sweden of the late 1800s. Providing the excitement are such events as a trip to Stockholm from the tiny island of Oland, where Mari lives, and the perils of a great snowstorm.

Families of Swedish descent will get special pleasure from presenting this book to their youngsters in the third to sixth grade age bracket.

STEREO NOTES

A Jazz Pianist 'Debuts' Again

By JOHN SUNIER

The Debut on Discs of Europe's Greatest Jazz Pianist, Martial Solal—Capitol Stereo ST10261.

Somebody goofed! Doesn't Capitol ever listen to anyone else's jazz waxings? Or at least take a look at the catalogs before making a blatant statement like the one in this title?

Right next to this new Capitol disc on my desk sits an orange-fronted 10-inch Contemporary disc of Martial Solal, out for seven years.

Wake up there!

Anyway, I like the old record better, even though the new one shows Solal has found a strikingly original style of playing that is much more developed than his style of seven years ago. His new style is difficult to put into words, except it's often machine-gun fast.

Good as Solal is, Europe has a ways to go to produce another jazz artist of the stature of Django Reinhardt.

HERE'S MILT KAMEN!—Capital Stereo SW 1565.

Why would anyone want a single stand-up comedian in stereo? Beats me. As Groucho Marx's notes to this album say, the world is growing increasingly daffy. So that's it.

Accord to Mr. Marx, Mr. Kamen takes the ridiculous and makes it sublime. Just when you think you've caught up with him, he does a quick switch and turns the sublime back into the ridiculous. In three of his best bits, Mr. Kamen ridicules Mr. Brooks of Brooks Brothers, Mr. Hamlet of Elsinore and Mr. Johnny Ringo. And a few seconds of concentration on Side 2, Band 3, of this disc will allow Mr. Kamen to completely convince you that there is no such state as Wyoming. Mr. Marx thinks Mr. Kamen is pretty funny. Mr. Marx is not "Mr.-aken."

Once Again It's Home To Artists

From carriage house to garage to art gallery back to garage, and now to art studio.

That has been the "career" of a well-weathered frame building at 109 F St. in San Rafael, next door to the Creative Music School.

The building began life as a carriage house. Then when horseless transportation re-

BUILT AS A CARRIAGE HOUSE, this old structure at 109 F St., in San Rafael, once served the Marin Society of Artists as its art gallery. Now once again it is the scene of creative artistic activity. The d'Orgeix Art Studio is now located there. Mrs. Alya d'Orgeix, who operates the school, can be seen talking over the fence to one of her students, Mrs. Joyce Delaney, while Mrs. Pat Heller peers from the doorway.

placed the horse-drawn, it became a garage.

— Then it became something of a cradle of Marin art as it served as a gallery from 1927 until 1930 during the formative years of the Marin Society of Artists.

During those years it served such artists and craftsmen as Mrs. Marianne Rauschnabel, Herman Hein and Paul Romer.

The art gallery phase passed, and once again the structure became a garage and storage building. But now it is enjoying, once again, a place in Marin's artistic sun.

CURRENTLY located there is the newly established d' Orgeix Art Studio. Now a different group of men and women, some professionals, some beginners, are drawing and painting in the same place where more than three decades ago other artists established their city's first art gallery.

Heading the new studio is Mrs. Alva d'Orgeix, 36, New York-born and a product of the Art Students League of that city. She was also a student in France for several years with Andre Lhote and at La Grande Chaumiere, and she has also traveled in Spain, Italy, Mexico and Guatemala. For a time she studied under Hans Hofmann in Provincetown, Mass.

Her work has been exhibited in this area in Oakland, San Leandro and Sausalito, and she has taught in Williamstown, Mass., New York City and San Leandro.

The unusual thing about her new San Rafael school, Mrs. d'Orgeix says, is that the studio makes it possible for students who wish to do so to attend class or classes five days a week for extensive study. Day and evening life drawing courses are open to both beginners and advanced students.

"The only prerequisite," she says, "is the desire for hard work."

It is, Mrs. d'Orgeix believes, the kind of requirement which the earlier generation of dedicated Marin artists who used to trudge up its narrow flight of stairs to their dimly lighted gallery would give their unqualified approval.

MRS. D'ORGEIX has scheduled an open house at the studio for next Friday, from 6 to 10 p. m. The work of her students will be on exhibit at that time.

The teacher explains, however, that the work to be displayed was done by the students without the fore-knowledge of the exhibition plans.

"This was necessary," she says, "because it is absolutely vital that a student experience total involvement with a given problem. The intervention of another idea such as working for an exhibition would be extraneous and create a barrier between the student and his drawing or painting."

NEW TO STATION KTIM, but not to radio work, is Mary Deane Kingery. She conducts the Marin station's new "Woman's World" show heard five days a week from 11 to 11:30 a.m. (Photo by Karl Barron)

Mary Deane's Back At The Radio Mike

A San Anselmo housewife who couldn't resist the lure of a return to broadcasting is now presenting a daily program for housewives on Marin's Radio KTIM.

The program is "The Woman's World" at 11 a.m., and the housewife is Mary Deane Kingery, who gathers her material, sets up interviews and calls on her sponsors while Jeff, 10, and Greg, 7, are in school.

Mrs. Kingery, wife of Fremont Kingery, salesman for a wholesale women's wear firm, has lived at 322 Greenfield Avenue in San Anselmo since 1956, when they moved here from Marysville.

Mary Deane (it's a combined name) first got a taste of radio in the summer of 1942 when she worked for the Office of War Information during summer vacation from College of Pacific. The year before she had met Fremont, and they were waiting for World War II and the Navy to give them a chance to get married.

In 1944 she became a copy writer for KYA in San Francisco and wrote a weekly half hour show for Les Malloy which was aired on KFRC.

She resigned from KYA in 1945 when it appeared that the long-awaited marriage was eminent, only to have the Navy change orders. Mary Deane, a tall, slender brunette beauty, went to work as a high fashion model for I. Magnin.

In May of 1946, the Navy cooperated and Mary Deane and Fremont were married. At the same time, she began writing the nightly "Hour of Melody" show aired over KSFO for Hale Brothers department store.

After a period of this seven nights a week program, the arrival of Jeff, and then Greg halted any career ideas until 1957, when she obtained a real estate salesman's license and worked part time for about six months.

During the years of being responsible for the production of broadcasts, Mary Deane had not been an actual broadcaster. But she had been active in little theater work, doing writing, promotion and acting. And the acting background became the springboard for a dream of appearing on the microphone.

In October of this year the dream became reality as KTIM manager Hugh Turner listened to an audition, and gave her the go-ahead to begin "The Woman's World."

Heard from 11 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, the "Woman's World" features an interesting guest each morning, plus comments on fashions, food, children and life in general as it concerns the lady of the house.

MARIN POETS' CORNER

I'VE LOST MY WAY

I cannot trust the morning dew
Nor can I stray where lambkins play.
Oh where, oh where, is the world we knew
Only a little while ago?

And all the raucous winds that blow
Bending the plants in pretty dance
May carry death for all I know;
Nor is there any place to hide.

And all the earth and all the skies
One purple blast so sick, so vast
Could vomit forth to vaporize,
Time unwinds and then stands still.

TAMALPAIS VALLEY BRUCE GILLETTE

FROM A SLAVE GIRL

A little greed is just how much?
Does passion end with but a touch?
How can one know how high is up?
— But coffee one drinks by the cup!

A kiss is timeless, so they say;
And greed grows with each passing day.
Pride is not purchased by the sack.
— But cigarettes come by the pack!

Addiction? Then to each his own,
And but to self the truth is known.
— But I like vices nice and neat,
And totaled on a balance sheet!

SAN ANSELMO MARY RYAN

TEENER'S COMPLAINT

Life isn't sane—or natural,
Since Mother has gone cultural.

I wish she'd darn my bobby sox
That overflow the mending box;
And bake some cookies or some pie;
Just as she did in days gone by.

She tells me that I'm old enough
To mend my sox and other stuff;
And learn to bake some cookies, too—
And stay home as SHE used to do!

VAULTING OVER HUMP IN BRIDGE

An automobile vaults over the hump in the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. The hump is a steel ramp covering a bridge section being rebuilt. The car flew through the air for 70 feet, was wrecked, but the driver got out unhurt. Bon Mohr, of the Oakland Tribune, spent three nights on the bridge just to catch such a photo. (AP Wirephoto from the Oakland Tribune).

Red Hungary Would Talk Of Cardinal

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI) — Communist Hungary is ready to negotiate the problem of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty with the United States, Deputy Premier Gyula Kallai said today.

He told foreign newsmen that one condition for talks on the cardinal's future was a review of U.S.-Hungarian relations.

Kallai said Hungary had made several suggestions to Washington for improving the weak relations between the two countries, but none was specifically connected with the cardinal.

Cardinal Mindszenty has been in the U.S. Legation in Budapest since the unsuccessful Hungarian uprising, when he took refuge from the Communist regime.

The cardinal had been serving a Comunist-imposed jail term on charges of black marketing and currency smuggling when he was released from detention by the insurgents. He went into the U.S. Legation when the revolt failed.

Kallai said Mindszenty sought asylum after taking "active steps against the government." He did not suggest that charges against Mindszenty would be dropped.

Kallai gave no details of the Hungarian proposals.

High Court Will Rule On Prayers In School

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to rule whether prayers in public schools are constitutional.

It accepted for argument and ultimate decision a case involving a prayer said in the schools of New Hyde Park, N. Y. Parents of children in four schools objected to the saying of the prayer after the morning Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

The court also agreed to consider a dispute which would decide whether U. S. labor law applies to foreign-owned ships which operate regularly out of American ports.

The court also denied a hearing to Darryl Thomas Kemp, who is under death sentence in California on conviction of murder of Marjorie Hipperson, a Los Angeles nurse.

Miss Hipperson was strangled and raped in her apartment in the early morning of June 30, 1957. A jury convicted Kemp on the murder charge and also convicted him of raping two other women in 1959. The death penalty was fixed by the jury on the murder conviction.

Kemp is at the state prison facility at Vacaville.

Youth Escapes Juvenile Hall; Captured Three Hours Later

Glen Witten, 17, of Marinwood, recommitted to the California Youth Authority Friday on a car theft charge, escaped from Marin Juvenile Hall Saturday night but was recaptured about three hours later by Sheriff's Officer Carl Mead about four miles away.

Probation Officer Walter H. Busher said Witten escaped from the building through a door with a defective lock and then got over a 14-foot fence. He fell from the fence and was treated early yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital for rib injuries.

Mead, searching for him after an all-points bulletin was sent out, spotted Witten on San Pedro Road in Santa Venetia.

Busher said Witten was on parole from the CYA when he was arrested in San Francisco three weeks ago on a charge of stealing a car in San Rafael. He appeared before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin Municipal Court, who recommitted him Friday. He was returned to the hall from the hospital to await transfer to a CYA facility.

Booklet On Reds Now Circulated By Schools Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Under what is termed the most aggressive pressure in history, the California Assn. of School Administrators today circulated a booklet called "Teaching about Communism: An aid to The Defense of Freedom" as a statement of its policy for public schools.

"When children understand Communism as a way of life, they will have a better appreciation of the American Way of life," Theron L. McCuen, association president, told a news conference at the opening of the group's four-day conference here.

Still Damp After Week's Rain Ends

Fogs were forecast for early and late tomorrow with fair skies during the middle of the day.

Mrs. William Wapp of 9 Doris Drive, Novato, reported that a two-foot ditch now runs the full length of the Wapp property where a house was built two years ago. Rains softened soil over a sewer line, causing the collapse.

Larkspur reported among the heavier weekend rainfalls with 1.69 inches for the 48 hours to 8 a.m. today.

In contrast, San Rafael had a two-day total of only .16 inch, bringing the seasonal total to 10.26 inches in contrast with last year's 4.88 at this time and a seasonal average of 6.78.

The Marin County Fire Department of Woodacre reported .59 inch for the weekend with a total for this year of 9.09. San Anselmo's Fire Department has recorded a total of 8.11 inches with .71 inch over the weekend.

Novato rainfall was negligible over the past 24 hours but the previous 24 totaled .60 of an inch.

Tamalpais Valley reported one-tenth of an inch rainfall within five minutes Saturday morning but the 24 hours to 8 o'clock last night showed only .25 inch. Sausalito reported a weekend total of .24 of an inch.

Goldfine, Secretary Admit Violations

BOSTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine, 71, gift-giving industrialist, and his secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, 43, both admitted to violations of probation today in transmission of mail to Goldfine in a Danbury, Conn., federal correctional institution.

Highway Accident Fatal To Marin Deputy Sheriff

11 Others Injured In Weekend Wrecks

A Marin County deputy sheriff, father of four, was crushed to death as his car overturned yesterday on the Greenbrae Bridge.

Charles Anthony Braam, 27, of 20 Victor Court, Novato, died about 3:45 a.m. as he was being wheeled into the operating room of Marin General Hospital. He was the 17th person killed on Marin streets and highways this year. At this time last year, there had been 24 traffic fatalities in the county.

Eleven other victims of Marin automobile accidents were treated at hospitals between noon Saturday and noon today.

HE SAW CAR

A witness to the Braam tragedy, John J. Hanley, 25, of 67 Martens Boulevard in San Rafael, told California Highway Patrolmen that Braam's southbound car passed him north of the bridge at about 65 miles an hour. Hanley said he "saw sparks fly" as Braam's car hit the west curb and guard rail of the bridge. It then rolled over, stopping on the divider strip.

Highway Patrolmen V. C. Weimer and T. Allen Gregg said Braam's body was found face down across the divider about 20 yards from the automobile.

MUTTERED

Braam did not regain consciousness before he died. John A. Raggio, owner of the Marin Ambulance Service which took Braam to the hospital, said he muttered during the trip, but was unable to speak. It was apparent the car rolled over his body, which was thrown out when the car went out of control, officers said.

Braam was assistant chief of the Sheriff's Civil Department. He headed the department during the time Floyd Middagh was undersheriff under former Sheriff David Menary.

"He was one of the best workers in the department," Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said. "His death is a great loss to us."

VACATION START

Only hours before his death, Braam had left his wife, and four children at Boyes Hot Springs where he had taken them for a brief vacation, returning to Marin County to report for work today.

Four persons were injured when Keith Jacobsen, 36, of Eureka attempted a U-turn in his car on Puerto Suello Hill and it was struck by a car driven by Bernard Kahage, 39, of San Francisco, a bakery employee.

Jacobsen suffered fractures of two bones of the lower right leg and was in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital. His passenger, Fred Laudman, 60, of 107 Antoinette Street, San Rafael, was in only "fair" condition, under treatment for cuts and broken bones in the face.

Kahage was treated for multiple abrasions, and his wife, Catherine, 39, for a fracture of the right arm, then transferred to St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco. Their infant daughter apparently escaped unhurt.

Jacobsen was cited by the highway patrol for making an unsafe turn.

Another child, 3-year-old Kyren Elizabeth Deck, and her father, James Henan Deck, 36, airman first class at Hamilton Air Force Base, were treated for minor injuries at the base hospital after Deck's car struck a parked car in the 500 block of Miller Avenue in Mill Valley about 6:15 p.m. yesterday.

Mill Valley police said, Deck turned to check on his daughter, who was riding in the back seat, and crashed into a parked car belonging to James M. Arpi of Santa Marie.

Two persons went to Marin General Hospital shortly after

Tomorrow Is South Marin's Voting Day

Voters of South Marin's Third Supervisorial District go to the polls tomorrow in a recall election without precedent in this county.

It is directed against Supervisor J. Walter Blair of Mill Valley, who assumed office only last Jan. 1. If the recall is successful, it will result in the election of Peter Behr to serve the remaining three years of Blair's term. Behr, Mill Valley attorney, is Blair's sole opponent.

33 PLACES

Polls will be open at 33 polling places. Durng the hours of voting, nc bar may be open or liquor sold within the district which includes Mill Valley, Sausalito, Belvedere, Tiburon, Stinson Beach, Bolinas and Alto-Strawberry cities or areas.

Cost of the election will be about $5,000 according to recent estimate of County Clerk George S. Jones, who expressed doubt that more than 50 per cent of the district's 19,285 registered voters will turn out.

OFFICE STAFFED

With 116 absentee ballots out, the county clerk's office was specially staffed Saturday to receive any ballots which might arrive up to 5 p.m., the limit under new law. But the absentee ballot might be used up to and including election day, according to Deputy Clerk Agnes Nathanson, in cases where a physician's certificate showed that the condition of a qualified voter was such as to require removal to a hospital.

Supporters of both Blair and Behr have declared that their respective men would benefit by a big turnout of voters. That seems one of the few points of agreement in a situation replete with confused issues and debated facts.

A SECRET?

Blair backers insist that the recall movement started secretly even before he took office, originating among disgruntled supporters of Mrs. Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, whom he displaced by election in June of 1960.

They also have said that the recall should apply only where misconduct in office is charged.

They have urged that Blair, an engineer and operator of a number of Marin County laundries, has not yet been given time for a fair trial since he

Solid-Fuel Rocket On Successful Trip

POINT ARGUELLO (AP)—A 40-foot Blue Scout solid fuel rocket roared successfully today to a point high over the South Pole with a 29-pound package of instruments to measure dangerous radiation in space.

"The payload is relaying back information on space radiation over the South Pole," an Air Force spokesman said.

2ND SUCH JUMP

Youth Leaps Off Gate Span, Lives

A 20-year-old Oakland man yesterday became the second known person to survive a plunge from the Golden Gate Bridge.

A scant four hours after his miraculous leap from the span, a raincoat, wallet and notebook belonging to another youth, found beside the bridge railing, offered mute evidence that a second jumper had succeeded in taking his life.

Francis Patrick Kennedy was alive but in critical condition today after plunging 200 feet from the Marin side of the bridge into a patch of soft sand a few yards from jagged boulders at the edge of the bay.

He vaulted the rail, literally slipping from the grasp of a California Highway Patrolman, and fell to what appeared to be certain death at 4:30 a.m. yesterday.

The only other person known to have survived a leap fron the bridge was Cornielia Van Ierland (now Mrs. Henry Blencke) who, in 1941 when she was 22 years old, jumped 220 feet into the water from mid span. She was hospitalized for two months with fractured vertebrae and arms and internal injuries.

Records show that 215 persons are known to have leaped to their deaths. Authorities estimate about 150 attempts have been prevented, while 80 supposed deaths have been unconfirmed.

Dr. Edward C. Miller of San Rafael, one of a team of four specialists who performed surgery on Kennedy at Marin General Hospital for more than seven hours, said he suffered a broken elbow, dislocated arm, broken pelvis, and injuries to his lungs and kidneys. He was terribly bruised, Miller

Woman Who Jumped Lives In San Rafael

A happy but not yet fully normal life is being led in San Rafael by the first person to jump from the Golden Gate Bridge and survive.

Now Mrs. Henry Blencke, the former Cornelia Van Ierland is married to a girlhood sweetheart who was away as a soldier on the afternoon of Sept. 3, 1941, when in an overwrought nervous condition she suddenly yielded to a mysterious impulse and jumped from the bridge rail.

Her survival and her battle back to health and a new life assumed new importance yesterday when a second person, this time a man, jumped and lived.

Francis Kennedy of Oakland, who was hospitalized with severe injuries after a 150-foot fall to a rain-soft dirt road, is 20. When Mrs. Blencke jumped to water 235 feet down, she was 22.

At the time the young woman leaped she was an athlete, practicing professional ice skating and overwrought by the strain of combining this with clerical duties for the state.

She is an athlete again today. Though her back, arms and legs were broken and she was four months in hospital before going to New Mexico to wed her soldier-fiance, she now skates again, water skis, usually swims twice daily in the open pool of her apartment building.

But there are scars.

The Blenckes have no phone. When the door-bell rings, Mrs. Blencke does not answer.

Robust and of fine appearance, she has nonetheless a great wish for seclusion. She is afraid to meet people.

Friends believe her survival was at least in part due to the fact that she was wearing a big coat when she jumped. The coat ballooned out and served as a parachute in some degree.

Ban On Cuba Sugar Is Extended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy today extended the U. S. ban on Cuban sugar shipments for another six months in a new crackdown that will cost Fidel Castro's avowed Communist regime nearly 80 million dollars.

The presidential action came as the council of the 21-nation Organization of American States neared a showdown on a U. S.-backed proposal aimed at eventual economic sanctions against Cuba.

Kennedy extended through next June 30 the ban on U. S. imports of Cuban sugar which had been scheduled to expire Dec. 31. His order, issued in the national interest, meant that Castro again would have to sell elsewhere the big Cuban crop, second largest in Cuba's history.

East German Workers Strengthen Berlin Wall

BERLIN (AP) — Working through the night under floodlights, 2,500 East German workers narrowed the seven crossing points between West and East Berlin today and strengthened the adjacent sections of the Berlin wall with more concrete.

The U. S. command rushed up a platoon of 30 battle-dressed infantrymen as a show of force at the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint in the American sector, the crossing designated by the Communists for Allied personnel and other foreigners.

With a bazooka and two machine guns set up behind sandbags, the American soldiers faced several hundred men of the East German people's army, also in battle dress with machine guns. The British incresed their patrol on their short stretch of border near the Brandenburg Gate, and French officers were reported observing the activity along the border of their sector.

The formidable new walls were about seven feet high and five feet thick. Tank barriers of steel hedgehogs were cemented into the ground.

Only small passages for traffic, about eight feet wide for vehicles and two to three feet for pedestrians, were left open.

The East Germans said they were strengthening the wall to protect East Berlin from any ill-advised Western action. The Interior Ministry added that it was East Germany's reply to U. S. troop movements on the 100-mile autobahn linking West Berlin with the free world.

Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, the U. S. commandant in West Berlin, rushed a written protest to his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev.

Watson called the new East German action an illegal violation of the four-power occupation agreements on Berlin and demanded Soviet assurances that there would be no interference with Allied and civilian traffic between the U. S. sector and East Berlin.

Walker Says He'll Go It Alone

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker says he'll go it alone in his fight against communism.

"I will not be affiliated with anyone in particular," he declared yesterday when asked whether he would carry out his programs through such organizations as the John Birch Society.

"I intend to be myself and stay unassociated with any organization or any individual except the necessary personal staff to carry on my correspondence and my assistance in my program and objective. I am not going to be a principal spokesman for anyone but Edwin A. Walker."

Walker quit the Army last month following removal from his command of the 24th Division in Germany last May. It came after an investigation of complaints about an information program he sponsored among his troops.

An Army investigation cleared Walker of accusations that his troop training course was patterned on literature of the John Birch Society. The report said, however, that Walker was a society member.

Laos Accord Concluded In Geneva

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers and the Soviet Bloc concluded a far-reaching agreement today on how to maintain the peace and neutrality of Laos.

The six-point agreement was adopted at a closed session of the 14-nation Laos peace conference. It will become operative when the neutrality treaty now being drafted by the conference is completed.

STEP FORWARD

Some important obstacles remain to be overcome, particularly the integration of the hostile Laotian military forces. But today's agreement marked the most substantial step forward yet taken by the conference and was hailed by Western and Communist delegates alike.

The agreement names Britain and the Soviet Union as joint, permanent guardians of Laotian neutrality.

The British and Soviet delegates are the co-chairmen of the 6½-month-old conference. Under the new agreement, their governments are to consult each other and decide what action to take whenever the peace or neutrality of Laos is threatened.

VETO POWER

The agreement also gives the Soviet bloc a veto over all major decisions of the three-nation control commission for Laos. The commission, made up of Canada, India and Poland, is to supervise observance of the cease-fire and Laotian neutrality.

The agreement stipulates that formal recommendations of the commission can only be made by unanimous vote, but situation reports and other minor decisions can be approved by majority votes.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Kennedy Idea On Autobahn Ripped

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia says President John F. Kennedy's suggestion that the autobahn linking Berlin and West Germany be placed under international control seems to be a "big stick" policy. It told him to forget the idea because it is "doomed to failure."

The Kremlin organ chided the president for what it called a "cock and bull" charge that the Soviet Union is out to communize the world.

Commenting on the interview Kennedy gave Izvestia editor Alexei Adzhubei, the paper said the president put forward "quite a few reasonable ideas"—but these were not among them.

Izvestia upheld the "sacred right" of the East German Communist regime to regulate ground, river and air traffic within its territory and declared: "No state which prizes its sovereignty has ever allowed the establishment of international control over its roads."

The newspaper's 4,000-word commentary yesterday charged Kennedy's plan was an attempt to help West German "revenge seekers" to get control of East Germany's communications.

The autobahn—a superhighway cutting across 110 miles of Communist territory—is the only road route the Western Allies have to Berlin and they have insisted on their right.

Soviet guards man checkpoints on the road under the four-power occupation agreement.

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SANTA MARIA (AP)—Preview of the 1962 California election campaign:

Republicans, swept out of most offices in 1958, are going to hit hard at Gov. Edmund G. Brown's spending and tax policies, the rising cost of social welfare, crime and Brown's stand on capital punishment.

Democrats will tell you that state government is soundly managed, the business climate is good and no new taxes will be required.

Richard M. Nixon set the tone in a speech Saturday night highlighting a three-day meeting of California Republican Assembly directors. He played on the theme of "bungling bureaucracy" in charting his campaign for governor.

"California," he said, "faces fiscal chaos."

The CPA board followed up with resolutions which, among other things, called for "a prompt return to conservative, constitutional Republican state government."

"The Brown administration," said leaders of the 12,000-member GOP organization, "has driven California down the road to the destination of a welfare state."

A spokesman for the Democratic governor pooh-poohed Nixon's "fiscal chaos" warning as "the phony come-on spiel of a veteran political pitchman."

Hale Champion, Brown's finance director, said in a statement:

"Mr. Nixon's ignorance of the California fiscal situation is shocking if true and appalling if pretended."

There was no reply to Nixon's challenge to Brown for a debate on what he termed the sorry record of the Democratic administration.

The former vice president listed California as "'first in crime, first in high taxes, and first in bungling bureaucracy." He called for a drastic overhaul of the state government.

"We need first-rate government for what will soon be the first state in the union," he said. "The second-raters, from Governor Brown down, must be retired from jobs which are too big for them to handle."

Nixon charged that Browns's tax policies are driving new business away from California. He scoffed at the governor's reorganization program, saying "nothing is trimmed, nothing is saved" and it "piles chaos on top of confusion."

Nixon blamed Brown and Democratic Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk for what he called a skyrocketing of crime in California. He reiterated his support of capital punishment. Brown favors repeal of the death penalty.

Dominican Unity Talks Bog Down

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Government and opposition representatives reopened negotiations yesterday on a unity government to end the island nation's political crisis but an opposition leader said the talks "have not advanced at all."

A general strike backing demands of the National Civic Union—the largest opposition group—that President Joaquin Balaguer quit in favor of a previsional junta government entered its seventh day.

Viriato A. Fiallo, head of the civic union, cabled the Organization of American States in Washington asking the "urgent presence" of an OAS observation team because of the "extremely grave" political situation.

"A vacuum in the civil power threatens the installation of supreme military power with liquidation of all vestiges of democracy," Fiallo said.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Vote In Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (UPI)—Nearly final results showed today that conservative pro-Western candidates won a heavy majority in the first national elections here since Syria broke away from the United Arab Republic two months ago.

Elected conservatives outnumbered leftwing socialists more than 3-1. There were 1,876 candidates contesting 172 seats in the unicameral national assembly.

The official results on the balloting for a simple, eight-clause provisional constitution have not been announced, but local newspapers said only 1 per cent opposed it. Ratification, in effect, would legalize Syria's break from the UAR.

Tshombe Warning

PARIS (UPI)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe today described as an "intolerable provocation" the new call of U.N. Secretary-general Thant for restoration of order in Katanga.

Tshombe, who arrived from Brazzaville last night, issued the statement to newsmen this morning.

He also announced he would go on to Rio De Janeiro for a moral re-armament meeting.

Tshombe said the Katanga people considered themselves a free nation and would fight back and the "heavy responsibilities" of the conflict would rest with the U.N. secretary-general.

Threat In Katanga

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (UPI)—The Katanga government today threatened to shoot down any United Nations aircraft flying over its territory, the UN reported.

A few hours earlier, Katanga gendarmes killed one Swede of the U.N. force, wounded two others and seized three prisoners in Elisabethville's worst day of violence since the widespread fighting in September.

George Ivan Smith, top U.N. official here, said Katangese Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba issued the threat to the planes shortly after midnight.

Smith said he told Kimba he took a "most serious view" of the matter and would report it to U.N. headquarters in New York immediately.

Triplets Make 10

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The 37-year-old wife of an unemployed mineworker has given birth to triplets, making a total of 10 children in the family.

A girl was born to Mrs. Thomas Bonk yesterday in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. She weighed 3 pounds, 8 ounces. A boy was delivered 10 minutes later and then a second boy. The first boy weighed four pounds, the second 3 pounds 9 ounces.

The Bonks now have 6 boys and 4 girls. The other children range in age from 3 to 19.

Riots In Algiers

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — A mob of 2,000 Europeans rioted through the streets of Constantine today, burning cars, hurling Molotov cocktails, smashing store windows and attacking Moslem passersby.

Two Moslems were injured when their car was set afire.

The rampaging Europeans carried banners and flags of the extremist Secret Army Organization. A number of shots were exchanged.

Brown Calls For Special Election

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has called a special election for Feb. 13 to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sen. John J. Hollister, Jr., D-Goleta.

Hollister, a rancher and member of a pioneer Santa Barbara County family, died of a stroke on Thanksgiving Day. He was 60.

His death left the 40-member Senate with a lineup of 28 Democrats, 11 Republicans and one vacancy.

Four Die In Crash

EBERSHEIM, Germany (UPI) — A German Lufthansa Airlines Boeing 720-B plane on a training flight crashed into an open field here today, killing the four crewmen aboard.

Eyewitnesses said the victims' bodies were burned beyond recognition.

The witnesses said the plane suddenly swerved off course, flipped over on its right side and fell straight to the ground. The wreckage was scattered over a 200-yard area. The plane was burned out within 15 minutes.

Ebersheim is 15 miles south of Maniz and about 35 miles south of Frankfurt in West Germany.

Appeal From Women

LONDON (UPI) — A woman doctor said yesterday that mothers and grandmothers are asking her for drugs to kill their families painlessly in the event of nuclear war.

"These women are not hysterical or neurotic, but sensible logical people," Dr. Phyllis Dobbs wrote in a letter to the British Medical Journal. "They don't seem to be thinking of themselves. They are genuinely worried about their families being left to die after a nuclear conflict."

Dr. Dobbs said all of the women "ask for something that will kill quietly and painlessly. Of course, I have to refuse, but it is all too easy to be sympathetic towards them."

Program Canceled

NEW YORK (AP) — Several television affiliates of the American Broadcasting Co. canceled last night's episode in the network's "Bus Stop" series. The program, featuring singer Fabian in his TV dramatic debut, involved a teenaged killer.

The network described the program as "strong, meaty drama." A network spokesman declined comment on a report that the sponsor had withdrawn.

Station WSIX-TV in Nashville, Tenn. said the program was "possibly not suited for family entertainment on Sunday night."

THEY'LL BE ON AIR ELECTION NIGHT — Bruce Coleman (left) who heads the Independent-Journal's Southern Marin news coverage, and Hugh Turner, general manager of radio KTIM, do a little warmup for job they'll have tomorrow night keeping Marinites informed over KTIM-FM of latest returns in recall election. Tabulating machine between them is one of those that will be used to "keep score." (Independent-Journal photo)

I-J, KTIM Will Give Details On Election

The Independent-Journal and radio KTIM-FM will offer up-to-the minute coverage tomorrow night of returns from the recall election in Supervisorial District 3.

Election return headquarters will be in the I-J's Mill Valley office at 23 Corte Madera Avenue. Heading a special staff to gather and tabulate returns will be Bruce Coleman, I-J Southern Marin reporter, and Hugh Turner, KTIM general manager.

Other workers will be on hand at the Independent-Journal office in San Rafael, in close touch with the county courthouse where returns will be received at the county clerk's office. The I-J's leased wire between Mill Valley and San Rafael will enable correlation of returns gathered at both points.

KTIM-FM (100.9) will be served by a special direct line from Mill Valley. Regular programs will be interrupted with flashes on the recall vote count, said Turner.

Persons wishing information by telephone may call either the I-J's Southern Marin office (DU 8-2351) or its main office (GL 4-2975) after 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

lacks former political experience. (Blair served one term as city councilman in Mill Valley.)

Formal start of the recall movement dates from last July 15 when a group of 12 meeting in Mill Valley formed a "Recall Blair Committee" under chairmanship of Franklin J. McClain of Mill Valley. The committee got more than the requisite 2,473 signatures on recall petitions but encountered much vexation in affixing polling places due to the fact that the county clerk made sweeping changes at this time.

Behr, who had previously said he would be a candidate if the recall petitions succeeded, formally announced his candidacy Sept. 27 and qualified as a candidate after filing petitions with 1,024 names Oct. 20. The law required no fewer than 877 and no more than 1,052.

Neither Behr nor the recall committee at any time reflected on Blair's integrity but charged that he had not been responsive to the voters' wishes, a legal ground for recall action. They also said he served special privilege.

Blair, elected on an economy platform, has said that he has sincerely sought to carry out his campaign pledges. His participation in a stop-work order at the civic center, one of the major points of record raised against him, has been termed consistent because of a chance that the partly constructed administration building seemed a possibility for conversion into a county hospital.

Argument on the record has even extended to Blair opposition to a 53,000-acre national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula which isn't in Blair's district but that of Supervisor George Ludy. Behr favors the big park.

A J. Walter Blair Committee under chairmanship of John Grant has said the recall is not supported either by southern Marin businessmen or by the mass of union labor. Recall backers have especially stressed homeowner resentment against Blair backing of apartments.

Boy Critical After Falling From Bicycle

Thomas Brown, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Brown of Mill Valley, was in critical condition at Marin General Hospital with head injuries suffered when he fell from his bicycle Saturday afternoon.

The youngster, police said, rode down steep Kipling Drive onto Shelley Drive, was thrown from his bike, and fell between 25 and 30 feet down an embankment, striking his head against a picket fence. The accident happened at about 3:10 p.m.

The Browns live at 166 Kipling Drive.

Mill Valley Planners

The Mill Valley Planning Commission will hold a "clean-up" meeting on its proposed master plan tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the city hall, planning commissioner Robert Cornish said today. Residential densities and recreational sites will be discussed, and persons are invited to bring up anything in relation to previous master plan hearings, the consultant said.

McCARTHY WON'T REVEAL NAMES

Marin Senator Considers Incident Closed As Demand Comes For Democratic Leader

The Southern California Democratic chairman has challenged Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy to identify the persons who offered him financial support to run for controller to get him out of the lieutenant governor's race.

But McCarthy refuses.

"As far as I am concerned," he declared, "the entire incident is closed. I was asked a question in a press conference and I answered it. The question was, had anyone ever suggested I run for another office? I said they had. I told the newsmen that during the session two men suggested I not seek the lieutenant governorship. About two and a half months ago two others spoke to me on the same subject. They suggested that if I ran for some other job I would have an 'adequately financed' campaign. No amount of money was indicated.

"I said no," McCarthy went on, "that I was going to continue to run for lieutenant governor. As far as I'm concerned, that's the end of it. I'm not going to name names."

In Palm Springs, however, Eugene L. Wyman, the Southern California Democratic chairman, said McCarthy should name names.

The Marin senator's statement gives "corroborative weight," he said, to former Gov. Goodwin Knight's accusation that an emissary of Richard M. Nixon tried to get Knight out of the GOP gubernatorial primary.

"Both deals are cut from the same cloth," Wyman said. "Both of them obviously originated with the GOP kingmakers who are trying to put together a Nixon-Christopher ticket, buy off the opposition, and elect their puppets to the state's two highest offices—governor and lieutenant-governor.

Something Is Wrong Here —Could It Be The Ghosts?

MENA, Ark. (AP)—It's going to take more than ghosts to run farmer C. E. Shinn off the land he has occupied for 46 years.

Shinn, 72, his wife, 70, and their grandson moved out of their five-room house Saturday night for a rest after the antics of a mischevous "ghost" left them sleepless.

But they moved back in yesterday, and Shinn said he was going to stay.

"We just don't believe in ghosts," he said resolutely. "When something is done, humans have to do it."

For more than a year, something has been harassing the Shinns in their house three miles west of this west Arkansas town. They say that the family Bible floats through the living room, furniture is suddenly overturned. Chairs fly from the kitchen into the living room. Two figurines were smashed against the back of Shinn's head.

Charles Elbert Shaeffer, 15, the grandson who lives with the couple, says the cover has been jerked off his bed in the middle of the night.

Awakened one night by howling and hissing sounds, Shinn said, Mrs. Shinn asked whatever it was to be quiet. It didn't. Then she asked it to go to sleep.

"I don't sleep," came the reply, Shinn said.

"Will you let me sleep," Mrs. Shinn asked.

"You don't need to sleep either," was the answer.

Saturday night the Shinns went to stay with relatives and Sheriff Bruce Scoggins took three officers and four newsmen to spend the night in the house.

They neither saw nor heard anything out of the ordinary. The Shinns moved back in and the old farmer says he's there to stay.

Deputy Sheriff John Egger said: "There's no doubt queer things have been going on around here. I can't explain it. Of course, no one believes in ghosts."

Soviets Again Blame U.S. For A-Testing

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians tried again last night to put the blame on the West for continuance of nuclear weapon tests.

The Soviet government declared that unless the Western powers stop all nuclear weapons tests — including underground explosions that don't produce radioactive fallout—it will resume "such nuclear tests as it deems necessary for the consolidation of its defense capacity."

A few hours after the Moscow warning the United States announced it had set off a low-yield underground nuclear blast yesterday, and is preparing to go ahead with another test next Sunday.

"Our announced policy is to test and talk," a State Department spokesman said in Washington.

The Russians, who broke a three-year moratorium on nuclear testing Sept. 1 for a series of big to gigantic nuclear explosions in the atmosphere, said the time has come now "for the early achievement of an agreement which would rid the peoples of experimental weapon blasts."

"What are the Western powers striving for?" asked the statement. "To end nuclear tests throughout the world or to continue their pursuit for an illusory superiority in nuclear weapons."

The Soviet call for an end to testing made no mention of supervising any new moratorium as demanded by the Western powers.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, distributed the Soviet statement. It said it was issued in connection with last week's resumption of the Geneva test ban talks.

The Geneva talks are hopelessly deadlocked as a result of a new Soviet refusal to admit any inspectors of a test ban to Soviet territory and the West's rejection of the Soviet demand for an unsupervised test moratorium.

Kenya Student Is Jailed On Assault Charge

Moses Jonothan Nyagah of 9 Redwood Drive in Ross was discovered by sheriff's deputies in a parked car with the girl on the college campus in Kentfield. The girl, deputies said, waved frantically when they approached the car during a routine check at about 2 a.m.

"I've been trying to get out of this car for more than an hour," they reported her as saying.

She said she had not been assaulted, but that the man had attempted to force advances against her will.

Officers said a search of the car revealed "two small white pills" on the floor boards. They were impounded as evidence.

Nyagah posted $1,050 bail and was ordered to appear in Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday. Immigration authorities would be notified, officers said.

Marin Artist Show Slated At Museum

A William Keith painting which hangs in the College of Marin library, priced at one time at $50,000, will be included in a Keith art showing in San Francisco.

The showing will be in the M. H. De Young Museum until Christmas Day. The showing is in tribute to the artist who died in 1911.

The price tag was placed on the oil painting by the late Mrs. Mary Harmon, who lived in Belvedere, daughter of Keith, during the 1915 Panama Pacific Fair. Mrs. Harmon donated the painting and six others by Keith to the college in 1946 after not receiving satisfactory offers for the sale of the works.

Keith did much of his work in Marin County during the late 1800s. The painting priced at $50,000, "Symphony of Peace," portrays Lagunitas Creek. The value of the painting came to light in a letter from Brother Cornelius of St. Mary's College requesting the use of the work in the San Francisco show.

The painting, which measures 40 inches high and 60 inches wide, has also been shown in the Keith Gallery at St. Mary's College and the Oakland Art Museum.

Keith painted about 4,000 works. Half of these were destroyed in the 1906 San Francisco fire and earthquake. "Symphony of Peace" will be returned to the college after showing.

SAVED BY THE CLOCK? NO, HE WINS IT

G. W. Robertson (left) holds hand of piano tuner Walter E. Rowell aloft in gesture of victory as he presents him with eight-day clock inscribed: "For distinguished service above and beyond the call of duty to the community of Mill Valley. Presented by his grateful fellow citizens, Dec. 4, 1961, Walter E. Rowell, Mill Valley." The clock was purchased with quarters contributed to a fund at the Mill Valley Greyhound bus depot to buy a "hero medal" for 72-year-old Rowell, who last Wednesday struck the first blow in what was reportedly a two-punch fight with Thomas F. Collison, editor-publisher of the Mill Valley Record, because of Collison's editorial attack on the health of Peter H. Behr, candidate for county supervisor in tomorrow's election. The presentation was made today at Rowell's home. (Independent-Journal photo)

Planners Postpone Open-Zone Action

Marin County Planning Commissioners today postponed action on amending the zoning ordinance to include an "open area" zoning after almost denying the addition.

A provision was added to the proposed change to add a "consent" clause, specifying that all owners of property under joint ownership would have to consent to zoning an area as open area.

Commissioner George Scott moved to adopt the new change in the zoning ordinance with the "consent" clause but could not get a second. Commissioner Felix M. Warburg then moved to accept the zoning change without the added clause but after second by John S. Switzer, the motion failed, 3-2. Absent was commission chairman William Upton.

Warburg suggested the vote should wait until all six commissioners were present. The planners then decided to bring up the matter at their next meeting on Dec. 18.

The commission also continued discussion of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad waterfront in Tiburon for public use rather than commercial development until Jan. 8. This is the request which prompted the commission consideration of changing the present zoning ordinance to include an open area district zoning.

Young Driver Arrested For Drag Racing

Mill Valley police cited Jim Turk, 18, of 8-B La Verne Avenue at 5:05 p.m. yesterday for drag racing on Miller Avenue. Turk tried to escape and was chased and apprehended by officer William Walsh on East Blithedale Avenue.

On Saturday at 11:05 a.m. Turk reported to police he had been forced off the road in approximately the same area on Miller Avenue, causing his car to hit a utility pole.

President Studying Budget Prior To Trip

The president met at the White House with budget director David E. Bell shortly after returning by helicopter from a weekend with his family at their Middleburg, Va., estate. He goes to New York City tomorrow and to Florida Wednesday.

The president hopes to whip the budget into final shape within the next two weeks. But still to come are final decisions in such major spending areas as space, defense and foreign aid. The budget conferences will be resumed after Kennedy returns to the White House Friday.

Both the president and Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon have pledged to balance the budget which will be sent to congress next month for the fiscal year starting July 1. This would contrast with the deficit of at least seven billion dollars expected this year.

As now contemplated, the 1963 budget would call for a surplus of a few hundred million dollars, a slim margin that could be wiped out easily by any unforseen developments before July 1, 1963.

Spending for the coming fiscal year is estimated at more than 91 billion dollars, compared to this year's peacetime high of 89 billion dollars, give or take several hundred million.

Kennedy was scheduled to leave tomorrow afternoon for New York to attend the national football hall of fame dinner at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel tomorrow night.

After spending the night at the Carlyle Hotel, he will deliver a major address on foreign trade policy to the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

After the NAM luncheon the president will fly by jet to Palm Beach, spending the night there and continuing by helicopter Thursday to Miami where he will address a national meeting of young Democrats during the morning.

Continuances Given In Dope Case

Three women and five San Quentin Prison inmates received continuances in Marin Superior Court today on charges of conspiring to smuggle heroin, marijuana and peyote into prison.

Mrs. Pauline Herrera, 31, of Los Angeles, charged with being the chief source of about $18,000 in heroin slipped into the prison, pleaded innocent and Judge Richard M. Sims set Dec. 18 to set trial.

Marie Frances Hall, 47, of Hayward, mother of one of the convicts, was given to Dec. 18 to plead. Anne Marie Kellam, 25, of Oakland, was given to Dec. 11 for arraignment.

Thomas Devers, 24, Mrs. Hall's son, convicted of receiving stolen goods, Richard Rodriguez, 34, Los Angeles burglar, and Robert T. Ballentine Jr., 34, Santa Clara murderer, were referred to Public Defender Peter Allen Smith, who received a continuance in their arraignment to Dec. 18 to study the grand jury transcript.

The grand jury indicted the five last Thursday night.

A Little Sickness Builds Up Immunity

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A little sickness is good for you.

This idea is not new, but only in the past few years has it been voiced with any authority by spokesmen of all the healing arts.

What do we mean by a "little sickness" and how can it be "good"? First, we have to face the fact that all of us get sick now and then. We know that nearly every child who leads a normal, healthy life will become exposed to colds and to one or more of the usual childhood diseases like chicken pox, measles and the mumps.

These ailments in most cases do more good than harm to the growing child . . . because they set up a protective immunity against the more serious diseases which may strike later in life. For instance, an attack of the measles, say at four years, could equip the body with sufficient natural defense to ward off a polio attack 10 or 12 years later. This type of natural immunity, tailored by nature to your needs, is preferable to the artificial immunizing agents that man has devised for mass innoculation.

Chiropractors favor natural immunity against disease. This type of protection plus regular chiropractic care of the nervous system —the master system—will ensure that disease is kept to a minimum of frequency and severity.

None of us can escape illness completely but when we do happen to become "off-colors," let's take the shortest road to recovery. Chiropractic care of the spine, when needed, will enhance your natural resistance and immunity by freeing your nervous system of block which drain your resistance to sickness.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C., practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201 (Adv.)

Recreation Area Permit Is Approved

A use permit for building an outdoor recreation area at the Northbridge Recreation Club in Santa Venetia was granted by the County Planning Commission.

The added facilities will be built between the present swimming pool and 164 Madison Avenue. The planning staff recommended the commission approve the request, which was done unanimously, 5-0. (Absent was Chairman William Upton.)

Among the conditions of the use permit were that the recreation area would be open only during the hours when the pool area is open, and additional parking facilities be added on the west side of Madison Avenue.

The commission continued until its next meeting on Dec. 18 consideration of amending the Tiburon master plan which would change the plan of the Ridge Route.

The initially proposed route was between a planned high school and the west boundary of the Marinero subdivision. The new route under construction will be along the north side of the ridge.

Child, 2, Eats Razor Blades

A 2-year-old San Rafael girl appeared none the worse today for adding razor blades to her diet.

An attending physician said the child would be kept under observation at home.

Youth Leaps From Gate Bridge, Lives

said, apparently having landed on his buttocks and elbows.

Working with Miller were Dr. Douglas E. Ramsey, Dr. Theodore D. Hiatt and Dr. Herbert C. Lee, all of San Rafael.

Kennedy was conscious during his removal from the beach to the hospital and reluctantly identified himself to California Highway Patrol Sgt. James J. Shanahan and Patrolman V. C. Weimar on his arrival at the hospital. "He begged us to let him die," Shanahan said.

"We heard him hit with an awful thud," said Patrolman Theodore McGuire, who, with Patrolman Angelino Corvino, came within inches of preventing the leap.

Kennedy alighted from an Oakland cab at the north end of the bridge about 4:15 a.m., telling the driver he was "going to meet friends." The driver, Ronald L. Kent of Oakland, became suspicious and sped back across the bridge to notify toll plaza authorities.

McGuire and Corvino arrived in time to see Kennedy running beside the rail toward San Francisco. They leaped from their patrol car only to see him jump into the blackness as they reached for him.

Assuming him to be dead, the officers radioed for the coroner. Reaching his broken body at about the same time were McGuire, Corvino, Shanahan, Weimer, members of the Sausalito fire and police departments, Coroner Frank J. Keaton and a Sausalito Ambulance crew.

Officers heard him groaning and calling, "Mother . . . Dad . . ."

Authorities said Kennedy lived with his widowed mother at 4202 Tomkins Avenue in Oakland. The youth was employed as a shipping clerk since his discharge from the Navy a year ago.

He reportedly left his home Saturday evening and attended a show with friends. He hailed a cab in Oakland shortly before 4 a.m., telling the driver to take him to the north end of the bridge.

At 8:35 a.m. yesterday, while the four specialists were fighting to save Kennedy's life, California Highway Patrolman Arthur Olson discovered a coat, notebook and wallet containing $40 belonging to James Henry Smithback, 25, of San Francisco, beside the bridge rail.

Smithback's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smithback of San Jose, and a brother, John Smithback of Oakland, said he had been under the care of a psychiatrist. His brother added that he had attempted to take his life with an overdose of sleeping pills about a year ago.

Smithback, employed as an usher at a San Francisco theater, was last seen at about 5 p.m. Saturday when he picked up his weekly paycheck. He was to have reported back to work at 6 p.m.

Furnace Firm License On Council Agenda

The suspension of Holland Furnace Co.'s town business license will be taken up by the Corte Madera Town Council today at 7:30 p.m. at the town hall.

Final action was held over from the Nov. 20 meeting at request of Holland Furnace Co. attorney John F. Ward.

A proposed ordinance setting the speed limit of 25 miles per hour on Tamalpais Drive will also come before the council. Other items on the agenda include an agreement for engineering services of the Madera Park area by engineer Daniel Coleman and a report from town clerk Maydeen Penny on an intention to circulate an initiative petition by Corte Madera citizens for a swimming pool in the town park.

Windows Broken At West End School

Four 30-by-30-inch windows at the West End School in San Rafael were broken on Saturday, principal Harold V. Delma reported.

Police said indications were that youngsters had shot at the windows with B-B guns from the hill behind the school. The panes were valued at about $60.

SOUNDS IN FOGGY NIGHT WERE DEFENSE SIRENS

San Rafael residents in Sun Valley, the top of Tamal Vista, the Dominican area and the Bret Harte district made police phones jangle between midnight and 7 a.m. today to complain of civil defense sirens being sounded.

A check with the County Communications Center showed that work was being done on CD circuits and a general test of the sirens was conducted. Also, said the center, sirens tend to scream automatically when the weather is damp and foggy.

Hub Council Will Be Asked To Name Tree Committee

San Anselmo's City Council will be asked to reappoint a municipal tree committee, City Administrator Douglas Flautt said today.

This decision has been reached by Flautt and the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce as result of a meeting last week of Flautt and the chamber's board of directors.

Flautt said the tree committee was active when first named in 1958 but it gradually lost members as several moved away. He and the chamber directors decided the most constructive thing they could do toward shaping tree policy would be to restore the committee.

"What with just arranging for 10 more magnolias after arranging for 50 earlier," observed Flautt, "I wouldn't say there was much lacking now. Pretty soon we'll have trees coming out of our ears."

Marin Post Offices Offering Services

Post offices throughout Marin County will offer additional service beginning next weekend to accommodate Christmas mail, San Rafael Postmaster Warren H. Williams announced today.

Beginning Saturday post offices in Belvedere - Tiburon, Corte Madera, Fairfax, Hamilton Air Force Base, Kentfield, Larkspur, Mill Valley, Novato, Ross, Sausalito, San Anselmo and San Rafael will maintain the following hours:

Saturday — From 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Sunday, Dec. 10 — closed; Monday through Saturday, Dec. 11 through 16 — 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Sunday, Dec. 17 — From 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.; Monday through Thursday, Dec. 18 through 21 — From 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Friday, Dec. 22 — from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, Dec. 23 — From 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Postmaster Williams offered these helpful hints on how to mail Christmas cards and gifts to insure prompt and safe delivery before Dec. 25th:

Use 4c postage on your Christmas cards. Sent by First Class mail, they are sorted and delivered first, and if you include your return address on each envelope, they will be forwarded in the event of a change of address, or if they are undeliverable, they will be returned to you. Also, you can write a personal message on the Christmas cards sent by First Class mail; whereas, only your signature is authorized on cards sent at the 3c, unsealed third class rate.

Avoid careless packing of your gifts. Use strong cartons, wrap in heavy paper, and tie with sturdy cord. Mark packages containing breakable gifts, "Fragile" — "Handle With Care." Put an extra label carrying the recipients and senders name and address inside every package.

In conclusion, the Postmaster said, "By taking a little extra care with your Christmas mailings right now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones. The Post Office is fully prepared for the big Christmas mail rush, but through your cooperation in mailing early and often, as suggested by the National Improved Mail Service program, there'll be less danger of some Christmas cards and packages not being delivered before Christmas."

Presto Shows the new look in telephone numbers

All-numeral phone numbers come to Marin County

All listings in the April, 1962, Marin County telephone directory will have all-numeral phone numbers. Numerals are being substituted for letters in everyone's number. Since the numerals correspond to the same dial openings as the letters they replace, dialing itself will be unchanged.

The changeover to the new type of numbers is taking place gradually:

- Anyone getting telephone service in Marin County for the first time, moving to a new address, or getting a new phone number, is now being given an all-numeral number.
- New dial number plates have been mailed to most Marin County customers. Installers are calling on customers with five or more phones to change the number plates. Also, Information Operators have your all-numeral phone number. However, since no dialing change is involved, people will still reach you if they dial your number as listed in the present Marin County telephone directory.

These new phone numbers are part of a new nation-wide numbering system called All Number Calling. It's needed to keep ahead of America's growth. Twenty years ago there were less than 23 million phones in the U.S. Right now there are more than 74 million, and by 1975 there may be more than 160 million phones. This growth is rapidly exhausting letter combinations for usable prefix names.

By changing to an all-numeral system, enough numbers will be available to keep up with telephone growth in Marin County and the rest of the Nation.

FAREWELL FROM THE PATROL

Yuletide Safety Called For

The Marin County Assn. of Fire Chiefs today extended its best wishes for a merry and safe Christmas season to county residents and offered specific suggestions to help insure yuletide safety.

John C. Terris, association president and assistant Sausalito fire chief, said the fire chiefs recommend placing the Christmas tree well away from open fireplaces, curtains and hangings.

Flameproof the tree, wreaths and trimmings. Use metal, tinsel or glass ornaments and asbestos for trimming. Do not use cotton.

Use properly inspected electrical equipment. Do not leave tree lights burning when absent or asleep. Keep celluloid ornaments away from electrical light globes or open flames.

Do not use light candles on the tree or near it. Do not use wax, lacquer orotherflammable materials on tree or wreaths. Be more cautions than usual about smoking during the holidays. Remove the Christmas tree immediately at the end of the holiday season.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Importance Of Recall Vote Demands Heavy Turnout

Tomorrow the voters of Southern Marin go to the polls in an unique Marin election, the recalling of a supervisor.

It is not a battle between two men, although obviously if one man is recalled, another will be substited in his place. The issue is simple:

Shall J. Walter Blair continue to serve the district as its supervisor? Answer Yes or No.

If the answer is no, Peter Behr, former Mill Valley councilman, will become supervisor because no one is running against him.

The answer to the question is of great importance to Blair, to Behr, to the Third Supervisorial District residents, and to all the rest of Marin County. For the latter, it is important because quite likely a new supervisor would result in a change in the majority thinking on the County Board of Supervisors, possibly a new chairman, and reoriented thinking on the part of numerous county employees.

It is especially important, therefore, that the voters of Southern Marin answer that big question en masse. It would be most unfortunate if, for example, only about 25 per cent of the voters turned out and Blair won, say by a 2,917 to 1,993 vote. Blair would, in such a case, be retained in office by fewer votes than were signed on the recall petition of 3,150 names.

It would be equally unsatisfactory if Behr defeated Blair by similar figures. Then Behr would be in the position of actually having lost some of the people who originally called for Blair's recall. He would have won the seat with only about one sixth of the voters' support.

Unfortunate, both sides have indulged in excesses in the campaign battle. We regret some of the incidents that took place. It is lamentable, it seems to us, that Blair did not make more personal appearances to take his own story to the people.

But for many weeks now, we have been carrying numerous articles and letters on both sides of the issue. We think the people of Southern Marin now have the information they need to make up their own minds.

Now the question is, will they brave the rain, cold, missed-television, and delay they might encounter in going to the polls to vote in large numbers? We think they will.

For everyone's sake, we hope so.

The Lullaby Of Rain

The oldest lullaby of all must have been the sound of pouring rain outside the cave as primitive man, his wife and children snuggled together under fur robes beside a dying fire.

Today, though the cave has become a tract house, the fur robes have turned into electric blankets, and the dying fire has become a thermostatically controlled furnace, there is still no more hypnotic lullaby than the music of rain outside the window.

Marin's rainy season has begun in earnest now. We can hear the rain outside. After all, we must work. (Yawn). Well, maybe we'd better get another cup of coffee.

PUT LOVE WHERE THERE IS NO LOVE

Popular songs have been enlisted by Communist East Germany to subvert the minds and hearts of young people.

New and hate-filled lyrics have been given to familiar tunes. One example goes like this:

"Hatred! . . . Scream it into every home . . . Carry it into quiet streets . . . Teach the flowers to hate . . . take revenge."

If the enemies of God and humanity "run into the streets" with hatred, those who profess to follow Him had better hurry out and beat them there with love.

Carry it into the factory, into the office, into the home, the school, the meeting place, and into every other place where men come together.

If you do, you will be fulfilling the command of one spiritual writer who said: "Put love where there is no love, and you will find love."

With such a motivation you will penetrate everyone with a fire that warms but does not destroy.

"And do you therefore love strangers, because you also were strangers in the land of Egypt." (Deuteronomy 10:19)

Fill me with more daring and enthusiasm for Your cause, O Lord, than those who work against You do for theirs.

Young Executive Need Wife Who Will Live Like A Gypsy

One of the things a young, would-be executive needs most is a wife cheerfully willing to lead a semi-gypsy life. The average executive is moved 12 times by his firm before he finally settles down to that big swivel chair in the home office.

It's fun to buy records in a Swedish music shop. You not only get to listen to a record free—you can also dance with the sales girl.

If your feet get tired, so do your shoes. A 150-pound person with a three-foot stride who walks five miles a day at the end of a year has put a total of 120,450 tons of weight on his shoes. Incidentally you will probably buy 250 pairs of shoes in your lfetime.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Need A Bond Of Compassion

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Under date of Nov. 27 your esteemed paper published a letter signed F. P. Sherry, deploring the wanton killing of a rare and beautiful wild goose; also a slain deer by another trigger-happy human of the ilk that ruthlessly, deliberately destroys any defenseless creature that happens into view, than which nothing could be more cowardly.

I frequently hear the inane remark "animals have no souls." The ancestors of the fascinating animals with which California is favored, lived carefree and happily and made the world habitable for humans millions of years before souls were invented.

Will egotistical, self-worshipping humans never desist from their avarice long enough to develop some small degree of kindness and compassion for the little creatures around us? When humans desist from murdering their fellow-animals, they will stop killing their fellow-men.

Peace, for which the superstition saturated cults are clamoring and praying, could so easily become a reality if united in a bond of compassion.

More News On Square Dancers

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Saturday, Nov. 25, the magazine section carried a very fine article on square dancing, which I am sure was enjoyed by all dancers in the county.

I do have a question though. Searching the I-J for news regarding the square dance clubs I seem to not find one word regarding their activities, other than the listings under the "Marin County Events." Why isn't there any local news regarding these clubs?

There are a great number of us who cannot attend each of the local dances, which I am sure you should be able to understand. We miss a number of very nice dances because there isn't anything in the paper to indicate that a special dance is being held. . . .

It would be very nice to be able to read the news regarding the square dance clubs once again. Would you be kind enough to permit our local clubs to once again use your paper to let the rest of us who cannot attend every square dance know what they have done and what they plan to do? . . . I am sure that you will find that we are actually more interested in reading about our local events instead of articles written by many a frustrated person regarding how to care for our husbands, and if we desire seat belts, we do not need articles to tell us so in each edition of the I-J.

Give us local news pertaining to Marin County.

No Boat Ramp In County Park

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thought you might be interested in local reaction to the state plans to establish an outboard ramp in our County Park. We feel it is a pretty dirty trick, and trust the county will not go along with it.

Ray J. Nesbit, Coordinator,
State Wild Life Conservation Board,
Sacramento

This evening (11/28) I read in the San Rafael paper that your office is outlining a proposal to build boat facilities at the Marin County Beach Park, Tiburon.

I rooted for the establishment of this park. Some of my neighbors were sore as hell that I did so. The plans at that time did not include any outboard motor boat ramp.

This neighborhood of the park is a decent, quiet residential one. If properly used, the park will be an asset and we will be pleased to see it filled with Marin County people and strangers alike.

My neighbors and I definitely oppose any plan to turn this cove into a racketing, whooping outboard haven. Inclusion of a ramp in your plans is most unwelcome. We ask that it be excluded.

Where Does Book By Hoover Fit In?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

For once I find myself without an opinion and would like to ask the expert extremists, extreme extremists, and extreme anti-extremists, left, right and middle, amongst your readers, a question.

Where do they, or any of them, place J. Edgar Hoover and his book "Masters of Deceit" in their personal philosophical rainbow of extremism?

I would also invite the comment of any citizen who is weary of those who make proper nouns of common adjectives and political kingdoms and purgatories out of points of the four winds.

EDITOR,

Three cheers for Ian K. McDougall (11/28). The so-called sportsmen and happy hunters give me a pain.

Can't we have more cameras and less killings?

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Nothing can stop a Hoosier newspaperman. Pete Henderson recalls the night he was working on the Crawfordsville, Ind., Review when a report came over the wire that the Titanic had struck an iceberg on its maiden voyage and sunk. Henderson needed a picture in a hurry, but all he could find was a cut of an old Lake Erie side-wheeler. He never had seen an ocean liner himself and figured that most of his readers were similarly ignorant. So he used the old cut on Page 1 with the caption "The Ill-Fated Titanic." The next day he was looking for a new job.

A champion prize fighter, after an exhibition bout in Winnipeg, was shown a photograph of himself that had appeared the day previous in a San Francisco paper.

"How did they manage that?" demanded the pug. "I ain't been in San Francisco for years."

Some Like To Play At Politics, But Others Much Prefer Love

Love is a funny game, but politics funnier.

So much depends on the quirks, the foibles, the friends.

Mother Nature, for example, has played tricks on both camps. She washed the words off the revolving Blair sign near Marin City, leaving only the name of the previous sign—"Eat At Joe's" or something such as that.

IN A RANDOM poll we find that some firemen prefer Blair and some attorneys prefer Behr.

Sausalito Fireman Ralph K. Pedersen said "I'm for Blair. He's done a good job. He hasn't had a good chance to show his stuff because he's been pressured and heckled by hard losers."

An attorney from the Second Supervisorial District said: "The recall will have a profound effect on the Second District as well as the rest of the county. While I wouldn't dare to interject myself into politics of the Third District, nevertheless, it is my fervent wish that the recall succeed so that we can restore responsible government to all of Marin."

MUSICIAN AND baby-sitter Daisy Saville said she would not vote for Blair. Said she: "I'm against old people doing things. They get crotchety the older they get."

Mrs. Lynn Brockway, housewife, said: "I'm not a Blair fan, but I think it's incredible to pull this garbage. I'm voting for Blair on principle."

One man, who wished to remain anonymous, said he preferred Behr but that he would vote for Blair because he didn't like one of Behr's acquaintances.

You see how easy we humans can switch from one side to the other when it comes to politics. In love, you know, it's either "she loves me" or "she loves me not."

ACCORDING TO Jack O'Brien, an executive: "Blair ran as a member of an economy bloc. His experience in office to date has demonstrated that his concept of 'governmental economy' is not only false but extremely dangerous."

Said Sally Stanford, inn owner, who took no particular stand for a man but said she will vote: "Everybody should vote. If people aren't doing their duty and not acting for all of the people with the same zealousness, I think we should do something about it. We ought to have somebody who knows what he's doing."

WINDING UP our random poll, we talked with Juanita Musson, bistro owner who said bluntly regarding love and politics:

"Politics is a thankless job anyway you look at it." Then she added, "Give me love."

WALTER LIPPMANN

We Should Recall Our Tradition Of Isolation Before Rapping Neutrals

WASHINGTON — In his new appointment, Chester Bowles is to be advisor to the President about affairs in Latin America, Africa, and Asia. In effect, he will be concerned with the countries which are not within the Communist orbit and yet are not aligned with the anti-Communist alliances of which the most important is NATO.

Although almost all of these countries are called "underdeveloped," they are in fact in all stages of development. The differences among them are of compelling importance.

There are primitive African tribal communities and there are economically advanced, but not yet economically autonomous, countries such as India and Brazil. Many, like the Sudan, are devoting themselves almost entirely to domestic development. A few, like Ghana, are politically adventurous.

IN VIEWING the "nonalignment" of these new nations, it is well to remember our own tradition of isolation. All the Founding Fathers believed in it, and for a century it was the basis of our foreign policy.

It had two aspects: the United States was to stand apart from the quarrels of the Old World, and Europe was not to be allowed to interfere in the affairs of the New World. The original and classic exposition of our own isolation was made by George Washington in his Farewell Address:

"THE GREAT RULE of conduct for us in regard to foreign nations is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible . . . Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor, or caprice? . . . It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world, so far, I mean, as we are now at liberty to do it."

Ever since we emerged from our isolation and neutrality, we have found it difficult to know just what to think and how to feel about countries which are still isolated and still cling to their neutrality.

As a result, our opinion has in the main swung back and forth between two poles. At one pole there is the feeling that in the great conflicts of our time, first with Nazism and Fascism and now with Communism, to be neutral, unaligned, uncommitted, and unengaged is immoral.

AT THE OTHER pole there is the reaction against this view. It inclines to an excess of humility, and is disposed to accept President Tito's claim that he and his fellow-neutralists are "the conscience of the world."

Since the Belgrade conference and the inability of the neutrals to deal with the moral issues raised by the Soviet's nuclear explosions, American opinion has swung sharply towards the view that we should stop paying heed to neutralist opinion.

(TOMORROW: A general attitude about neutrals?)

noon yesterday following a rear ender on Shoreline Highway near Almonte Boulevard in which a car driven by Arthur LaGrove Brown, 32, apartment C-50-393, Marin City, piled into that of Ted Samuel, 56, of San Francisco.

Brown, a custodian at Tamalpais High School, was released from the hospital after being treated for a headache. His passenger, Arthur Leroy Foster of apartment C-19-148, Marin City, was released after treatment for a cut face. There were no citations.

A 67-year-old retired carpenter of Point Reyes Station was in fair condition in Marin General Hospital after his westbound car plunged over a 100-foot embankment on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about two miles north of Fairfax at 5:30 p.m. yesterday.

Harry William Lenhard told California Highway Patrolmen he "must have blacked out," as he did not recall leaving the road. He was alone in the car, officers said.

His injuries were undetermined but he remained only semi-conscious today.

Frances Marie Haussler, 54, of 5 Apollo Road, Tiburon, suffered injuries to both legs when her driverless car dragged her down her driveway and rolled over her shortly after noon yesterday. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Haussler told California Highway Patrolmen she was unable to release the hand break while sitting in the car, and got out of the car to release it. The open left front door caught her, dragged her part way down the driveway and threw her under the car, she said.

A practical nurse and a nurse's aide from Vallejo, employed by a San Rafael convalescent hospital, were injured early today in Sonoma County when another car rammed their vehicle as they were coming to work.

Mrs. Opal Simon, the practical nurse, was treated at the Novato Hospital for several large cuts and was later to be transferred to a Vallejo hospital. Her companion Mrs. Galeno Bailey, nurse's aide, suffered only minor cuts and bruises and was to return to her home in Vallejo.

Both were employed by the Villa Convalescent Home at 25 Villa Avenue, San Rafael. Another car was reported to have come in from the Lakeville road at its intersection with Highway 37 and struck their vehicle during heavy fog.

Man Nearly Electrocuted As Model Plane Cable Hits Wire

A Mill Valley man was nearly electrocuted yesterday when a model power airplane he was controlling with a steel wire struck a high voltage tower on the Tamalpais Valley School playground.

Taber L. Kopan, 33, a building contractor of 139 Kipling Drive, was knocked to the wet ground and almost totally paralyzed by the bolt of current. His life was probably saved by his 11-year-old daughter, Pamela, who rushed to the nearest house for help, bursting into the home and using the telephone without the formality of knocking.

Later, she could not remember which house she had entered.

FEET BURNED

Attendants at Marin General Hospital said the soles of Kopan's feet were severely burned and that it would probably be some time before he recovered the use of his right arm. The heat from the charge was so intense that holes were burned through the leather soles on his shoes, his wife, Marlas said.

Also with Kopan at the time of the accident was his son, Jimmy, 7, half-owner of the plane. Mrs. Kopan said they had built the model together and had flown it once before, finding it was too heavy. Yesterday's ill-fated flight was the first since it had been remodeled.

RUSHED TO AID

A second daughter, Lynn, was at home with Mrs. Kopan when Pamela notified them of the accident. They rushed to his side as he lay on the ground, almost unconscious waiting for the ambulance.

Mrs. Kopan said she was so panic stricken she could not find her car keys, but ran out of the house and flagged down the first car that passed.

"I held his hand," she said. "He tried to look at me, then gave my hand a squeeze. I knew he was going to be allright."

Young Jimmy, after a visit with his father at the hospital last night, indicated that he was ready to give up the hobby of flying.

"I'm going to give Daddy all my money — if he promises not to build any more planes," Jimmy told his mother.

Trial Concerning Miller's Book Will Start Tomorrow

The controversial "Tropic of Cancer," written by Henry Miller of Big Sur, will go on trial in Marin Municipal Court at about 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Officially Frank B. Pershina, 32, proprietor of the Golden Hind Bookshop at 560 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, will be on trial, before a jury, on a charge of knowingly selling obscene material. And if convicted he could face a maximum of $1,000 fine or six months in Marin County Jail.

But the issue that will decide Pershina's guilt or innocence will be the jury's finding whether the book is obscene — and defense attorney Charles W. Pierce of San Anselmo has said he will demand that the jury read the entire book.

Pierce will be assisted in the defense by attorney Lawrence Goldberg of San Francisco, legal author for the State Bar of California legal education program.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, who ordered Pershina's arrest, will prosecute the case before Judge Leonard A. Thomas.

Pershina was arrested after selling a paperback copy of the book to Investigator A. W. Adam Jr. of Garety's staff.

Two Youths Jailed For Mischief

Warren Alan Bostick, 19, of 40 Twain Harte Lane, San Rafael, and Jack Merrill Kelso, 18, of 61 Ridgecrest Road, Kentfield, were charged in a citizen's arrest last evening with malicious mischief in trespassing on the property of John Herman Hink on Piedmont Avenue, Larkspur.

The youths claimed they were on Hink's property only to inquire directions as they were walking down the slope of Mount Tamalpais. They had asked their way at two other houses higher up the slope, they said.

Hink and a neighbor, Robert Duncan of 4 Shady Lane, stopped the pair as they were climbing a fence, and called Larkspur police. Patrolman John Cottle booked the pair at the county jail on a complaint signed by Hink. They were released on $262 bail each, to appear in municipal court at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Hink claimed they broke a rail from the fence and siding from the house. The youths said they knocked at the door, got no answer, walked around the house and were climbing the fence when stopped.

Young Bostick is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren L. Bostick. His brother, Bruce, 17, and another youth were arrested Nov. 26 on the Desilu Studio lot in Hollywood and booked on suspicion of burglary. The charges subsequently were dropped.

It is not only unsightly but illegal to throw cans, papers and other trash from your car; carry a litter bag and use it.

Bones Not Of Amelia, Anthropologist Says

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An anthropologist said today that human bone fragments and teeth found on the Pacific Island of Saipan were not the remains of Amelia Earhart and her navigator.

Dr. Theodore McCown, professor of anthropology at the University of California, said the remains appear to be those of more than two persons. Also, they appear to be from orientals rather than causacians, McCown said.

The bones were taken from a grave on Saipan by Fred Goerner, a San Francisco radio newsman who has spent more than two years trying to solve the 24-year-old Earhart mystery.

Goerner believes they were captured by the Japanese and that they died on Saipan.

Jules Dundes, Columbia Broadcasting Co. radio vice president and general manager of KCBS, said, "Our faith in the basic details of the story reported by Goerner is unshaken, the testimony of so many residents of Saipan that a white woman flyer was there, and in fact, the receipt only yesterday of more information from U.S. soldiers who had been on the island during World War II, convinces us that the search for the final chapter of Miss Earhart's life will indeed be completed as a result of the evidence which Fred Goerner had reported."

Dundes referred to letters from Ralph R. Kanna of Johnson City, N.Y., and Fred Chapman of West Coxsackie, N.Y., both of whom recalled seeing snapshots of Miss Earhart when they were on Saipan during World War II.

Kanna said a Japanese prisoner had a photograph of Miss Earhart standing near Japanese aircraft on an airfield.

Arkansas Halfback Is 49ers' Number 1 Draft Choice

Syracuse Great Davis Picked By Redskins

San Francisco 49ers today picked Arkansas halfback Lance Alworth as their number one chaice in the National Football League player draft in Chicago.

The Washington Redskins, leading off the NFL draft, chose Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis of Syracuse, first Negro ever selected by the 'Skins.

Los Angeles, picking second in a draft swap previously obtained from Minnesota, selected quarterback Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State.

The Rams, also getting the third choice in regular rotation, took the prize tackle from Utah State, Merlin Olsen.

Owner George Preston Marshall of the 'Skins was under considerable pressure to hire the club's first Negro player.

Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall last week intimated selection of Davis would indicate Marshall's good intention to hire a Negro player. Udall made the proviso that unless the Redskins opened their roster to Negroes, they could not play in Washington's new stadium on National Park land.

COMPLICATED DEAL

The Rams had obtained Minnesota's first pick through a complicated deal in which the New York Giants sent quarterback George Shaw to Minnesota, the Vikings gave New York their first pick and the Giants gave this to Los Angeles for end Del Shofner.

The St. Louis Cardinals, making the sixth draw, took tackle Fate Echols of Northwestern.

Cleveland, down for the regular 11th position in the draw, got tackle Bob Lilly of TCU, as Dallas' pick in the No. 4 position because of a previous trade.

Tenth pick in the first round was made by the Detroit Lions, who selected halfback John Hadl of Kansas.

A Frustrating Afternoon For 49ers' Brodie

By JACK HANLEY
(I-J Correspondent)

BALTIMORE — It is just as well that Red Hickey is busy with NFL draft in Chicago today instead of viewing the films of that 20-17 49er loss to the Colts.

The redhead wasted not a moment in the 49er dressing room after Baltimore's reserve end Jimmy Orr did a first class juggling act with a 41-yard touchdown toss by Johnny Unitas in the final 62 seconds of the game.

Hickey hurriedly changed his cleated field shoes for more conventional foot gear and darted for a Chicago bound plane which he might have missed had he been caught in the happy Colt crowd of 57,641 spilling out of Baltimore Memorial Stadium.

BIG PLAY

"Unitas and Orr came up with the big play when it was needed, said Duncan.

Had Hickey not been in such a hurry to get to the draft meeting he might have had a few pungent remarks to add, particularly about some sloppy 49er tackling throughout the game and some butter fingered handling of John Brodie's passes.

Honest John's receivers not only dropped them on him but twice tipped them into welcome Colt arms for interceptions.

HALFTIME STANDOFF

A charitable description of the first half play by both teams would be that neither deserved the 10-10 intermission standoff.

Brodie fired the Shotgun several times against the Colts in an effort to get the game out of its monotonous groove and on one occasion even resorted to packing the ball himself — a 29-yard romp to the Colt seven, the best run of the day by any 49er.

That it was going to be a trying day for the 49er quarterback was indicated early in the first quarter when Aaron Thomas let one of Brodie's passes drift off his fingertips into Jackie Burkett's arms. The Colt linebacker lugged the interception 23 to the 49er 37 from where the Colts scored in eigth plays, the big one being an 18-yard romp by ex-49er Joe Perry just before Alex Hawkins took it over from the one.

MATT INTERCEPTS

Now, Matt Hazeltine intercepted a Unitas pass and ran 26 to the Colt 34. And then Brodie, after two tries by others netted minus two, made his 29-yard sprint but all it was good for was an 11-yard field goal by Tommy Davis since the Colt defensive line wasn't yielding anything.

A former 49er, Len Lyles, fumbled the next kickoff, Jim Ridlon recovering on the Baltimore 28. However, a moment later R. C. Owens, who is determined to become a free agent and refused to sign a

Los Angeles Wins; Seals Score Late

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Blades broke a scoreless tie in the second period with five goals and went to a 9-2 victory over the San Francisco Seals in a Western Hockey League game last night.

Blade center Gerry Goyer started the scoring at 1:29 of the second period. Goyer, with assists from Bruce Carmichael and Ralph Keller, picked up the puck at the corner of the cage and shot it past goalie Bev Bentley.

San Francisco didn't get its first goal until the final period was eight minutes old.

In other league games, Portland shut out Vancouver 3-0 and Seattle edged Spokane 2-1.

UCLA To Intensify Pre-Bowl Workouts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The UCLA Bruins, idle for a week, started working out today for their New Year's Day meeting with Minnesota in the Rose Bowl football classic at Pasadena.

The Bruins will practice in sweat suits this week, spending much of their time on limbering up exercises. Coach Bill Barnes expects to start heavier drills next week.

UCLA, which had a 7-3 record this season, has played four Rose Bowl games and lost them all. The Bruins figure to be the underdogs again. Two of their losses this season were to Big Ten teams, Michigan and Ohio State.

Packers Reign As Champs; Eastern Race All Jammed Up

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Call it a "steal," a "heist" or "the great gridiron robbery," but the Green Bay Packers are Western Division champs of the National Football League, and the New York Giants now must battle it out with Philadelphia and Cleveland for a shot at the playoff swag.

Green Bay won the Western title for the second straight year yesterday by beating the Giants, 20-17, in a savagely-fought game which conceivably might be re-enacted in the N.F.L.'s championship playoff a few weeks from now.

The Giants' defeat gave the Philadelphia Eagles the opportunity to move into a first-place tie in the Eastern Division. The Eagles beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-24. The Cleveland Browns, 38-17 conquerors of the Dallas Cowboys, now are only one game behind the leaders.

HEROES GALORE

The crowd of 47,012 at Milwaukee cheered a host of heroes. There was fullback Jim Taylor, who gained 186 rushing yards. There was quarterback Bart Storr, who directed the Packers' attack well. And there were the Green Bay linemen, who proved every bit the equal of their ballyhooed Giant opponents.

But the Packer who probably made the most important haul of the day was Jesse Whittenton, a light-fingered, 195-pound defensive back. This was the picture:

The Giants led 17-13 early in the final period and were running the ball out from deep in their own territory. Fullback Alex Webster cut back over tackle at the 7 and broke into the clear. Whittenton nailed him at the New York 30, but not satisfied merely with bringing him down, he stole the ball from Webster's grasp.

WINNING SCORE

Four plays later, including a penalty for roughing the passer, Taylor barged over from the 3 to put Green Bay ahead.

New York had two opportunities to score after that, but Pat Summerall missed a 34-yard field goal try and later Bobby Gaiters fumbled on the Green Bay 22 and Willie Davis recovered.

A pair of 23 and 25-yard field goals by Paul Hornung and Taylor's 14-yard touchdown run gave Green Bay a 13-7 lead in the first period, only to have New York go ahead before halftime on Gaiters' 2-yard plunge and Summerall's 41-yard field goal.

The Packers now take off for a leisurely two-game swing of the West Coast, while the Giants play the Eagles and Browns on the next two Sundays.

PUNCHES FOE

At Pittsburgh, Tim Brown scored on a 66-yard punt return and a 43-yard sprint from scrimmage and the Eagles turned three pass interceptions into additional scores to beat the Steelers in a rough game. Linebacker "Big Daddy" Lipscomb of the Steelers punched center Howard Keys of the Eagles during the final minute of play.

Babby Layne's two touchdown passes closed Philadelphia's lead to 28-24 in the final period before Brown broke loose on his second touchdown run before 21,653 fans. Sonny Jurgensen threw two scoring passes for the Eagles to set a club record of 26 for a season.

Cleveland's defensive unit scored two touchdowns before the offense took possession of the ball in the romp at Dallas. Defenders Bernie Parrish and Vince Costello ran 34 and 30 yards with fumbles and Jimmy Brown later scored twice for the Browns before a crowd of about 23,500 at Dallas.

In other Sunday games, the Minnesota Vikings upset the Los Angeles Rams, 42-21; the Detroit Lions edged the Chicago Bears, 16-15; the Baltimore Colts defeated the San Francisco 49ers, 20-17, and the St. Louis Cardinals rallied to beat the Washington Redskins, 38-24.

AFL UPSET

The Houston Oilers sent the San Diego Chargers down to their first defeat in 12 American Football League games this season, 33-13; the Boston Patriots squeezed past the Denver Broncos, 28-24; the New York Titans drubbed the Dallas Texans, 28-7, and the Buffalo Bills beat the Oakland Raiders 26-21.

Who's To Blame For 49er Flameout? Who's Responsible For Blastoff?

CONNOLLY

Just like Cape Canavaral. The San Francisco Forty-Niners reached countdown after the pre-season games, blasted off in perfect flight, and then developed interior trouble and destroyed themselves.

In the early season games this outfit functioned with good teamwork. Even after the switch over to automatic pilot (that would be when Coach Red Hickey called the shots) it looked as if the 49ers would at last go into orbit. Flameout, and ka-blooey!

So, men, it's back to the drawing board. Pick up the pieces, throw out the junk, and rebuild from the bottom.

And that's exactly what happens today as the 49er brass sits down in Chicago to draft the new crop of college rookies that will shore up the faulty machine. They hope.

If nothing else, yesterday's loss to the Baltimore Colts served to point up the basic weaknesses that have kept the 49ers from becoming championship caliber. They are not too hard to find.

The most glaring fault is the lack of offensive blocking, the kind that can go off tackle or around the horn and chop down two, three, and four men to spring a runner past the first line of defense.

THE HICKEY offensives have had a tough time getting ONE man ahead of the ball carrier. Now and again a couple of good blocks are thrown and a man like J. D. Smith can really get up a head of steam and go places. More often, the ball carrier is a sitting pigeon.

On one particular play yesterday, the 49ers made the supreme effort and got FOUR men around end ahead of the runner. This was the one that would go for a long gainer! In poured the defense to throw the man for a loss, with all four blockers still on their feet.

After a tremendous first half of the season, the 49er defensive platoon has fallen apart at the seams. I still say the decline of the locals started with the day Jim Johnson took over Abe Woodson's defensive spot and Abe was moved to offense. It is an axiom in pro ball that "a rookie defensive back will cost you a touchdown a game." Johnson has overdrawn his account.

HICKEY has been quoted the past week that Woodson was being benched because he was not doing his job after being moved back to defense. I don't buy it. My guess is that this would be another example of red-headed stubbornness on Hickey's part.

Woodson has always been the surest ankle tackler on the team, and his moves against pass catching ends have been fast and sure. This boy from Terra Linda would be on my first team along with ex-Marinite Matt Hazeltine, the only other defensive back who is still going all out in every gabe.

It is no secret that I do not see eye to eye with Hickey in all his moves, and this must upset him greatly! Nevertheless, I can't understand drafting for speed and not using it sooner, failing to give a key man like Johnson more experience before burning him, and generally mixing up his team until they lost confidence in themselves.

CHIEF SCOUT Pappy Waldorf will bring in some new raw meat, and some old heads will fall. Coach Hickey will stick around because he has kept the turnstiles clicking. But one more year like this one and they will be drafting more than players.

BILLS 'STEAL' GAME

Raiders Don't Know How To Win—Feldman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"The way we play," said Marty Feldman, "we look like we don't know how to win."

You couldn't blame the Oakland Raiders coach for his disappointment yesterday after the Buffalo Bills virtually stole a game from Oakland 26-21.

But you have to give Buffalo credit too. It wasn't the Bills' pockets that were picked.

Burly Mack Yoho, a 240-pound defensive end, had a first period Raider pass thrown right at him by Tom Flores.

On the following play, Bill quarterback John Green floated a 21-yard pass to Dewey Bohling, all alone in the corner of the Raider end zone.

Each club scored touchdowns in each of the next three periods. With seven minutes left, Buffalo's Billy Atkins punted to the Raider 28 and George Fleming returned the ball to the Oakland 45.

The crowd, announced at 8,011, sounded that large at that moment. When Flores ran for a first down on the Buffalo 48, the Raiders seemed destined to beat the Bills.

That's when a typographical nightmare named LaVerne Torczon did the Raiders in. Torczon, Yoho's running mate at defensive end, smeared Flores twice in a row, shoving the Raiders back 20 yards.

Moments later Oakland had to punt and Art Baker, the one-man mob from Syracuse, just ran the clock out almost single-handed. He carried the ball eight straight times and had moved the ball from Buffalo's 15 to the Oakland 40 when the gun sounded.

Alan Miller caught two touchdown passes for Oakland, a 15-yarder from Nick Papac and a 16-yarder from Flores.

That TD pass was Papac's only play of the day. The crowd was asking for more of him, even though Flores completed 19 of 36 for 253 yards. It wasn't one of Flores' better days.

The Raiders meet the Boston Patriots at Candlestick Saturday.

Marin Cats Suffer First Cage Setback

The Marin Catholic Wildcats suffered their first hoop loss this season to Serra Catholic High School of San Mateo in a real Saturday whipping session, 45-26.

The Wildcats, who are relatively short this year anyway, came up against a front line of Redwood trees. The Serra forward men averaged 6-5 and during a bombarding first half managed to drop in better than one of every two shots.

Wilcat forward Jerry Smith shuffled in and out of the timber and managed to tally 13 counts for coach Bernie Schneider's scrappy crew.

The Wildcats' junior varsity, after humiliating the San Rafael Military Academy varsity earlier in the week, kept their ego intact and belted Serra's Jay Vees 37-28.

Center Dick Grecni of the Cleveland Browns is a salesman in a music store during the off season.

Floyd 10-1 Choice Over McNeely

TORONTO (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson is a prohibitive 10-1 favorite to hand strong and rough Tom McNeeley Jr., the first defeat of his brief career in their 15-round title fight tonight at Maple Leaf Gardens.

There was every indication of a quick and explosive battle in Canada's first world heavyweight championship contest.

McNeeley, a 6-2, 200-pound former Michigan State tackle, predicted he would win by a knockout "within six rounds."

"I'm going after him," said McNeeley. "He won't have to go looking for me."

"I think McNeeley might be the kind of a fighter who will gamble and try to take over the fight," said Patterson. "If he does, it could be up and down like the last Ingemar Johansson fight with nobody giving up. So I'll gamble in the first round if he's willing."

Patterson declined to make any predictions, but he said, "I will be 100 per cent better than I was in the last fight with Ingemar last March."

In that fight, his third with Johansson, Patterson rallied from two first-round knockdowns and kayoed the husky Swede in the sixth.

The Patterson-McNeeley title fight will be the second half of a closed-circuit television double-header. The opening bout will match Sonny Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia, and stocky Albert Westphal of Hamburg, Germany, in a 10-rounder at Philadelphia's Convention Hall. Spectators at the two arenas will see the other city's fight on four-sided movie screens.

The double-header also will be shown in about 150 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada, and may be seen in 150,000 homes via community antenna television systems.

There will be no radio broadcast in the United States.

McNeeley may collect about $125,000. Patterson could earn around $300,000.

McNeeley's purse could be more than he grossed in all 23 of his pro fights. He has won all of them, 18 by knockouts. He is ranked ninth by Ring but is not included in the NBA's top 10.

Despite his impressive record, he is not rated highly as a puncher. His opponents have been inferior. He is a standup fighter who relies on his strength to overwhelm an opponent.

Patterson, trim and fast, has an overwhelming advantage in skill, power and experience. But he has been down 11 times in eight title fights. However, all of them have ended in knockouts. He won seven of them, losing to Johansson in the seven-knockdown third round of their first fight June 26, 1959.

Marin Cage Tourney To Start Thursday

The Marin County Athletic League Christmas basketball tournament gets underway Thursday at the Sir Francis Drake High School gymnasium with two games scheduled for the first day, three for the second and two for the third.

Other high school basketball games scheduled this week for Marin teams were Novato and the San Rafael Military Academy, and Tomales and the Tamalpais Jay Vees, today; and Marin Catholic at Analy in Sebastopol, and Terra Linda and Del Valle in Marin, both tomorrow at 4 p.m.

With Drake High hosting the Christmas tourney this year, athletic director George Corson and head basketball coach Carl Brown will be in charge. Last year's fete was at San Rafael High.

At 4 p.m. Thursday, host Drake and the Redwood Giants, defending MCAL champions, will start things off. At 5:30 the same evening, what may prove to be a hot San Rafael team, will clash with an equally moving Tamalpais squad. Both Marin Catholic, last year's tournament champ, and Novato have drawn byes which automatically advanced them to the semi-finals, to be played Friday.

The championship will be on the block Saturday night.

Another Coach Bites The Dust—SMU's

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist University starts looking for a new head football coach today, and backed by an administration statement that there are no plans to deemphasize the game, that fellow probably will be among the big names.

Bill Meek was let out as coach after five years when his team finished the season at Fort Worth Saturday, playing a 28-28 tie with Texas Christian.

Meek hadn't won enough games to get big enough crowds out to pay expenses and the athletic department was deeply in the red.

new 49er contract offer, tipped a Brodie pass into Don Shinnick's hands. So that scoring chance was nullified.

As the first half was coming to a close, Brodie took the 49ers to a touchdown over an 84-yard route in 10 plays, the scoring one being a 15-yard pass that Colt Gary Glick, apparently influenced by the way the 49ers were letting passes drift off their fingertips, deflected into Monty Stickles' hands in the end zone.

There were only 43 seconds left in the half but they were enough for the Colts to get a field goal Steve Myhra booted from the 32.

Virtually all of the third quarter was consumed by a 20-play 49er combination that covered 95 yards with J. D. Smith scoring from the four. It was the longest scoring sequence of the season and was aided by a pass interference call on the Colts.

Then the Colts took the ensuing kickoff to within 23-yard field goal range, Myhra supplying the three-pointer, Unitas and Orr later putting the finishing touch on Hickey's warrior's with the neatest juggling act of the season.

STRATEGIC SLATE

Tars Lose Again, But Don't Worry

Actually its' all strategy.

Not the College of Marin Tars' second straight loss of a basketball game as defending champions of the Golden Valley Conference, but their preleague schedule of playing the toughest teams in the north's junior college circuit.

That's the way Tar coach Cal Riemcke wants it—the schedule, not the losses. He knows the cake and frosting cliche. And for the past five seasons Riemcke got both when his squad hit the league trail.

Saturday night at the Sir Francis Drake High gymnasium, San Mateo smashed the Mariners 81-69, after having only a three-point halftime lead. The night before the Tars were beaten by the Diablo Valley College, 69-48.

Riemcke was anticipating a better performance out of his troops for that second game of the season, and so it was. A 35-32 halftime score indicates this. The Marinites were superior in shooting from the floor during that first division of play.

Tar Lynn Livie was back at his par game to score a total of 25. Dave Neumann was looking good on the boards in defensive play and did his share offensively by chalking 15 digits for Marin.

"The team has a long way to go," remarked Riemcke. He referred specifically to defensive work and more specifically to rebounding efforts.

The Tars will run the hardwoods with another solid outfit—Menlo College at Redwood High tomorrow at 8 p.m. and then Friday and Saturday tangle at the Vallejo tournament.

Juanita's Galley To Move Onto An Old Ferry Boat

Juanita's Galley in Marinship is to be moved aboard the ferry boat, Henry Van Damme, in March, owner Juanita Musson said today.

The move will take the restaurant out of the City of Sausalito and into the county at a spot opposite the Sausalito boat and tackle shop at Waldo Point.

"This has been my dream for six years," Mrs. Musson said. She said she started her restaurant in an old paint shop in Clipper Yacht Harbor Basin 2 in 1955. Seventeen months later she moved into an old bait shop and converted it to a restaurant. She is now in that location.

Mrs. Musson said she is buying the ferry boat, which she said is the last side wheeler in the Bay Area and used to run between Benicia and Martinez. The ferry boat is to be beached near its present location parallel to Bridgeway, and gangplanks will be installed and parking made available.

The galley will continue to operate 24 hours a day serving breakfasts, luncheons and pot luck dinners. Mrs Musson said she plans to install many old pictures, including those of ferries. The name will remain the same, more space will be available than the present restaurant and, she said, "the service will probably stay the same."

Mrs. Musson, who lives at 74 Wateree Street, said her present lease is up Jan. 10, and hopes to move aboard the boat.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Huntington of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Davies gave a buffet dinner at their Indian Valley Ranch in Novato Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Huntington who were en route from Tokyo, left today for New York and will fly from there to London. He is president of J. H. Thorp and Co., and an executive of Arthur Sanderson Co. of London. Also honored were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Quartly.

Entertained at the Davies' beautiful home on a high plateau in the hills were 50 guests. Mrs. Davies is known professionally as Elizabeth Banning. A color expert, she is a member of the American Institute of Designers. Among the Marin guests were Messrs. and Mesdames J. E. Countryman, George Richardson, Everett Brown and Mrs. Gail Rowland.

Exciting was the reunion of more than a hundred friends. The George Schirmers of Kent Woodlands, back from extensive European travels, the Richard Tissots of San Rafael returned from a sojourn in Hawaii and Mrs. John Donnelly of San Anselmo, who traveled recently in the British Isles and France, were given royal welcomes.

The Schirmers left the end of August and traveled two and a half months. They flew to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, England and Ireland and then back to Stuttgart where they bought a car to travel through Germany, Austria, France and Spain. They flew to Mallorca, and then went back to Paris, flying back from there. They did not go to Italy as they had spent much time there on previous tours. "When we left it was summer," Lorraine Schirmer said, "and when we came back it was winter." She and George are glad to be back for the holidays.

GORGEOUS GOWNS were seen at St. Stephen's Guild ball Friday night at the Dock in Tiburon. Five pre-dinner cocktail parties were given in beautiful homes. Hostesses were Mrs. Wallace Scott whose chiffon gown had a draped shoulder, Mrs. John Hoefer, wearing a challis gown with a coronet neckline, Mrs. William Ferguson in an Estevey peau de soie, Mrs. Merritt Vargas, who wore a floor length Dior gown trimmed with brocade and Mrs. Merritt Ruddock who chose a low backed black crepe gown. The Ruddocks told friends they were leaving soon for a vacation at Palm Springs. Musicians entertained at their party. At the Fergusons' much admired were displays of sailing and tennis trophies reflecting the soft light of the candles.

The emerald green gowns of Mesdames Edwin Weed, James Michael, Edwin Sinclair and W. C. Witter were in dramatic contrast to the all red decor of the ball. Mrs. Frank King wore a red satin brocade and Mrs. Richard Sims chose a full length white gown. A sensation was Miss Harriet Fletcher's gown made of 17th Century brocade.

The ball gave an opportunity for St. Stephen's parishioners to meet the new pastor, Rev. Llewellyn A. White, and his wife. He will preach his first sermon at St. Stephen's in Belvedere Dec. 17. He was with the Church of the Nativity in Terra Linda.

THE ROBERT ALDERMANS of San Rafael flew to Honolulu Saturday and are staying at Princess Kaiulani Hotel until Dec. 10. Bob, a lieutenant colonel in the Civil Air Patrol, will attend a regional meeting.

MRS. DONALD HOLCOMB, former San Anselmo school teacher, recently visited relatives in Switzerland and went over to see Mrs. Joseph Joseph in Garmisch. Mrs. Holcomb and her mother, Mrs. Bertha Mason, are now visiting relatives in Oakland and will return to San Anselmo after the holidays.

View Show To Welcome Opera Star

On Thursday, at the second gala Christmas luncheon of "Fashions With a View" from the Ondine in Sausalito, guests will be able to see and to talk with the star of the critics' admiration.

Miss Costa will be welcomed to Marin for her first visit on Thursday. She is currently in the Bay Area to present a concert on Sunday afternoon at the Curran Theater.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Guard Home During Party With Ideas From Experts

Holiday parties are apt to leave their mark on the home by way of spills and spots on furniture, carpet and walls.

You can guard against some of them with these suggestions from some experts.

Use masking tape instead of cellophane tape when hangnig mistletoe or ornaments. This will prevent the marring of smooth wall and door surfaces.

Lay in a supply of paper towels, for quick use in blotting spilled drinks, and also any mud tracked into the house.

Freshen the carpet as soon as guests leave with a brush that holds a cleaning solution.

Protect the carpet from muddy shoes by getting out the welcome mat on which guests and children can wipe their shoes, and covering one corner with a spray of holly.

For candy and gummy substances on furniture fabrics, scrape off the excess, then sponge the stain with a solvent-type cleaner for grease and oil. Blot with a tissue and repeat the procedure, brushing up the nap of the fabric afterward.

To remove chewing gum, moisten a tissue with a solvent-type cleaning fluid, hold over the spot for two minutes to loosen the gum and then sponge the fabric with cleaning fluid.

Melt wax marks off carpet or furniture by holding a warm iron over the surface. Then, sprinkle with a solvent-type cleaner, blot dry and repeat process until marks disappear.

Spilled soda pop and coffee should be mopped up immediately and given the sponge-blot-sponge cleaning treatment prescribed for candy spots.

Unemployment, Racial Tension And Alcohol Factors In Riots

"ONE THOUSAND YOUTHS BATTLE POLICE," a headline screams, and "TEEN-AGE RACE RIOTS FLARE ANEW." Have you ever seen a youth riot? It's a blood-chilling sight.

Why so many riots this year? There are several reasons. Racial tensions is one, unemployment is another. But a third cause has not been recognized sufficiently. More kids are getting drunk this year than ever before. It is too easy for them to buy liquor. I believe that increased drunkenness accounts for the rise in the number of teenage explosions.

Kids are hot-headed even when sober. They go to ball games or parties, and get excited. Then they drink, and lose all restraint. They do silly things. Cops appear and try to quiet them. They arrest the leaders. Blooey! The riot is on. Or maybe it isn't cops. Maybe some members of another gang turn up. Or two or three white boys appear in a colored neighborhood, or vice versa. Hatreds flare, and all Hades breaks loose.

Many reforms are needed, but one could come quickly. If every official tried, and if every liquor dealer cooperated, we could come close to drying up the alcohol supply for most youngsters. Some would get it anyway, of course. But we could make a remarkable difference in the drinking habits of teen-agers. We could, and we should.

Will you help? Let your friends know that drunkenness is an unrecognized cause for the increase in youth riots. Get them to ask for official drives against the adults who supply the liquor. Have your clubs pass resolutions. Law enforcement will improve quickly, if enough of us demand it.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Our minister says that drunkenness is an underlying factor in most juvenile delinquency. That sounds extreme to me. Is he right?"

J.S.

(A) He may be. Recently a check on delinquency in one state revealed that drinking had been a significant factor in over half of the juvenile court cases in 1960.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 5, the 339th day of the year with 26 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1776, the first scholastic fraternity in America, Phi Beta Kappa, was organized at the College of William and Mary.

In 1848, President James Polk confirmed the discovery of gold in California, thus making the gold rush of '48 and '49 inevitable.

In 1933, Prohibition was abolished with the 21st Amendment.

In 1934, 66 persons were executed in Russia following the "purge" trials at which they were charged with plotting against the Stalin regime.

A thought for the day: English writer and satirist Jonathan Swift said: "Satire is a sort of glass, wherein beholders do generally discover everybody's face but their own."

New Respertrain Is Real George With Red Cross

He is not the handsomest member but the chapter has welcomed him with open arms. He is affectionatly called "George."

George is a dummy—a "Respertrain." He has been purchased by the chapter to aid in the teaching of mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing, according to Jerry Van Soest, first aid services chairman.

Rescue breathing cannot be practiced on a conscious person, Van Soest explains. Therein lies George's value, for he reproduces accurately the problems of a real victim of drowning, shock or other accidents which cause breathing to stop. Even his appearance is realistic. The plastic skin is tinted to simulate the appearance of a person in whom breathing has stopped.

Furthermore, George has been designed to respond, as does the human body, to both correct and incorrect techniques of rescue breathing.

The "Respertrain" has a synthetic rubber skin and oral cavity with resiliant foam plastic flesh. Its lips are soft and its mouth can be opened by gentle stretching. Its nose has soft nostrils which may be pinched shut, a stiffer septum and a rigid bone. Its tongue feels and moves about like the human tongue.

There is a durable skeletal structure under the soft tissue containing precise mechanisms which sense the motions of the jaw and neck and produce human responses.

Students who have used the "Respertrain" have learned correct procedures in mouth-to-mouth breathing. If the operator is functioning properly, with the head tilted, jaw lifted and nose pinched shut to prevent air escaping, the lungs of the "Respertrain" will fill and, as the air is expelled, a hissing sound will be emitted.

If there is not response, the students learns, the head must be tilted back farther. If the stomach inflates instead of the lungs, it may indicate that the lower jaw is not pulled out properly to permit unobstructed passage of air to the lungs.

In addition the "Respertrain's" head may be turned, reproducing the procedures for locating and removing foreign matter by sweeping the oral cavity with a finger.

Retarded Children Talk Set

Whether retarded children would be better off at home or in an institution will be discussed before the Marin Aid to Retarded Children organization, which will meet next Monday night at San Rafael High School.

Speakers will be Samuel Levine, co-director of a two-year study conducted by San Francisco State College under auspices of the U. S. Office of Education. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at MARC-Marin Work Training Center on the San Rafael High campus.

New officers of MARC will take office Jan. 1. They are Dante Bagnani, president; Mrs. Irene St. John, Mrs. Robert Durenberger and Mrs. Morey Quilici, vice presidents; Mrs. H. D. Harrington, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. J. Kubon, recording secretary, and Mrs. Fay Blair, treasurer. Mrs. Harrington lives in Kentfield, Mrs. Quilici in Novato and the others in San Rafael.

Speed Limit Being Reduced

The speed limit is being reduced from 65 to 35 miles-per-hour on sections of Shoreline Highway north and south of Point Reyes Station, the California Highway Patrol announced today.

One stretch extends from 1,400 feet south of the town to 200 feet north of B Street where it joins a 25-mile zone. The other new 35-mile zone adjoins the north end of an existing 25-mile zone about 250 feet south of Nob Hill Road and extends to 1,900 feet north of the Petaluma-Point Reyes road.

Three From Marin At Sonoma College

Three Marin County residents are among 247 enrollees at the new Sonoma State College at Cotati, it was announced today.

The three, all with bachelors' degrees and studying for teaching credentials are: Lorraine Furtado, 613 Appleberry Road, Marinwood; Rosemary Vial, 679 Bamboo Terrace, Terra Linda; and Harry B. Holland, 390 Hibiscus Way, Terra Linda.

Luxury and low price were never blended so beautifully

Who but Chevrolet could've done it? Price, spice and everything nice! A car that's bustin' with room, zoom and richness. One that's deep in convenience and comfort. One that won't let you squander a thing but affection and may well have you dreaming up every excuse under the sun for getting in and going. That's the beautiful new Chevy II Nova for you. Look it over here. And light out in it right soon at your Chevrolet dealer's. CHEVROLET

NEW CHEVY II NOVA

EASIER GOING RIDE. New Mono-Plate rear springs take the place of squeaky, old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. Big and tough—but ever so gentle—they help give you a ride that puts you in mind of the big Chevrolet—and you know how smooth that is.

A SIX WITH V8 SCAT. You take a throaty, thrifty Six (120 hp. strong), team it with a car hundreds of pounds lighter than the big jobs—and, partner, you've got yourself some real Go!

⇧ RICH REFINED INTERIORS. Here's where you sit in the lap of luxury. Leatherlike vinyl upholstery. Foam-cushioned, of course. Carpeting and scuff mats. Vinyl overhead. Chrome trim. That's the inside story on every Chevy II Nova Convertible, Sport Coupe or Wagon.

⇦ EVEN BUCKET SEATS IF YOU LIKE. And like you probably will—not just because they fit the mood of Chevy II performance, but also because they're contoured for full support, padded with thick deep-foam cushioning, covered in rich leather-grained vinyl. Yours at extra cost in the Nova Sport Coupe and Convertible.

Body by Fisher

STRIKING NEW STYLING. This one's lines are so crisp and clean we're tempted to call them "elegant" (except that sounds very expensive, and Chevy II is anything but that!).

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

It Doesn't Have To Be Fatal If You Get Wrong Contract

It isn't always fatal to get to the wrong contract. You just have to play a little harder to get a good result.

West leads the deuce of diamonds, and you begin to regret your bidding when you see the dummy. Your partner would easily win nine or ten tricks at notrump.

Still, you're not yet worried about making four spades. You play the queen of diamonds from dummy, East covers with the ace, and you ruff.

You say you don't ruff? You discard the deuce of clubs instead of ruffing? Congratulations. You've made a beautiful play, and let's hope you'd do it even if you couldn't see those five trumps in the West hand.

NO TROUBLE: You have no further trouble after this fine discard. You can draw five rounds of trumps and can enter dummy with the jack of hearts to discard another club on the king of diamonds. Then you take the rest of the hearts, winning ten tricks.

Life would be miserable if you ruffed the first diamond. You would eventually lose a trump and three clubs.

You may feel that the 5-1 trump break is too unusual to bother about, but the point is that it costs you nothing to be careful. East's bid locates the ace of clubs, so you should expect to lose three club tricks no matter how you play the hand. Why waste a trump?

♦ 9 6 4 2
♣ 10 9

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. It is up to your partner to rescue himself from the redouble. If he bids one heart, you will pass until doubled. Then you will bid one spade. Give your partner as much chance as possible to get out at an undoubled contract.
